Ryerson, of New Jersey, offered the following resolutions: Whereas, The existing state of feeling be-tween this country and Great Britain is a cause of profound regret and grief to all who. desire to maintain peaceful, friendly relations be-tween these two great Protestant Powers; and Whereas, There are no causes of offence but such as ought to be, peacefully adjusted; that whilst a war between them would do incalcu-lable injury to the cause of civil and religious libertic would retard perhaps for generations

He dissented from the terms of a portion of them, however, and thought we should omit any reference to a possibility of a war between England and the United States. He offered an amendment to this The amendment was accepted, and the paragraph stricken out, and as thus amended they were unanimously adopted. The Committee of the Board of Foreign Missions made a report through Rev. Dr. Mat toon. It referred at length to the different lissions, showing the necessity of greater liberality for maintaining the advancing work in the missionary field. The receipts have not been sufficient to meet the expenses and ex-tinguish the previous debt. This is owing to the difference between the relative value of the receipts and expenditures-one being in currency, and the other in most countries in gold : and to convert one into the other had taken rom the total amount $49,832 for the year. The expense of the missions in India, Siam, and Laos, Chinese in California, Japan, Africa, American Indians, South America, and the Jews, and Papal countries, amounting to $294,298 46. The total expenses for the year, $343,798 42, and the receipts, $338,407. enect that the success which has hitherto at-ended the work, and the marked providence by which God has hitherto intervened to pro-ide the means to carry it on should encourage the board to go forward, and the members of mually. PARIS. CHILDREN'S DISEASES. IODIZED SYRUP OF HORSE-RADISH. PREPARED BY GRIMAULT & CO., PARIS. The Syrup contains Iodine combined with the juice of water-crees, horse-radish, and scurvy grass, in which, iodine and sulphur exist naturally, and for this reason is an excellent substitute for cod liver oil, which is gene-rally supposed to owe its efficacy to the presence of iodine. The Iodized Syrup of Horse-radish invariably producer most satisfactory results administered to chil-dren suffering from Symphatian, rachilism, congostion of the glands of the neck, or the various eruptions on the face so frequent during infancy. It is also the best remedy for the first stage of consumption. Being at once of their ond deparative, it excites the appetite, promotes digestion, and restores to the tissues their natural firm uces and vigor.

which had borne good crops for the past athirty: years. The borers never troubled them, and go gave up in despair. This section of Michi-he country, but he did not believe that the were so badly diseased as some people would have us suppose. Good apples were chear vigorous because they were attended to. Now they are too often neglected. They ought to bear until they are nearly a hundred years old without any perceptible feebleness. Pruningis very important for good crops and healthy trees. It is not generally understood that trees respire as well as animals, and it is very necessary that a good circulation be kept up. Otherwise vermin will do great damage to the tree and fruit. Old orchards are apt to become grass bound from long neglect. This should be guarded against if possible as the insects are much more liable to nestle around the roots than when the ground is frequently cultivated. All grass should be removed from the immediate vicinity of the trunks. Animal remains of all kinds should be applied with manure, as trees are always sure to do remarkably well when planted in cemeteries. This accounts for the beneficial results arising from the use of phosphates and other bone manures. The cure and renovation of orchards is brought about by personal effort, instead of philosophical dissertations on the probable cause of their sickly appearance.

The U.S. Naval Academy.

The Washington despatch to the Press says: The President and Mrs. Grant, Secretary Borie, Commodore Alden, George H. Stuart, Mr. Balch and J. B. Trott, of Philadelphia, left here at half-past nine this morning to visit Annapolis, Maryland, for the purpose of witnessing the annual examination at the Naval Academy. Special despatches, received here, announce their arrival there at half-past eleven o'clock, without accident or incident worthy of note. The party was met at the Annapolis depot by Admiral Porter, and conveyed in carriages to the Academy grounds, at the entrance of which the marine force received, them with presented arms. At the same time a national salute of twenty-one guns was fired in honor of the President from the frigate Santee. In the first carriage were President Grant, Mrs. Grant, Secretary Borie, and George H. Stuart, of Philadelphia. The other carriage contained Admiral Porter, Commodore Alden, Thomas Balch, and John B. Trott, of Philadelphia. The party alighted in front of Admiral Porter's quarters, where the President received the officers of the Academy, the Board of Visitors, and others. The President was dressed in a plain black suit. which contrasted markedly with the brilliant uniforms of the officers surrounding him. The adjacent grounds were crowded with ladies, and among them were Mrs. Admiral Porter and her daughter, and Mrs. Jessie Fremont, wife of General John C. Fremont, and daughter. Gen. Fremont has a son in the junior class. After the reception President Grant reviewed the four classes of midshipmen, and expressed great gratification at their precision of drill and handsome appearance. The dress-parade and drill con-cluded at half-past 12 o'clock. The middles then went to quarters and changed their smart white pants and caps for all blue clothes, for artillery practice. The afternoon was spent in artillery ad mortar practice by midshipmen. At half ast-five o'clock-President Grant dined with Admiral Porter, and to night he visited the gymnasium; to witness a tournament by the middies in fencing and boxing. The board of Signing.
