Williof the Late Dr. James Rush.—This morning the will of Dr. James Rush was proved at the office of the Register of Wills. It is extremely voluminous, and we can now only give asketch of it. The original will was drawn in 1860. It appoints his brother-in-law, Henry J. Williams, Esq., his Executor. The testator gives all his property; after payment of debts, and certain bequests and annuities, to the Philadelphia Library Company, to erect a suitable fire-proof building, and to maintain the library.

The bequests and annuities are to certain servants, relatives and friends, and they range in amount from $200 up to $1,800. Only small annuities are left to his nephews and nieces, and a recent codicil annuls these in the cases of three of them.

The personal bequests in the will are as fol-WILL OF THE LATE DR. JAMES RUSH.—This yearly.

The new building for the Library is to be called "The Ridgeway Branch of the Philadelphia Library," and it is designed as a monument to the father-in-law and the wife of the deceased. He desires their remains and his own to be placed within the limits of the new library with a simple inscription. His copyrights, books, manuscripts and other personal effects he wishes to be preserved in a room constructed for them, which, however, is not to be opened for the satisfaction of vulgar outself.

He gives most minute advice to the managers of the Library as to the choice of books, and especially cautions them against competing with other libraries in the number of their volumes. He advises them not to give much space to those "teachers of disjointed thirding the daily representer." Novels and thinking, the daily newspapers." Provision is made for printing new editions of the testator's writings whenever there may a demand of them, to be sold at the cost of publication.

The entire will would fill many columns of this paper. The estate is rated by the executor at under one million of dollars. The following passage from the part of the will giving advice concerning the Library is will giving advice concerning the Library is interesting:

"Let it be a favor for the eminent works of fiction to be found upon its shelves, but let it not keep cushioned seats for time-wasting and lounging readers; nor places for everyday nevels, mind-tainting reviews, controversial politics, scribblings of poetry and prose, biographies of inknown names, nor for those teachers of disjointed thinking, the daily newspapers, except, perhaps, for reference to support, since such an authority could never prove the authentic date of any event. In short, lot the Managers think only of the intrinsic value of additions to their shelves; for I hope (yet fearfully) that the streams flowing into the Library will be clear, pure and deep; diffusing healthy, truthful and valuable information throughout the community; and not to be over-borne by a common flood of contemporary literature that may sweep off the firm foundations of knowledge, and leave no high places for a useful intellect to rest upon, to extend its bounties and be secure.

DECORATION DAY.—In our full report of the soldiers' orphans' celebration, on Saturday, Governor Curtin, was erroneously spoken of as occupying the chair. It is proper to state that Mayor Fox presided on the occasion, and did so with much zeal and good spirit. A very interesting incident of the occasion, which was omitted in our report, deserves record. The address of Captain Mark Decus, of the Northern Home, concluded with a graceful allusion to Governor Geary and to ex-Governor Curtin. The speaker was surrounded by thirteen little girls, wearing the emblems of the original States of the Lunion, who, at the end of the address, surrounded Governor Curtin, singing, and presenting him with bouquets of flowers and a laurel wreath.

The reception of Governor Curtin, when he

The reception of Governor Curtin, when he rose to speak, was of the most enthusiastic character. The children of the several schools broke out into the wildest cheering and ap-plause, accompanied by the rolling of drums and every manifestation of heart-felt delight at meeting their great friend and benefactor. Governor Curtin's name is held in profound esteem among all the "Children of the Com-monwealth," and their recognition of him on Saturday was one of the most pleasing incidents of the celebration.

The lasty preparation of this striking demonstration did not permit an opportunity for all the schools which were present to participate in the songs and recitations which formed Should it be repeated next year, as we trust that it will, whatever oversights or omissions will, no doubt, be anticipated and avoided.

