These schools number about 700 pupils, boys and girls, or about one-fifth of the whole number now under the care of the State of Pennsylvania, and as they are all neatly uniformed and will parade with their flags, banners, drum corps and other music, they will present to our citizens a striking practical illustration of the progress which the State has made in the fulfilment of her pledge to the dead heroes of the war.

of the war.

The schools will assemble in Independence Square, on Saturday, 20th inst., at 11.30 A. M. At noon, precisely, they will be reviewed by Mayor Fox, General Meade, Secretary Borie, ex-Governor Curtin and other distinguished gentlemen. Governor Geary will be occupied with a similar demonstration at Harrisburg, and with a similar demonstration at Harrisburg, and therefore unable to be present.

After the review, the schools will march in procession over the following route: Up Chestnut to Twelfth; down Twelfth to Walnut; up Walnut to Broad; up Broad to Chestnut; down Chestnut to Concert Hall.

The stage and the front portion of the Hall will be occupied by the schools, the remainder of the Hall being thrown open to the public.

Mayor Fox will preside on the occasion, and short addresses will be made by ex-Governor Curtin, Rev. Phillips Brooks, Major A. R. Calhoun and others, interspersed with appropriate singing and recitations by the soldiers' orphans.

priate singing and recitations by the solders orphans.

Should the weather prove propitious, this unique demonstration will be a most interesting affair. It will form a most appropriate prefix to the imposing solemnities of the 30th, when the soldiers of the Grand Army of the Republic are to decorate the graves of those whose children, sheltered and nurtured by the Commonwealth, will thus pay the tribute of their grateful and affectionate remembrance of their dead fathers.

SINGULAR DEATH FROM STARVATION.—An estimable lady was buried, a few days since, from the residence of a relative in the southern part of the city, whose death was the result of voluntary starvation. The unfortunate lady lost her husband ten or twelve years ago. This domestic affliction preyed upon her mind until she became melancholy, and finally, within the last two or three years, insane—her insanity taking one of the forms of religious hallucination.

On all other subjects she was perfectly sane. About six weeks ago she jumped from a ferry boat, at South street wharf, into the river, but was rescued by a police officer. She was taken to the Southwark police station-house, and after being recognized, was removed to her residence. About three weeks before her death she refused to eat anything, under the impression that she was not fit to live. Her friends did everything in their power to induce her to relinquish this idea, but she steadily refused. She gradually declined, becoming weaker and weaker, and finally died on Thursday last. For the first two weeks of her self-starvation she was quite cheerful on all ordinary subjects, excepting upon the single one of her monomania. The deceased was restarvation she was quite cheerful on all ordi-nary subjects, excepting upon the single one of her monomania. The deceased was re-markable for her benevolence, and all the vir-tues which adorn the character of her sex.

Police Appointments.—It is announced at the Mayor's office that all police appointments from residents of the First, Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Eleventh, Twelfth, Thirteenth, Fourteenth, Sixteenth, Seventeenth, Eighteenth, Nineteenth, Twenty-first, Twenty-second, Twenty-fourth, Twenty-fifth, Twenty-seventh and Twenty-eighth Wards have been closed, and that no more applications will be received for those Wards. This will have the effect of greatly decreasing the crowd of hungry office-seckers who daily congregate about the Mayor's office, auxiously awaiting an opportunity to display the municipal badge upon their coats. upon their coats.

The following appointments were made this morning:

Fifth District—Thomas McCoy, James Mc-

Granagan. Ninth District-George Zahn, William F.

Logue, John Dunn.
Fifteenth District—James McLea, Lieutenant, in place of Wm. Tell Street, resigned, to take effect June 1. It is said that the conductor refused to stop the car, and in attempting to get off Mrs. Howarth fell.

SUPPOSED CHICKEN THIEF.—Ferdinand Hel-finger was arrested last night on Tulpehocken street, in Germantown, with a lot of chickens in his possession. The chickens are supposed to have been stolen, and are awaiting claimants at the police station. Helfinger was committed by Ald. Good.

