

CITY BULLETIN.

STRAVING CITY PROPERTY.—Wm. Bradley Rea was arrested yesterday at Almond street wharf for larceny. Almond street wharf is used as a depository for coal and other bulky articles. On Monday, it is alleged, Rea stole a quantity of coal. He made his appearance yesterday before Alderman Carpenter, who committed the accused for a further hearing.

A "BARKER" IN TROUBLE.—Luzonous Jacoby is employed in a clothing store at Second and South streets. He stands outside and impudently passes by to step into the store and make purchases. Yesterday he stopped a man and insisted upon his buying a coat. The man attempted to get away, and into a struggle with Jacoby. The latter is alleged, then struck the other, and knocked him down. Jacoby was arrested, and, after a hearing before Alderman Carpenter, was held in $500 bail to answer.

DIED IN A POLICE STATION.—A colored man named Peter Burroughs, 48 years of age, was found lying upon the sidewalk on Water street, below Chestnut, in an insensible condition, about two o'clock yesterday afternoon. He was taken to the Third District Police Station and died in a short time afterwards. The Coroner was notified to hold an inquest.

LARCENY.—Elizabeth Dickson and Ann J. Hyde were arrested yesterday, and were taken before Alderman Faneuil, upon the charge of the larceny of a quantity of clothing and other articles from a house 2029 Wood street, where they lived. The stolen articles, it is alleged, were pawned. The prisoners were held in $500 bail to answer at Court.

FELL THROUGH A BATCHWAY.—Daniel Flood, aged 44 years, fell through the hatchway at the Philadelphia, Germantown and Norristown Railroad Company. In the transportation of this exceedingly large number of passengers not the slightest accident occurred.

LONGLY BURIED.—A little girl named Mary Long, aged ten years, residing at Gordon and Canal streets, was badly burned by her clothes taking fire from a stove, this morning, about six o'clock. She was conveyed to St. Mary's Hospital.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—James Haslem, about 25 years old, residing 1806 Palmer street, had his arm badly lacerated by being caught in a circuit saw, at the establishment of Wright & Brothers, Market street, above Third, this morning. He was removed to Pennsylvania Hospital.

UNSUCCESSFUL ATTEMPT.—An attempt was made to break in the front door of the grocery store of John Sandow, at Ots and Thompson streets, Eighteenth Ward, last night. The thieves were frightened off before they had effected an entrance.

Hostess! Hostess!—A large assortment for Misses, Ladies, and Children—all numbers—the best from France. Goods half hose, 25, 35, 45, 55 cents. Best superfine, stout, full, regular made, only 25 cents, at BARTHOLOMEW'S.

MOTH PROOF CHESTS, AT FARBON & CO.'S Refrigerator Warehouse, 233 Dock street.

SCHOOLER'S PREPOT VENTILATING REFRIGERATORS, AT FARBON & CO.'S Old Stand, 232 Dock street.

INSECT POWDER. How to TELL THE GENUINE ARTICLE.—Prof. E. Lyon, while traveling in Asia, discovered a flower, which, when powdered, is sure death to every kind of insect, from a Cockroach to a Fly. He protected his discovery by letters-patent, government medals, &c. put his signature upon every flask of the article and named it LYON'S MAGNETIC INSECT POWDER. He imparted his secret to no one but his successor.

PURCHASERS OF Insect Powder—and it is used in almost every household—must see to it that they are not deceived by worthless imitations and counterfeits. The signature of E. Lyon is the purchaser's guarantee. Look sharp to it, and buy no Insect Powder that does not bear it. It may be had of Druggists and Family Stores, at 25 cents per flask. Depot, 21 Park Row, N.Y.

Beware of ACRID TEETH-BRUSHING PREPARATIONS that destroy the enamel. Sodontone is a delicious vegetable compound, wholesome as spring water, that simply removes their impurities, protects them from decay, lends fragrance to the breath, and keeps the gums elastic, fresh and rosy.

TO COMPLETE your Spring Suit, buy one of those beautiful HATS sold so low, at ARKFORP'S, Under the Continental.

THERE'S NO MISTAKE ABOUT IT.—It is a pleasure to deal with a man like CHARLES RICOURI, the artistic Bootmaker, at No. 504 North Eighth street, above Buttonwood. His aim is to give entire satisfaction to his patrons, and we scarcely need say he accomplishes it. He gets up some of the very best work in the city, and his price challenge comparison. Try him once and you become a permanent customer.

CONSIDER TO ADVERTISE. The following conversation occurred between the editor of this paper and H. T. Holcomb, druggist, 294 Broad street.

Editor.—"Doctor, I understand that you advertise in more than two thousand newspapers."

Doctor.—"Yes, sir. Of the four thousand papers published in the United States, I advertise in two thousand seven hundred."

Editor.—"It is really astonishing, doctor, how you can make it pay, and how you manage to keep the account of all of them, keeping your advertisements in the positions agreed upon, make the necessary changes, etc."

Editor.—"But, doctor, how do you manage about the making of contracts, the payments to publishers, etc?"

Doctor.—"Oh! that is a simple matter. When I have made up a bill for the money, I send it to the publisher, and he sends me a receipt for it."

Editor.—"Well, these are questions frequently asked of me, in my place of business, on the street, or wherever I may happen to be. It is one of the first questions asked by business men, and, moreover, I seldom fail to give my independence without finding two or three letters relative to the same subject, some going so far as to ask my views of the value, as advertising mediums, of the different papers I patronize. These writers already receive civil replies. But, while we are on this theme, Mr. Editor, permit me to relate a little incident that occurred to me, and which I frequently relate to those with whom I am familiar, especially to those who are engaged in business."

Editor.—"But, doctor, you have not yet exactly answered my question; what I wish to know more particularly is, how you make your contracts, and how you keep your profits derived from the different sources?"

Doctor.—"Well, these are questions frequently asked of me, in my place of business, on the street, or wherever I may happen to be. It is one of the first questions asked by business men, and, moreover, I seldom fail to give my independence without finding two or three letters relative to the same subject, some going so far as to ask my views of the value, as advertising mediums, of the different papers I patronize. These writers already receive civil replies. But, while we are on this theme, Mr. Editor, permit me to relate a little incident that occurred to me, and which I frequently relate to those with whom I am familiar, especially to those who are engaged in business."

Editor.—"Doctor, do you mean to state that you purchase your literature with all the papers in which you advertise, and are you acquainted with the publishers of twenty-seven hundred papers?"

Doctor.—"With the proprietors of all the leading papers, and the majority of the others, I enjoy a personal acquaintance, and in such papers, as the New York Herald, Weekly Tribune, and Independent, I have some times paid from fifteen hundred to three thousand dollars for the single insertion of an advertisement, knowing that in such cases the amount of space occupied, and the importance of the transaction, would necessitate an interview. On one occasion I offered the sum of FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS for a page in the New York Herald. The offer was accepted, but afterwards declined, on account of press of matter, notwithstanding it was double the usual advertising rates. This was at the time of the fall of Richmond. The conclusion, I always prefer dealing directly with publishers, friendly relations once established, I have no fear of accepting their best rates."
