THE WAR ON THE PRESIDENT. Quite a number of Republican newspapers are engaged in the unenviable business of resident-hunting. President Grant is criticized in terms of unmeasured and unmerited dispatisfaction for everything that he has done because we believe that there is now, or and everything that he has left undone. His ever was any such state of affairs at Girard Cabinet is found fault with, his appointments | College as a few interested Directors sought are abused, and his evident desire and pur- to present by their testimony, a year or more are abused, and his evident datate data be said he pose to manage the government as he said he would when he was nominated to the Presi-gerated and misstated at the time of the indency, are complained of as if he had broken vestigation by Councils. We have already called attention to the unfortunate revival of the old romances about the abuses at Girard College. President Allen's card in to-day's paper adds the strongest testimony upon the subject, and there can be little doubt that the presentment of the Grand Jury, if fairly made, will satisfy the public mind that there is no necessity for any "honest indignation or condemnation" in the matter. Allompt to Assassinate a Policeman CINCINNATI, May 7.- A bold attempt was made to assassing a policeman on his best at one o'clock this morning. Matt. McCarty, a desperado, who has often been before the court i assault and battery, stole up behind officer Ben-nett, at the corner of Fifth and Vine streets, placed a four-shooter within two inches of his head, and snapped it twice, but without discharg-ing it. Bernett turned and collared the would ssin, knocked him down with his mace, and got two more blows in when two bystanders interfered and prevented a fatal result. McCarty was badly, but not mortally wounded about the head. He was taken to the station house, and a barge of attempting to assassinate lodged Delegates from the Saloon Keepers' Societies met in convention at Turner Hall last night. S Louis, Chicago. President Grant on Cuba and St. Bomingo. [Special Despatch to the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin.] WASHINGTON, May 7 .- A prominent politician, who enjoys to a considerable extent the confidence of General Grant, and who has recently conversed with him, says that the President expressed his lowing Collectors: opinion freely upon the Cuban insurrection, saying that his own sympathies were with the oppressed Cubans in their efforts to free the island from Spanish rule. Were he to follow his own judgment, the right of the Cubans to belligerency on land would at once be recognized, but his Cabinet counsellors, with two exceptions, op. posed this course at the present time, and he could not take such an important step against their advice. In short, this gentleman says the President made no concealment as to his views, either upon this question or extending a protectorate over the Island of St. Domingo, which, in his opinion, would be highly benefician

to the United States in the future. Recent facts which have come to light leave no
