CITY BULLETIN.

A New Tennrike.—The Creshelm Turnplke Company has just awarded a contract for macademizing a road to extend from the Perkiomen adsmixing a road to extend from the Porkiomen turppike at the lower end of Chestnut Hill to the Valley Green, on the Wissahickon. The route will be over Springfield avenue or Park street. This road of the city has been a favorite drive, but within the past few years has been so cut up by the passage of heavy teams that it has been entirely uscless for light carriages. Pleasurese kers will now be glad to learn that it is to be put in therough order. The contract calls for a put in thorough order. The contract calls for a road eighteen feet wide, to be laid with stones, road cighteen feet wide, to be laid with stones, twelve inches deep, and to be covered with six inches of sing. The work will be commenced immediately, and will be completed, it is expected, within three months. That portion of the city abounds in magnificent scenery, and during the summer the new road will no doubt be exocologly lively with pleasure teams of all descriptions. The officers of the Creshelm Tarapike Company, to whom the public is indebted for this improvement, are Gen. Joshua T. Owen, pike Company, to whom the putter is indeed for this improvement, are Gen. Joshua T. Owen, President; Wilham F. Smith, Treasurer; and Messrs. Owen, Smith. Charles Megarge, Joseph Hill, and Lewis Eckel, Directors.

Mork Light Alone the River Front.—In confiquence of the want of sufficient light along Delaware avenue, pedestrianism along the river front at night has been exceedingly dangerous, and the Harbor Police have been kept busy in warning people of their danger, or in fishing out of the docks individuals who have accidentally of the docks individuals who have accidentally walked overboard. A few weeks ago Mayor Fox called the attention of City Councils to the subject, and to remedy the matter lamps have been put up as follows: Between Coates and Noble atreets, 2; between Noble and Callowbill streets, 4; below Callowbill, 1; below Shippen, 1; Water below Vinc, 1; Water above Chestnut, 1, and Water below Chestnut, 1. The lamps on Water street are located opposite alleyways, so that the light will be shed on to the docks on Delaware avenue. Delaware avenue.

MURDRROUS ASSAULT.—Henry Snubbley resides in a small chanty at Cambria and Garney streets, in the Twenty fifth Ward. His wife and several children, and hogs, goats, dogs and chickens are all haddled together in the same structure. The place has been complained of to the police as a nulsance several times. Snubbley and his wife have frequent spate, and often come to blows. Yester-day they had another quarrel, and Snubbley received a frightful wound in the head. He charged his wife with having struck him with a hatchet, but she denied having committed the murderous assault. Snubbley was convered to the kinisonal assault. Saubbley was conveyed to the Episcopal Respital, where he lies in a critical condition. He refused to prosecute his wife, and she remains at

A CABET COMPANY.—A company of cadets has teen formed among the pupils of the Northeast Boys Gran mar School, and will be attached to the Philadelphia City Guard as Company G. An entertsinement, consisting of recitations, chorness and dialogues, and a drill with dumbbells, was given by the pupils of the school last evening, at Concert Hall, for the benefit of the new company, and the invenies accultted them. new company, and the juveniles acquitted themselves in a satisfactory manner.

LARCENT OF A WATCH.—George Jones was arrested yesterdey, in the Twenty-fourth Ward, upon the charge of having stolen a watch from a stable in the Twentieth Ward. The timekeeper was recovered at a pawnbroker's establishment. Jones was committed by Ald. Maull.

ATTEMPTED ROBBERY .- An attempt was made to rob the store of Casselberry & Cadwalader, dealers in cloths and cassimeres, No. 830 Arch street, last night. The front door was forced open, but the thieves were frightened off by the police before they had time to secure any plunder.

RESIGNED. - William Ruth and Peter Ingram, members of Reserve Corps of Police, resigned this moning. Both were appointed by Mayor Henry, the former on the 17th of March, 1859, and the latter on the 6th of October, 1861.

RECKLESS DRIVING.—Alfred Plum was arrested yesterday, at Eighth and Market streets, upon the charge of driving a wagon in a reckless manner. He was taken before Alderman Jones. who imposed the usual penalty.

ROBBERY.—The dwelling of Mr. Jacob Cramp, No. 503 Wildey street, was entered last evening, through a back window and was robbed of clothing valued at $65. THE CHESTNUT HILL COUNTRY SEAT OF SIX acres, on Bethlehem turnpike road, advertised in to-day's paper, is one of the most desirable locations out of the city, having been built for the Owner's own use, and is planted with a very choice collection of fruit trees in full bearing, and having a grapery which produces a fine crop of foreign grapes yearly. The collection of pears, apples and small fruits cannot be surpassed.

CITY NOTICES.

REMIEDIES.—How many of the ills of life might be alleviated and modified. If not entirely removed, if only ma were wiss enough to apply the proper remedies. For instruce, we cannot prevent men dying, but by the simple contrivance of lose fusurance we may trotect our families from the want of poverty, which is so often incident upon the death of husband or fatter. The American Life Insurance Company of Philade'phia is a great antidote to many of the evils produced by death.

HE HOLDS THE TRUMP CARDS.—When fine Calf Roots or Gailers is the game, William H. Helweg holds both bowers and the acc. His skill in fashioning leather to fit the pedal extremities of humanity has become as househol, words to our of izeas. He never fails to please, not only in workmanship and miterial, but site in price. He is, moreover, a conscientions workman, and believes in carrying out the commandments through the week at his lapstone, as well as in his pew of a Sunday. THE NEW CHESTNUT STREET ESTABLISHMENT

FINEST READY MADE CLOTHING FASHIONABLE TAILORING.

DEPARTMENT OF READY MADE CLOTHING.

The design of this department is to furnish a finer class of made up garments than Philadelphia trade has heretofore supplied.

MATERIALS USED.—The finest of Home Manufactures and the latest Foreign Importations. All the novelties in Spring Goods and choicest selections of texture and patterns. STYLE OF MAKE UP .-- All garments cut in the best and most fashionable modes, and finished with a degree of care and taste that make them very unlike and superior to what is commonly un deratood by "Ready Made Clothing." WORKMANSHIP .- None but the best. The Tailors employed in this Department will be only such as could work on the finest custom work, good sewing, no ripping, or buttons coming off. All gentlemen who would avoid the delay of ordinary clother, and the necessarily higher price of custom work, are here offered garments much superior to the ORDINARY RUN, OF READY The Public are invited to examine our New Brown Stone Building and our First and Finest Stock.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT!

The Subscribers beg leave to announce to their CUSTOMERS and the PUBLIC GENERAWLY, that their STOCK of GOODS DAMAGED BY WATER at the LATE FIRE AT THEIR STORE are now arranged for SALE, consisting of TABLE LINENS, TABLE CLOTHS, NAPKINS, LINEN and MUSLIN SHEETINGS, MUSLINS, BLANKETS, FINE MARSEILLES QUILTS SPREADS, &c., &c.

Also, nearly their ENTIRE STOCK of ELEGANT LACE CURTAINS and DRAPERIES, some of them the richest imported, SLIGHTLY WET, will be sold at prices to insure their IMMEDIATE SALE.
