the room, and so made a devoted slave of Tom Simson. There was a remembrance of this in his boyish and enturisatic greeting of Mr. Oak-hurst. He had started, he said, to go to Po-ker Flat to seek his fortune. "Alone?" No, not exactly alone; in fact—a giggle—he had run away with Piney Woods. Didn't Mr. Oakhurst remember Piney? She that used to Oakburst remember Piney? She that used to wait on the table at the Temperance House? They had here arguing the table at the Temperance House?

THE DAILY EVENING BULLETIN --- PHILADELPHIA, SATURDAY, MAY 8, 1869.

Jake Wooda had objected, and so they had run away, and were going to Poker Flat to be married, and here they were. And they were tired out, and how lucky it was they had found a place to camp and company. All this The Innocent delivered rapidly, while Piney—a stout, comely damsel of fiften— had been blushing unseen, and rode to the side of her lovor. Mr. Oakhurst seldom troubled himself with sentiment. Still less with propriety. But he bad a vague idea that the situation was not felicitous. He retained, however, his presence of mind Sufficiently to kick Uncle Billy, who was about to say something, and Uncle Billy was sober enough to recognize in Mr. Oakhurst's kick a superior power that would not bear trifling. He then endeavored to dissuade Tom Simson from delaying fur-ther, but in vain. He even pointed out the fact that there was no provision, nor means of making a camp. But, unluckily, "The Innocent" met this objection by assuring the rearty that he was provision, nor means of making a camp. The company will also ship 2,000 miles of land wire, and will doubtless have the telegraph con-necting the leading interior cities of the ancient empire with the cities of the coast completed during the next year. The company consists of leading capitalists of Pennsylvania, New York, and New England, and they have on hand an enterprise equalied only in magnitude by our great Pacific railroads. With the cordial co-opeation of Minister Burlingame (who procured government), Minister Howard, and all Amerisovernment), minister noward, and ample capi-can civil and naval officers, and ample capi-tal to extend the telegraph throughout the early and complete success of this great under-taking, financially and otherwise. DANGERS OF THE PORT OF AREOINO, PR. — Captain West-havon. of the British brig Alpha, at Baltimore from Arecibo, says: On the night of the 15th ult a heavy swell. accompanied with strong wind and rain, obliged all the hipping at Arecibo to ship their cables and go to sea, viz: Brig Alpha, brig Chattanocga, brig Two Marys, schr Ma-deira, and a bpanish schr, name unknown, some of which had not returned on the 30th. I take the liberty of observing here that Arecibo is considered a Anagerous port. Brig an open roadstead and, bgd anchorage, ves-cels should never anchor there unloss with good ground tackling, at least seventy five fathoms of chain cable, and take every precaution to be ready to all pand stand out to sea at a moment's warning. Vessels frequently become wrecked here and are always a total loss, and sometimes (French) are not allowed to anchor there.
