THE DALLY ST PERING BULLUTHY—PHILADELOUIDA, WEDENEDAY, APPULL 7,

SOMEWHALLAND AND ADMINISTRATION OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PROPE

After breakfast and a repose of a few hours, we continued our excursion, followed by our boys, chanting and capering, by ascending to the coffee plantation of Senor Tomas Bueno, near which the little river of Macuto, itowing in a luxuriantly-shaded ravine, forms some fine cascades in descending the mountains. This place is estimated to be at the elevation of 4,000 feet above the port of La G., altuated on the eastern side of the "Avila." where we were sure of finding a guida. We could not find one at Gallipan who had mounted the peak, and I was not surprised at this. The most curious objects become less interesting in proportion as they are near to us; and I have known inhabitants of the city of Buffalo, N. Y. who had never seen the Niagara Falls but at a distance. Passing over several streams which were surned to good account, and winding through various plantations of coffee, cotton. sugar, yam, yucca, etc., we at length reached the terrace of an eminence where a delightful prospect over the port, with its many mass and liags, and the city stretched out at the foot of the hills below, the houses dazzling in the sun, was spread before our eyes. Here a venda stands, but it affords only tobacco, ram, biscuits and sardines, and no accommodation.

The matter has caused him a great deal of perplexity, and he delayed so long before he signed it that some people began long before he signed it that some people began to think he would veto it. Last week there was scarcely a morning that Judge Noah Davis, of the House, was not closeted with the President upon the subject, and it is well known that Dayis maintains that the bill, as it passed both Houses from the Conference Committee, anthorizes the Senate to reinstate an officer suspended by the President by rejecting the party who may be named to succeed him. There can be little doubt that the Judge very strongly impressed the President with this idea. In order to prevent any misunderstanding, an unusually large number of Republican Senators waited on the President this morning, inditionally, on purpose to talk the matter over, and long before he signed it that some people began | left the capital for Auhahais, on his way to tors waited on the President this morning, individually, on purpose to talk the matter over, and they assured him there was no desire on their part to checkmate him. and that the alleged double construction of the law which had been the construction of the president, who has so greatly distinguished himself by his obstitute of the construction of the law which had been the construction of the president, who has so greatly distinguished himself by his obstitute of the construction of the law which had been the construction of the construction of the law which had been the construction of the law which had been the construction of double construction of the law which had been argued as a fact in the newspapers and on the floor of both Houses, was without foundation. THE CASE OF MYBHS VS. MOFFETT.

This case was up before the Committee on Elections this morning, who had a spirited debate on it, but, without coming to take up the subjourned to meet this evening to take up the subjourned journed to meet this evening to any conclusion, adjourned to meet this evening to take up the subject again. There seems to be some hesitation on the part of some Republican members of the committee upon the question of throwing out several precincts where it is claimed by Mr. Myers that great frands were negregated. of Aur Cayes were well supplied with food, large quantities of native provisions finding their way into it from the surrounding country. THE DELAWARE PEACH CROP. THE DELAWARE PEACH CROP.

Were that this will establish a bad precedent, which will be made use of by the Democrats in future contests, should they have a majority of the Hones. In other words, the committee seem disposed to decide the case upon the points of law involved, without regard to not the State, have sustained, as yet, but little general Information which the servation, and from the general information which the servation, and from the general information which we have derived from others on the sustained, as yet, but little flowers on the score of his being a Republican, or what effect his admission or exclusion may have upon the question of a two-thirds majority, which it is so desirable to maintain, but not at the exponse of fairness and justice. Democratic Aspirants for office.

The grand tidal wave of office-hunters, which has swept the capital for the last three weeks, is not composed exclusively of Republicans, for among those aspiring to official positions are a few Democrats, whose modesty certainly entitles them to great consideration. I have learned of one man "up" for a prominent office, who, last week left here for Philadelphia, and who voted the Democratic ticket at the October election, but did not vote in November, as he did not consider his vote. "would affect the general result." I was not a little astonished at learning that he feels he should be rewarded for his patriotic exertions, and is absolutely trying to get an otic exertions, and is absolutely trying to get an appointment under Grant! More strange, quite a number of influential citizens of Philadelphia have endorsed him. It would be well for people, before stemper and the statement of the strange of th
