

CITY BULLETIN.

MYSTERIOUS AFFAIR.—A man was found lying upon the sidewalk at New Market and Market streets, Eleventh Ward, about nine o'clock. He was in an unconscious state, and supposed to be drunk. A wheelbarrow was obtained and he was taken to the Seventh District police station house, where he was locked up in a cell. In the afternoon it was found that the man was still in an insensible condition. A physician was then sent for. An examination was made, and a deep cut was discovered on the back of the head. This cut had apparently been made by some sharp instrument, but the physician was of the opinion that it might have been caused by a fall upon a sharp stone. The man was taken to the Hospital in the ambulance of the America Engine Company. The exact name or residence could not be ascertained. He was dressed in a gray coat, dark vest and blue military pantaloons.

ROBBERY A POLICEMAN'S HOUSE.—Lieutenant William Luger, of the Schuylkill Harbor Police, while the Lieutenant was on duty, some individual opened the window of the kitchen of the house and jumped in. On a table was placed all the provisions for the day, and the Lieutenant to this the intruder helped himself liberally and then decamped. Robbing a house occupied by a police officer ought to be considered a very bold transaction.

STRANGERS IN THE CITY.—The city is still pretty well filled with strangers who came here to participate in the grand celebration of the Odd Fellows yesterday. This morning all the public institutions received an unusually large number of visitors. Independence Hall appeared to be of the greatest interest, and the entire morning there was a constant stream of visitors pouring through its door.

BITTEN BY A MAD DOG.—A dog, supposed to be laboring under the effects of hydrophobia, created considerable excitement in the neighborhood of Sixth and Vine streets, this morning. Policeman Chas. Sears, of the Fourth District, fired at the dog and struck him in the shoulder. The cur then seized the officer by the finger, causing a very painful wound. The rabid animal was killed by a second shot.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY.—A man who was passing Seventh and Bedford streets, last night, was attacked by two men, who seized him by the throat, and then rifled his pockets. They got about $18. One of the alleged robbers was captured by the Seventeenth District Police. He gave his name as James O'Neill, and after a hearing before Alderman Bonaal, this morning, was sent to prison.

MALICIOUS MISCHIEF.—Several men went into Hare's tavern, on Fifteenth street, below Market, last night, and raised a disturbance. They were ejected from the premises, and then threw bricks through the windows. One of the party was arrested. He is named Charles James, and was held in $500 bail by Alderman Jones.

CHILD DROWNED.—A little boy about two years of age, a son of August Born, residing at Thirty-first and Thompson streets, fell into a ditch in that neighborhood, yesterday afternoon, and was drowned. His body was recovered soon after the occurrence.

ACCIDENT.—James McLane, residing at No. 1624 Fawn street, fell from a cart which he was driving, at Twenty-second and Brown streets, this morning, and had a hand badly injured. He was taken to the St. Joseph's Hospital.

EXAMINATION BALL.—The fifth annual May and Examination Ball of Prof. Asher will be given at Music Hall on Monday evening next. Prof. Asher is very popular as a dancing master, and the approaching ball will, no doubt, be a very fine affair.

RESCUED FROM DROWNING.—A man named Martin Weir fell into the Delaware, at Shippen street wharf, last night. He was rescued from drowning by Officer Denard, of the Harbor Police.

SERENADE.—Hor. A. G. Curtin will be serenaded to-night, at 11 o'clock, at his residence, No. 1813 Spruce street. Hassler's Band has been engaged for the occasion.

DRUNKEN POLICEMEN.—Two policemen of the Fifth District were reported to the Mayor this morning for having been drunk yesterday, and were dismissed.

THE FINE APPEARANCE of the Odd Fellows yesterday is a subject of general comment. Apart from all banners and regalia and other adornments, the men themselves, in their black and white vests, made a handsome display. This was owing, of course, first of all, to the fact that they are a body of good-looking men; but next, and contributing hardly less to their fine appearance, was the fact that the majority of them were clad in clothes from famous Oak Hall.

AUCTION SALE OF BOOTS, SHOES, HATS AND CAPS.—To-morrow morning, at 10 o'clock, T. L. Ashbridge & Co., auctioneers, will sell by catalogue, at their store, 505 Market street, about 1,000 packages boots and shoes. Also, 100 cases of hats and caps, to which the attention of city and country buyers is called. Open early in the morning for examination.

AMERICAN PAINTINGS, CRYSTAL MEDALLIONS, &c.—B. Scott, Jr., Auctioneer, will sell this evening, at quarter before 8 o'clock, at the Art Gallery, 1029 Chestnut street, a collection of modern paintings, crystal medallions, &c. All mounted in fine gold-leaf frames.

LOST.—By a gentleman, going from Broad and Arch streets to West Philadelphia, a watch. The finder will receive a liberal reward by returning it to 628 Callowhill street.

CITY NOTICES.

ODD FELLOWS' PARADE. The bands of music all the time. Played while the Lodge formed in line. And countless numbers from afar. Came on by steamboat, stage, and car. The thousands filled up the street. Dressed in regular rich and neat. Add in the distance you could hear. The bugles sounding loud and clear. The line was formed, and soon the street. Re-echoed sounds of many feet. While shout on shout, and clapping hands. Soon joined the music of the bands. Rich banners to the breeze were flung. As by this mighty host moved on. And many a widow standing by. Gazed on the sight with tearful eye. And said, God speed ye, noble men. Who to the widow's way are true. God bless this Order, all will say. And never will forget this day. When brothers met, hands clasped they both. WHERE JOINED IN FRIENDSHIP, LOVE AND TRUTH. IN CHESTNUT STREET, EIGHT TWENTY-FIVE. IN CHARLES STONE'S FINEST CLOTHING STORE.
