NATURE'S TOILET.

Cathering wild, sweet flowers

Heart weary of glare and fashion, For tastes as pure and as simple,
With which to begule the hours,
As when in the days of childhood
Our crown was a crown of flowers! And we found our pleasures In those fair treasures Which Nature around us showers. and yet, if we will, sweet Nature

Is as ready to bless us now

S when we entwined her blossoms

Of beauty around our brow;

And our hearts may be fresh and tender And our feelings as warmly glow,
As when we played in the meadows,
All carcless of wealth and show;
And in life's full stream
Heaven still may gleam

Heaven shill may gleam

As it did long years ago.

GENTS: On the night of the 22d pit, our store No. 20 South street, was entered, and a des perate attempt made by burglars upon one of book-safe, the doors of which were literally cut to pieces; from this they obtained the ke to the other safe and opened it. Fortu-nately we had one of your Burglar-Proof Bankers' Chests inside, in which our valuables were deposited. This they went to work up all their time and tools in vain attempts to force it. The night was dark and stormy, and the fact of their knowing where our key was kept shows that their plans were well matured. They tried wedging the door and body of the Chest, and the faithful sale bears evidence of the labor and skill devoted to the work. All was useless, and it is with great satis faction we report that upon opening it we found our securities of safe, and can therefore cheerfully indorse the Burgular-Proof work You will please send the new safe purchased by us to our counting-house, and take the old one to show that some safes are still mannfactured worthy of the name.
