FBOM NEW YORK,

New York, May 19.—The following threatening epistle was received by Judge Cardozothe day after he sent the women Pearsall And O'Connor to the Tombs, for contempt of court and keeping a disorderly house!

"If you do not order the immediate release of those two women from jull you die this day. (Signed)

The fourth annual singing festival of the Orpheon Society's free choir schools took place last evening at the Academy of Music. The efercises were chiefly musical.

The Presbyterian and Baptist Sunday School anniversaries were celebrated yesterday afternoon. The children paraded in great numbers, and there were exercises in the afternoon in most of the churches.

The New York Sunday School Missionary Union, embracing 135 schools, celebrated its fifty-third anniversary yesterday with interesting exercises by the children at the various churches. In the evening the exercises were continued at the Reformed Dutch Church on Fifth avenue and Twenty-ninth street, when addresses were delivered by Revs. T. L. Cuyler, S. H. Tyng, Jr., and others.

Delmonico's was again enlivened on Monday last by a meeting of the Sorosis. A large number of ladies present in the city to attend the May anniversaries were among the guests, of whom may be mentioned Mrs. Paulina W. Davis, Miss Cora L. V. Hatch Tappan, Olive Logan, Mrs. Ernestine L. Rose, Mrs. E. Joslyn Gage, Mrs. Oliver Johnson, and Mrs. Wendt, of Milwaukee. Aftera lunch, which was remarkable in that wine was tabooed and cigars at a discount, the business of the meeting was entered upon, and with the exiception of the time consumed in reading a long report from the Committee on Foundling Hospitals, was one succession of brilliant addresses—female fusilades which were discharged with an energy and vehemence which showed that the speakers were interested in the matters whereof they spoke. The report was read by Mrs. Dr. Anna Densmore, Chairwing of the Committee, and contained brief histories of some of the most prominent foundling hospitals abroad, giving as well many statistical many statistical and other facts relative to their management.

After the reading of the report an animated discussion ensued, but finally it was adopted. Before adjourning it was decided that Sorosis present to Miss Ida Lewis, the heroine of Lime Rock Light House, in Newport harbor, R. I., a testimonial of some kind, together with a letter expressive of the admiration inspired by her noble and courageous conduct.

CITY BULLETIN.

DECORATION DAY.—Arrangements are on foot for a very interesting commemoration of "Decoration Day," by the Soldiers' Orphans' Schools of Philadelphia and its vicinity, on the 2th inst. and, should the weather prove favorable, the demonstration will be a very beautiful one.

beautiful one.

The details of the programme are not yet completed, but we are able to announce that the pupils of the Lincoln Institution, the Northern Home, the Chester Springs School, the Bristol School, the Church Home, and others, will participate in the exercises, and afford our citizens an opportunity to see what Pennsylvania is doing in fulfilment of her pledge to the orphans of her brave soldiers.

Persons connected with soldiers' orphans' schools desiring information in regard to the coming celebration, can obtain it by application to Mr. Francis Wells, at the office of the EVENING BULLETIN, between the hours of 11 and 1, daily.

A SHARF DORGE.—In January last a resi-and 1, daily.

A SHARP DODGE.—In January last a resident of the Eleventh Ward was appointed a policeman, and was assigned to duty. The Lieutenant in charge of the station-house to which he had been sent refused to receive the new officer, on the ground that he had been arrested on the charge of highway robbery. The Mayor investigated the matter, and found that such a charge had been made against his new man. The latter was promptly dismissed. He seems to have been a special favorite of some of the Eleventh Ward politicians, who determined not to be put off. The discharged officer, it is said, has recently been re-appointed under mother name, and has been assigned to duty in a different section of the city from that duty in a different section of the city from that in which he was first located. The Mayor will, no doubt, investigate the matter, and thus discover the friends who have imposed upon him in this manner.

POLICE APPOINTMENTS.—The rush of applicants for police appointments to the Mayor's office, this morning, was not as great as usual. It was announced that no applicants would be received to-day, but those from the Thirteenth, Fourteenth and Fifteenth Wards will be heard Fourteenth and Fitteenth wards will be heard to-morrow.

The following appointments have been made:
Fourth District—John Carrigan.
Sixth District—Edward F. McMahan.
Seventh District—Gdfrey Bauer.
Ninth District—Mason L. Hersh.
Fourteenth District—Philip Nichol, Chas.

