He had some words with Mrs. Myers about the payment for the cigars, and then, it is alleged, struck her with an um-brella. The end of the umbrella estered her eye, injuring her so corlously that it is supposed that she will lose the sight of that eye. Foley was ar-rested. Mint, issued a notice on Saturday that all of the employés of the establishment whose appointments date subsequent to October, 1866, might consider themselves discharged. The hint was taken, and this morning many places were vacant. The new Director intends to greatly re-duce the force under his charge, and therefore will have only about thirty places to fill. He has not yet made any appointments.

HOUSE BANSACKED. - The dwelling of James Grubb, No. 302 South Eleventh street, was en-tered about ten o'clock last night, during the tered about ten o'clock last night, during the absence of the family. The servant girl returned home and found the door securely fastened. She got a policeman, and it was then found that the house had been ransacked throughout. Several bundles had been tied up ready for removal, but the thieves left without taking anything.

The University without taking any ange. Turn Docs.—The Deg Detectives have not yet made their appearance. The pound on Button-wood street has been torn out, in consequence of the lot having been disposed of by the city. Therefore, the Dog Detectives have no place in which to execute their prisoners. A building is to be put up immediately on a lot on Corinthian avenue, and in a few days all unnuzzled curs found in the streets will be taken up.

HIGHWAT ROBBERS.—Robert Powers went up to a man at Eighth and Christian streets yester-day, snatched his watch and ran off. He was pursued and captured by Policeman Keegan, of the Seventeenth District, and the watch was found on his person. Powers was committed by Ald.

into a splendid marble building, No. 1124 Chest-nut street. This edifice will compare favorably for beauty with any upon the street. It is twenty-six feet in width, one hundred and sixty feet in depth, and the ceiling of the first floor is twenty feet in heighth. These are four stories. The front is of pure white Italian marble, elegantly elaborated, and with a slight balceny protrading from the windows of the second floor. The monogram of the firm is cut over the entrance. On each side of the doorway there is a show window set with a single sheet of French plate-glass, and the walls of the doorway there is a show window set with a single sheet of French plate-glass, and the walls of the windows are lined with magnificent mirrors. The interior is very bazuitfal. Hand-some cases composed of plate-glass with silver mouldings stretch along the iddes. On the right, as you enter, the cases contain jewelry and fancy articles of every conceivable variety and pattern. To the left are the watches and diamonds, and the display of these is very large and magnificent. Against the walls on both sides are upright black walnut cases, handsomely moulded and carted. There are partitioned with mirrors, and contain articles of silverware in infinite va-riety. In the centre of the store there are four large skylights which admit a mellowed light to the evening light, is furnished by one hundred and ninety-two burners attached to superb chan-deliers and brackets of unique patterns. The tout ersemble of the store is really magnificent, and rifiects credit upon the good taste of the proprietors. We are sure that they will have, as they well deserve, an immense increase of business in their new location. OUR CLOTHES business in their new location.

IMPORTANT TO MEROHANTS .- Merchants who IMPORTANT TO MERCHANTS.—Merchants who desire to advertise their business thoroughly and well throughout the country, as every enter-prising merchant should, will find it to their ad-vantage to operate through some reliable adver-tising agency...and we can confidently recom-mend for this purpose the well-known firm of Coc, Wetherill & Co., who have established them-selves in new quarters in the Bullwrin Bullding, No. 607 Chestnut street. This change of location was necessitated by the enormous increase of No. 607 Chesinut street. This enange of location was necessitated by the enormous increase of business which has resulted from the growing popularity of the firm among its patrons. Messre. Coe, Wetherill & Co. are in direct communica-tion with all the best newspapers in the country poth south and weat and the north, south, cast and west, and they are in a position to furnish advice and facilities to business men who desire to adand facilities to business men who desire to ad-vertise in any portion of the country. Merchanis who deal through them will be sure to obtain their money's worth, and not to waste a dollar upon sheets without circulation or influence. Messrs. Coe, Wetherill & Co. do not ask their customers to take these statements for granted. They have in their possession countless tostimo-nials, given, voluntarily by those with whom they have dealt, proving the efficacy of their system. They are reliable and prompt, and they are enabled to scoure the very lowest rates for all parties. We recommend them to the public as worthy of liberal patronage.

A COMMERCIAL PALACE .- The time was when Americans were content to live and do business within the confines of four plain walls surmounted by a pent roof. That was the day when we built meeting-houses to resemble barns; when the only drama that found favor was of the blood and thunder kind; when the popular taste for music never rose to a demand for anything better than a jugling ballad, and when people used to look on canvars daubed over with bright colors, splashed on with a whitewash brush, and think rplashed on with a whitewash bruch, and think it was art. It is a picasant evidence of our rapid advance as a people, in culture, refinement, and general civilization, that Americans have begun to show an aptitude for high art, not only in their patronage of good music and painting, but in the ercetion of tasteful and iscartiful dwellings. Of late years Philadelphis has been especially fortu-nate in its number of magnificent new edifices devoted to public and private use. We have kept the record of these, and now we must add another to the list. Messers.