ALMOST DROWNED.—An individual stretched himself out on Coates street wharf last night, and got asleep. When he awoke he became bewildered in regard to his whereabouts and stepped into the Delaware. He was fished out of the water by Lieut. Smith, of the Harbor Police.

FRIGHTENED OFF.-This morning, between three and four o'clock, an attempt was made to enter stores Nos. 906 and 908 Market street, by prying open back windows. A policeman heard the noise and got into the adjoining yard, when the thieves decamped, leaving be-hind a lot of tools.

RE-ARRESTED.—John Albright, who was arrested for the larceny of 63 pairs of chickens on the 23d of April last, and fied his bail, was re-arrested in Manayunkthis morning.

CHANGE OF UNIFORM.—The caps worn by the members of the Delaware Harbor Police are to be changed from the present style for those of the navy pattern.

BODY RECOVERED.—The body of the colored man who was drowned by the stuking of the steam barge Fulton, at Chestnut street wharf, a few weeks ago, was recovered on Saturday.

THE MILITARY PARADE.—The parade, inspection and review of the First Division of Pennsylvania Militia, this afternoon, will be one of the finest military demonstrations which has been witnessed in this city since the close of the war. The greatest preparations have been made for the turnout, and in honor of the occasion flags are displayed on all the public buildings, and also from many private dwellings located on the route of the

The First Division is commanded by Major-General Chas. M. Prevost, and is composed of four brigades.

The First Brigade comprises the First Troop,

In front of the Mayor's office a stand has been erected by the military authorities, and as the parade passes it is to be reviewed by the Mayor and City Councils, by invitation of the Major-General commanding the Division.

The police arrangements for this afternoon are excellent. A force of 200 men has been detailed to keep Broad street clear during the inspection and review, and 11 mounted officers, under Sergeant Jones, of the Eighth District, will precede the procession to keep the streets free from people.

Music in the Public Schools.—Instruction in Music, under the direction of Jean Louis, begins to-day. The fourteen elected teachers received from him, last week, their instructions concerning the system he proposes to establish. To-day they begin work in the secondary and grammar schools. The children are to be taught the first rudiments, and will not be allowed to sing until they can read the notes. Instruction will then be given in two-part singing. In the grammar schools instruction will be given in solos and in four-part singing. The science of music, composition, thorough-base and counterpoint will be taught in the High School; but it is not expected that the complete system will be fairly in operation until the beginning of next year.

Hearing at the Central Station.—Bestreets free from people.

HEARING AT THE CENTRAL STATION .- Be-Hearing at the Central Station.—Before Alderman Kerr, this afternoon at 2 o'clock, Mary Aker was charged with obtaining goods under false pretences from the store of A. E. Arnold, No. 46 North Eighth street. She came into the store and purchased a bill of goods for a Mrs. Clark, telling them to send it to room No. 32, Ashland House. The goods were sent, but no such person could be found. Held in $1,000 bail for a further hearing on the 26th inst. She was also held for the charge of larceny of some gloves. Two pair of gloves were found in a room which she occupied at the Central Station, which were identified by Mr. Albright.

lowing preamble and resolutions, numerously signed:
Philadelphia, May 22, 1859-5 P. M.—At the close of Professor James McClintock's private lecture to ladies, a large number being in attendance, the following resolutions were offered and unanimously adopted:
Whereas, Dr. James McClintock being about to close his course of lectures in this city, on anatomy, physiology, and hygiene, we feel that we should be doing in unstice to the Doctor and to the public, as well as to ourselves, did we not in some way express the great satisfaction we have derived therefrom; therefore,
Resolved, That the ladies here present cheerfully boar testimony to the highly instructive, interesting, chaste, and gentlemanly manner in which the Doctor has presented and demonstrated these important topics, as a lecturer avoiding as much as possible technicalities, and adapting his language to the comprehension of all present.

and adapting ins language to the Completeness of present.

Resorted, That we recommend to females, and especially to mothers, a close attention to the instructions given by the Ductor, believing if carefully followed they will not only promote their own health and happiness, but prolong the lives of the children committed to their care.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to Ductor McClintock, with a request that he will resume his lectures in this city at an early a date as possible. CITY NOTICES.
