STEINWAY & SONS' UPRIGHT PIANOS.

It is all the welcome news to the musical public that Steinways have succeeded, by the most signatic improvements, in raising the Upright Plano from its welcoments to of imperfection to that of the most perfect mongst the different shapes of pianos. The Upright lane of Steinway & Sons now is more durable, keeps eiter in tune and in order, has more power, a purer and fero musical tone and a better touch than the square iano, and rivals in most of these points even the Grand iano. Its advantages are so plain and striking that the ext prejudiced against this shape of a piano are considered by examining them, and out of twenty who want buy a Square Plano, nineteen prefer now already an gright one of S. & S. In the world, parties, governments, armies, associations of all sorts, demand as their grand, first pre-requisite of success, timity, unity of organization, of purpose, of spirit. They must have this element, not as a technical form, but as a practical, vital fact. Technically, the Episcopal Church possesses this unity; practically, it unfortunately knows very little about it. With all its educated ministry, its unrivalled ritual, its marvellous combination of elasticity and discipline, it lacks the element of con-fraternity among its members; and this is the one secret of its slow growth and confessed inefficiency. Its party divisions desiroy its aggressive power. It cannot imitate President Grant in moving upon the works of the enemy," because the time and thought and energy of its clergy, and often of its laity, are consumed in moving upon the works of the opposing party within its own camp. BATHEDAY, May 15, 1862.—Neither the warlike rumors from Europe, nor the contradictory reports from Washington as to whether Mr. Boutwell intends to cancel the purchased bond, or merely to hold them'as balkest to be thrown everboard in case of a storm, have had any great weight in money circles though it cannot be denied that some positive atterance on the subject, whether favorable or otherwise, would be preferable to existing doubt. If the intention is to cancel them, the withdrawal of so large an amount each week would undeutbedly tend to advance the prices at heme, whilst adding to the confidence abroad. This is sufficiently evident from the effect of the unofficial report from Washington that the purchased bonds would not be "reissued," which has been followed, by a steady advance in the home market.

Joseph, in closing the sessions of the Reichsrath yesterday, made a long and pleasant speech. He recalled the situation of Austria in 1866, compared that with the present condition of things, and traced the course of legislation of the Reichsrath since that time. He was rejoiced at the friendly arrangement made with Hungary, and the finances and condition of the army. He felt that peace was indispensable to national prosperity, and the present relations of Austria with the other powers of the world assured him of, its continu-

The Disaster at Pittsburgh. Pressurer at Pittsburgh.

Pressurer, Pa., May 14.—This afternoon, about 2 o'clock, the fifth story of a large bonded warehouse, belonging to Joseph Tinch & Co., fell in with a terrible erash, carrying with it every remaining story of the structure. About 7,000 barrels of whisky were stored in the building, which were broken in some cases into fragments, and their contents flowed over the ground in the vicipity. The atore-keeper, a young man named Geo. B., Cavens, was hurled into the cellar along with the broken timber, and although aimost within reach, could not be extricated. He died about 8 o'clock, after making his will to a doctor who managed to get close to him. The foreman of o crawl out from the debris, but was injured to such an extent inwardly that it is impossible for him to recover. The carpenter, David Steel, had three ribs broken, and his head, face and body gashed and bruised fearfully. Another man, name unknown, is supposed to have per-
