

CITY BULLETIN.

CRUELTY TO ANIMALS.—A. Heritage, from New Jersey, was arrested at Second and South streets, on the charge of cruelty to animals. He had a big load of potatoes, drawn by two horses with no sled upon them. He was fined by Alderman White.

Henry H. Dingle was arrested yesterday, by Policeman Weeber of the Third District, at Fourth and Pine, on a similar charge. He had a horse attached to a wagon. The animal was covered with a blanket, so that when the blanket was taken off, it was discovered that the horse was very weak. Dingle was taken before Alderman White, was fined $10, and was held in $600 bail, to answer at Court.

Intercourse with the Sheriff.—Deputy Sheriff McNamara went to the house of George Ackerman, butcher, at Twenty-seventh street and Girard avenue, yesterday, to make a levy. Upon his arrival there, it is alleged, Ackerman set several large bulldogs upon the Deputy. The latter ran to the house of John P. Allison, at Twenty-third and Brown streets, followed by the dogs. Two policemen were then detailed to protect the Deputy. The party went back to Ackerman's place, and while engaged in taking a horse and wagon out of the stable, Ackerman, it is charged, struck Officer Jeandell a violent blow upon the head. He was then arrested and taken before Ald. Panceas, who held him in $3,000 bail for trial.

The Second Internal Revenue District.—William S. Stobley, Esq., received yesterday from Washington, D. C., a copy of a decree of the Second District. This appointment will give general satisfaction to the Republican party of this city, and the interests of the Government, as well as those of the tax-payers of the district, will receive faithful and intelligent attention at his hands. A few of the personal friends and neighbors of Mr. Stobley assembled at his residence on Faber street, last evening, and heard the coming news with interest. Mr. McClellan's Liberty Silver Cornet Band, which exhibited its usual artistic skill, after which the hospitalities of the generous host were fully dispensed.

Fire.—This morning, about half-past three o'clock, the hotel of John Greenhouse, at the southwest corner of Forty-second and Market streets, was discovered to be on fire. The flames originated from a stove in a second story back room, and were supposed after having destroyed the contents of the apartment, to burst through into the third story, and one of the inmates of the house made a narrow escape, and seven women and children were rescued from the third-story window by the Sixteenth District Police, under Lieut. Tolbert. The loss by fire and water is estimated at $1,500.

Mission.—At the last monthly meeting of the Board of Managers of the Bedford Mission, held last evening, April 2, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Charles Spencer, President; Israel Peterson, First Vice-President; George Milliken, Second Vice-President; John H. P. Miller, Corresponding Secretary; George Penckel, Treasurer; Rev G. D. Long, Missionary. The following gentlemen have been added to the Board of Managers: Charles C. Barrett, Thomas Sapplington, D. H. Loudenslager, R. H. Lamborn, T. P. Godwin.

PICKPOCKETS.—Four pickpockets were observed to get on a Fifteenth street passenger car at the Baltimore Depot, last last night. Some of the employés at the depot followed the fellows, and when they came out of the police-station in Fifteenth and Broad streets the police were called. The car was stopped and Agent Currie and Sergeant McGinn entered it and arrested the four men. The prisoners gave their names as Geo. Davis, George Barnes, Felix Sond and George Thompson, and say that they belong to New York. They will have a hearing at the Central Station this afternoon.

The Blackstone Tragedy.—It is now known that there had been a defalcation by one of the clerks in the employ of the firm of Mr. Blackstone, a member. Mr. A. C. Funtz, managing partner, sends us the following cable upon the subject:

"To the Editor of the Evening Bulletin.—Sir: The report published in several of the daily papers to the effect that there had been a defalcation in my establishment which caused rapidly the insanity of Mr. Blackstone is not correct."

A Big Piece of Silver.—The Brown Silver Mining Company has just received at its office, No. 320 Washington street, a bar of pure silver weighing 532 pounds, and valued at about $16,000. This valuable piece of metal comes from the company's works and mines, near Georgetown, Colorado, and will be on exhibition at the office here for a few days, prior to sending it to the U. S. Mint for coining.

The Harbor Police.—The monthly report of Lieutenant Benjamin Edgar, of the harbor police, was presented to the Mayor this morning. It shows that during March three persons were rescued from drowning, and were prevented from walking overboard, and one body of a drowned person was recovered.

A Horse Transaction.—Charles Berger was arrested yesterday by Reserve Policeman Creighton, and was taken before Alderman Hood. It is alleged that he obtained from a man a horse valued at $125, for the purpose of selling it to a third party. The animal was sold for $65, and the money was not passed over to the owner. Berger was committed in default of $1,000 bail.

Resigned.—Paul C. Dantry, a member of the Eighth District police force, resigned yesterday. He has been a faithful and energetic officer, and has been connected with several important arrests which have been made in the last month.

Policeman Suspended for Drunkenness.—A policeman of the Eleventh District was discovered drunk yesterday, and engaged in beating a man on the head with his club. He was promptly suspended by Lieut. Pritchard.

Roberdy.—The dwelling of Bernard Macdonald, No. 102 North Broad street, was entered last night through a rear second story window, which was broken from a shed. The bureau drawers were rifled, and $100 were stolen from a lady's satchel.

Stealing Washed Clothing.—Sarah Brown was arrested last evening, on Second street, above Columbia avenue, on the charge of stealing washed clothing. She was committed for a further hearing by Ald. Helm.

Lackey.—George Williams went into the grocery store of Robert Johnston, at Thirteenth and Girard avenue, yesterday afternoon, and stole two hams. He was arrested and was held in $600 bail by Alderman Allison.

Illegal Liquor Skilling.—James Gallagher, Fourth and Shippen streets, has been committed by Ald. Titterman to answer the charge of selling liquor to minors.

Everybody Takes Interest in the "Opening," or rather, "Exploding," which will mark the opening of the new building of the Columbia Building, 200 Chestnut street, on Monday next. The buildings are being handsomely refitted and stocked with an assortment of choice, fine clothing, and the whole will be thrown open for display and public inspection. Ladies and gentlemen alike will be pleased to look through this new enterprise, as a prominent feature of it is its department for boys' clothing.

Literature.—John Trewhitt, of No. 614 Chestnut street (German Democrat building) sends us a complete variety of light reading publications; also, all the weekly periodicals, embracing Harper's, Frank Leslie's, Hearth and Home, Every Saturday, Appleton's Journal, &c. The establishment is an elegant assorterment of fancy and useful articles is always kept on hand.

The attention of our readers is called to the advertisement of the property No. 227 North Twentieth street, that is offered for sale.

Blymirek.—He decided that his two sons shall not enter the diplomatic career. The reason of this decision, it is thought, is the conviction he has acquired that the youths are not particularly gifted. His daughter possesses by far more ability than her brothers, and, during her mother's recent illness, officiated as the Conun's private secretary. His wife usually performs that duty.

Emme.—Queen of the Sandwick Islands, has bought a team of horses in San Francisco to take "air" withal.

Confederate General.—Thomas G. Polk, brother of the collator Bishop of Louisiana, died last week in Mississippi.