THE DOG WAR.—The force of men who are The Dog War.—The force of men who are to make war upon the unmuzzled curs during the present season is now being organized by the newly appointed Captain, and the raids will be commenced at once. The new pound, located on Corinthian avenue, above Brown street, has been completed. Dogs of value, which are unfortunate enough to get into custody, can be redeemed by their owners between the hours of 10 and 12 o'clock daily. Those having no friends will be killed in a separate apartment erected for that purpose.

separate apartment erected for that purpose. DIDN'T LIKE THE WORK.—The newly appointed Turnkey for the Central Station made pointed Turnkey for the Central Station made his appearance this morning to enter upon his duties. The old Turnkey, Mr. Smith, who has been in charge of the place for many years, explained to his successor what was to be done. Some portions of the work did not suit Mr. Turnkey, and after remarking "I won't do that," he put on his hat and left the place.

HEAVY ROBBERY.—The dwelling of Mrs. Rose Nusbaum, No. 847 North Eighth street, was entered from the rear yesterday afternoon during the absence of the occupants. The house was completely ransacked, and the thieves carried off gold chains, rings, and various other articles of very fine jewelry. The stolen property is valued at upwards of $1,000.

CAUGHT IN THE ACT .- Charles Walls, a youth of ten years, went into a lager beer saloon on Front street, above Jefferson, yesterday afternoon, and attempted to rob the money-drawer. He was discovered in the act and was handed over to a policeman. The juvenile thief was sent to prison by Ald.

STEALING WASHED CLOTHING. - Henry O'Neill was arrested last night upon the charge of the larceny of washed clothing from the yard of a house on Southstreet, above Seventh. He was taken before A.d. Bonsall and was committed to answer.

TOBACCO STORE ROBBED.—The tobacco store of Geo. Fite, No. 725 Market street, was entered by prying open a back shutter about ten o'clock last night. A few pipes and five dollars in small change were stolen.

DISMISSED.—Hugh Harkins, recently appointed a policeman for the Fifth District, was dismissed this morning by the Mayor, it having been discovered that he had served out a term in the Eastern Penitentiary.

REFORM IN THE TREASURY.

Reorganization of the Printing Bureau. The Washington correspondent of the Bos-

The Washington correspondent of the Boston Journal says:

Secretary Boutwell has perfected his arrangements for a complete reconstruction of the bond, bank note, and currency printing of the bond, bank note, and currency printing of the Treasury Department. Heretofore the paper has been prepared, the printing has been executed, and the seal has been affixed all in one department of the Treasury, affording facilities for defrauding the government by a collusion of employes. Now there is a wide division of labor, affording an opportunity for cheeks by the Department on everything that is done. The paper is to be made at a mill near Philadelphia, under the supervision of an officer of the Treasury, and will bear the Government water mark, to counterfeit which will be felony. The paper will also contain yellow gloss silk, which, when photographed, will appear black. An express company will take the paper to New York; giving duplicate receipts for it, one of which will be given to the paper maker and the office sent to the Department here. At New York the green colored portions of the motes will be printed by a private company, who will be held responsible for the return to Washington of every sheet of paper received, either printed or spoiled. When received here the other portions of the note will be printed, and the perfect notes, with the spoiled sheets, will be handed over to another Department of the Treasury to receive the impress of the seal. which imparts ceive the impress of the seal, which imparts the value. Government will thus be enabled to trace every sheet of the paper manufactured for its use, and Secretary Boutwell perfects this admirable plan by requiring the printing and delivery to the Treasurer every month of all paper manufactured for this printing during the month. There had been no settlement of the printing accounts for great with Secretary. the printing accounts for years until Secretary Boutwell ordered them all to be balanced. It is not probable that this new plan of printing will be more economical than was the old one, but the additional expense will be small and the security gained invaluable.

QUARTER SESSIONS—Judge Allison.—William Wilson and Margaret Wilson were charged with the larceny of a package of tea and two packages of chocolate from a store on Second street, on May 5th. Detective Miller, who had followed the parties as they entered, from store to store, finally arrested them on Eighth street and brought them to the Central Station where Margaret Wilson.

them on Eighth street and brought them to the Central Station, where Margaret Wilson was found to have on what is called in police parlance a "lift-skirt." The tea and chocolate were found on the person of Mr. Wilson. The defence set up that as the parties were married, Mrs. Wilson was not responsible, being in law supposed to be under the co-ercion of her husband; that the true name of the defendant was Peter Councily, and a marthe defendant was Peter Connelly, and a mar-riage certificate of Peter Connelly and Marga-ret Murphy was put in evidence. It also appears that to the police the female s known as Maggie Duval. The case was not

LIFE INSURANCE.—Hear what Dr. Guthrie says of it: "Were Life Insurance more universally adopted, it would save a world of misers and smooth the thorns of many a pillow—would relieve much parental anxiety, and add to the sum of human happiness; and more than that, would promote the best interests of morality, and would conduce to the higher interest of religion. This is high praise, but none too much to bestow out Life Insurance. This is the work in which the AMERICAN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY OF PHILADELPHIA is engaged.
