THE REMOVAL OF THE RAILS PRON BROAD STERRET.—Mr. Francisens introduced into Scient Council, pesterday afternoon, a resolution directing the Superintendent of City Railroads to remove forthwith all rails and turn-outs on Broad street, from Olive (below Market) to Vune streets. This resolution was promptly adonted streets. This resolution was promptly adopted, and was tent to Common Council, where it met with a speedy approval.

In explanation of this resolution, it may be stated that the term originally fixed for the re-moval of the rails from Broad street was April I. 1869. Then the forwarding merchants asked for an extension of the time until July 1st, 1869, giving to the Railroad Committee of City Councils ing to the Railroad Committee of City Councils a written pledge that if the request was granted no further demand would be made. Under these circumstances, Councils passed a resolution extending the time as requested. The Legislature has now been applied to to overrule the action of City Councils. The following bill was passed by the State Senate yesterday, and was considered by the Honse and laid over until to-day:

That it shall be unlawful for the Councils of Philadelphia or for any person or persons acting under their authority, or for any other person or persone, to remove or cause to be removed any railroad track or tracks, switch or switches, turnout or turn outs, now being upon Broad street, until an assessment shall be made, agreeably to the provision of the second section of the act of the 23d of March, 1868, for the improvement of Broad street, of all the damages which may recult to the owners of property and to the occu-plers of the same along the line of the said Broad street, to which, or into which, turn-outs sites, to which, or into which, turn-outs are now constructed, from the removal of said rail-road or railroads, or turn-out or turn-outs, or switch, until the damages so assessed shall be paid."

Mr. Franciscus, in explaining his resolution yesterday, said that he had inquired of the officers of the Pennsylvania and Reading Rillroad Companies, and they all denied having any knowledge of the bill.

Some of the parties interested in the matter heard of the action of City Councils last evening. and called upon the Mayor to urge him to velo the resolution. He asked for and received a copy of the Harrisburg bill, and upon reading it, remarked that it was more injustions its provision than he had supposed. At that time the resolution of City Councils had not been presented to him.

The Mayor received the copy of the resolu-The Mayor received the copy of the resolution of City Councils about eight o'clock last evening, and signed it at once. In the meanting, Mr. John Bosler, Superintendent of the City Rallroads, had been notified, and and a force of about fifty laborers on Broad street. The workmen were divided into two gangs, and about nine o'clock work was commenced, one party beginning at Vine street, and the other at Market street. Several members of the Railroad Committee were present, and a force of policemen, under Lieuts. Curley and Leighton, was men, under Lieuts. Curley and Leighton,

The rails were very firmly spiked down, and it required much hard work to loosen them. The laborers worked steadily, however, and by six o'clock this morning all the rails in the middle of the street, from Vine to Market, had been taken up [The turn-outs were not interfered with last night, but will probably be removed during to-day. On nearly all of their turnouts cars were standing.

This morning there was great indignation among many of the forwarding merchants along the street, and the action of City Councils was severely criticised. Teams were obtained, however, and all the morning coal cars and freight cars were being dragged over the cobble stones to the rails north of Vine street. In most of the stablishments along the atreet the Ponnsylvania Railroad Company had loaded cars The agents of the Company having been nottfied during the day of the probable action of City Councils, succeeded in getting sixty-one of the cars down to Market street before work was commenced. SELLING BOUNG TICKETS.—John P. Medary was arrested yesterday and taken before Ald. Hood upon the charge of obtaining money under false pretences. He stopped at the house of Dr. Walker, Broad and Jefferson streets, and sold to Mrs Walker two tickets for a benefit of the Relief Active Association, at the Eleventh Street Opera House, April 15. No such benefit is to be given, and Meses. Carneroes & Dixoy complain that every night they are annoyed by the presentation of tickets for benefits which have been sold to unsuspecting citizens. Medary was committed for a further hearing. for a further hearing.

JUVENIJE THEFF.—George Gartland, a youth of ten years, residing in Budd street, West Philadelphia, went to visit a relative named John Davison, in Newark, N. J., a few days ago. Yesterday, while the family were absent, he broke open a truck and abstracted $72. When the Washington train came along he got on and came to the city. A telegraphic despatch preceded him, and when he arrived at the depot in West Philadelphia he was arrested by Policeman Geo W. Ingram. The stolen money was found on his person. Gartland was sent to the House of Refuge by Ald. Randall.

POLICE ORDER. - The Mayor has issued the fol lowing order:

"The attention of the Chief has been called to the fact that Licutemants and Sergeants have in some instances, when reprimanding officers, used profacolar grage. Such a practice being reprehensible and contrary to the rules of the Department, will not be allowed, as it is not only in its self entirely nobecoming, but provocative of breach of discipline."

There is great excipement about Sixth and

THERE is great excitement about Sixth and Market streams to-day in consequence of a reported "raid" to be made to-morrow on the Mammoth Clothing House of Wanamaker & Brown. The whole force of Oak Hall is on the alert to meet it, and have thrown up huge fortlications of elegant Clothing for Men and Boys, on all the tables and counters and shelves of their buildings. But they cannot hope successfully to resist the attack; and, counting discretion the best part of valor, they have determined upon an "unconditional surrender" to their customors, and will offer no resistance, but allow the raiders to carry off their valuable stock at prices so low that their hearts will surely relent, and compet them to ask the Oak Hallers "please charge a little more."

Oil Paintings.—A collection of modern oil paintings, all by American artists, will be sold, without reserve, this evening, at half-past seven o'clock, at Scott's Art Gallery, 1020 Chestnut street. BARKING UP THE WRONG TREE. BARKING UP THE WRONG TREE.

The wiscerres who have been guessing at the vogetable or sitinents of Soz Dony have all barked up the wrong tree. The right tree, which they never dreamed of, is the Song Tree of Chili, the bark of which is used by the Araucanian Indians to cleanse and preserve their garments, and chowed to keep their too it stainlers, and gives a flower-like fragrance to their breath. This is one of the leading ingredients of Sozooony, the most wholesome and efficacious of all dental beautifiers and preservatives.

Messrs. James S. Earle & Sons bog to aunounce that they will place on exhibition at their galleries, on and after Saturday, April 10, a large and interesting collection of works of American Art, especially illustrative of the progress of Chromo-lithegraphy in this country. As inquiry has frequently been made, "flow chromo-lithographs were produced?" and how nearly they resembled their originals, a number of the best American pictures that have been so copied have been placed side by side with these copies to that the fidelity of the work becomes apparent.

A book has been prepared, containing succtrive impressions of the various stages of chromes as made; and other interesting information has been placed within easy reach. Among the pictures thus contrasted are:

Whittier's "Barefoot Boy." Correggio's 'Magdalen." Taitt's "Group of Chickens." Brown's "Crown of New England" Bierstadt's "California Sunset."
