In spite of this caution, and in diaregard of the manifest proprieties of the case, a portion of this correspondence was published in the New York Tribune, and thereby probably great injustice has been done to a distinguished man, and the honor and veracity of the Senate have been impeached. There were some special reasons why this correspondence should not have been made public. The resolution of the Senate calling for this correspondence was passed in open session on March

The resolution of the Senate calling for this correspondence was passed in open session on March 1st, last, and it will be observed that the letter of Mr. Penry, which has been published, was written in Madrid, March 2, the day following the day the resolution was passed by this body. Whether Mr. Perry had information that such a resolution had passed, I know not; but for some reason the State Department delayed an answer to the Senate resolution till the letter of Mr. Perry, dated March 2, 1869, and accompanying documents were received, and ment delayed an answer to the Senate resolution till the letter of Mr. Perry, dated Morch 2, 1869, and accompanying documents were received, and included in the correspondence submitted at the time the call was made. for the correspondence. The letter of Mr. Perry, which has been published, was not in the Sixte Department, and did not arrive there till some twenty days thereafter. I leave othere to comment upon this feature of the case. But it seems to me that a portion of Perry's letter of March 2 should have suggested to the State Department the impropriety of including this letter and accompanying documents in the copies of the correspondence sent to the Spanish government had declared the affair setting and had no with to revive it. But I was autherized to use them condientially with my own defence," Of course it is not to be presumed that the State Department in the condientially with my own Government, if at any time it should become necessary for my own defence," Of course it is not to be presumed that the State Department in tentionally waited for this letter and then deemed it necessary to send it to the Senate for the defence of Perry.
