Mr. Catler resided on Staten Island, where he leaves a widow. He is represented to have been a man well off in this world's goods.

Obituary,

Obtoary. Professor Mitchell, the well-known Mathema-tician, died at Vassar College, Poughkeepsie, on Monday afternoon, from general debility. He was 76 years of age. Professor, Mitchell was the father of Miss Maria Mitchell, the Astronomer, who was borp in Nantucket, Mass., Aug. 1, 1818. He was at that time engaged in teaching at that place, and devoted much of his time to the study and practice of Astronomy. When his daughter was only 11 years of age, he took her into his school as a pupil and assistant teacher, and she very soon discovered a fondness for the sclence and an aptness in the use of ia-struments that made her an enthusiastic co-Bubsequently she conducted many careful ob-servations by hereelt, and on O tobber 1, 1817, while searching for comets, discovered a tele-scople one which was seen at Rome two years after by Father da Vico. For this she received a gold medal from the King of Denmark. Prof. Mitchell was a member of the Society of Friends. His remains were taken to Nantucket for burial, --Trivene.

AN EXCELLENT APPOINTMENT.—Hon. Henry D. Moore, Collector of the Port, yesterday, ap-pointed Charles W. Ridgway, Chief Auditing Clerk in the Custom House. This appointment is an excellent one. Mr. Ridgway is well qualified for the position and will discharge his duties sat-isfactorily. He is a resident of the Sixth Ward, and has been identified with the Republican party since its foundation. since its foundation.

A SEVERE STORM .--- A severe storm of rain and wind passed over the city last evening. From 7 to 8 o'clock the rain came down in perfect torrents, and the streets got a pretty good washing. The wind assumed almost the proportions of a gale. Doors and window shutters were bunged and heavy signs were swayed to and fro, but bo-yond the breaking of branches of trees in the ex-posed parts of the city, no damage was done.

Assaulting A TAVERN KEEPER. John Toner, Michael Toner, Daniel Logue and John Logue were before Ald. Jones, this morning, upon the charge of assault and battery. It is alleged that they went into Carroll's tavern, at Twenty-third and Market streets, last evening, raised a dis-turbance and beat Carroll and his wife. They were each held in $500 ball to answer at Court.