IN A SHOCKING CONDITION.—The cobble pavement on Vine street, east of Second, re-cently relaid with coal ashes as a bed for the stones, is already in a shocking condition. Deep ruts have already been cut into the pavement by the wheels of carts, drays, wagons, ment by the wheels of carts, drays, wagons, &c. As this thoroughfare leads directly to the Camden and Atlantic Railroad ferry, it is important that it should be repayed at once with gravel, as the season is at land when the amount of travel thereon will be greatly augmented. The Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals could not do a better thing than to take wided water the travelless. than to take official notice of the wretched manner in which new streets are paved and old ones repaved. Dickerson street, east of Front, was pretty well filled up with coal ashes, and the result is that the curb-stones have sunk nearly a foot below the proper level. Any person who should chance to take up a lot on that part of the street as indicated, should not take the present elevation of the curbstone as the true level authorized by the Board of the true level authorized by the Board of HANDSOMELY DECORATED.—The public HANDSOMELY DECORATED.—The public drinking fountain which has been erected by the Philadelphia Fountain Society on the State House pavement, has been beautifully decorated. The fountain stands directly in front of the Sheriff's office, and the gentlemen of the office agreed to furnish the decorations if the Society would be satisfied. The consent of the officers was readily obtained. The deputies then engaged Mr. Pollock, the torist, at Sixteenth and Spruce streets, who has completed his duties in a thorough and artistic manner. On the top is a large vase, which is manner. On the top is a large vase, which is filled with beautiful flowers of every variety, and from which also creeps ivy vines, twining completely around the whole fountain in graceful profusion, giving the structure a unique and beautiful appearance, and making it as much an ornament as it is a utility.

Speculation.-About four weeks ago, a SPECULATION.—About four weeks ago, a portion of meadow-land in the rural part of the First Ward, was surveyed and divided into building lots. A drawing of the survey was hurriedly made, and taken to New York for the purpose of having the lots disposed of. These lots are five feet below low water mark, and not far from the "Deering Farm." The idea of building a new settlement in this part of the city is not entertained by any person who knows anything of the locality.

A New Mongres Leby Margarian and divided in the portion of the continuous control of the control of the locality.

A New Donge.—John Morrow, who comes from New York, went to the house of Mrs. Wagner, on Canton st. above Callowhill, Thirteenth Ward, yesterday. Mrs. Wagner has a sore foot. Morrow said that he could cure the sore; but it would require four weeks, and he must have $1.50 before commencing operations. Mrs. Wagner told him that she did not have the money, and finally Morrow agreed to undertake the cure without any advance payment. At his request, a woman who was in the room was sent away. Then he commenced powwowing the sore foot. After, this operation he told Mrs. Wagner that she must go up stairs, and stay not more than two minutes. A New Dodge.-John Morrow, who comes stairs, and stay not more than two minutes She did as directed. When she returned to She did as directed. When she returned to the room, Morrow was missing, and a gold watch had disappeared from a table. Mrs. Wagner raised an alarm and Morrow was pur-sued and captured. He was held in $1,000 bail by Alderman Massey.

NOT IN THE BILLS.—During Mr. S. K. Murdoch's readings at the Masonic Hall, Manayunk, last week, and soon after commencing the recital of "The Vagabonds," by Troybridge, the recital of "The Vagabonds," by Trowbridge, and when the interest was at its height, a stoutly-built man, of perhaps 30 years, advanced rapidly to the front, and springing upon the platform, made an attack upon Mr. Murdoch, who was of course unprepared for such treatment. Mr. Murdoch soon recovered himself, and striking at his assailant, sent him reeling into the hands of a policeman, who took him to the station house. It was subsequently ascertained that the perpetrator of the quently ascertained that the perpetrator of the net had been subject to spasms, and it is sup-posed that the excitement for the time had overbalanced his reason. As soon as Mr. Murdoch learned the history of his assailant, he refused to appear against him, and the man was released. The affair created much excitement, but Mr. Murdoch soon recovered from the blow, and proceeded with the Ronbery.—On Saturday afternoon three well-dressed men went into the grocery store of C. W. Gesemeyer, No. 528 Callowhill street. Different articles were priced; and finally one of the men ordered some mackerel. While the attendant went out front to get the fish from a barrel, one of the men robbed the money-drawer of $350 in cash, and checks to about the same amount. The loss was not discovered until some time after the thieves discovered until some time after the thieves had left, and therefore no arrests were made.

Fire.—Saturday morning about half past seven o'clock, a fire occurred in the chemical room of the photographic establishment of Messrs Wenderoth, Taylor & Brown, No. 914 Chestnut street. The loss sustained will be about $500, and it is fully covered by insurance. The origin of the fire was accidental. The business of the firm will not be interfered with in consequence of the fire. with in consequence of the fire.

OLD MAN BEATEN.—Charles and Letitia Gallagher were before Alderman Bousall this morning upon the charge of assault and battery with intent to kill. They went to visit an uncle residing in a court on Carpenter street, above Seventh. An old man occupies a room in the same house. It is alleged that he was attacked by the defendants, beaten and thrown down stairs. The accused were committed.

THEFT OF PENNIES.—James Kerr and James McCoy went to Smith's Island yesterday. Upon their return they seized a bag of pennies which was in the cashier's office on the whart, and made off. They were pursued, and after a long chase were captured with the pennics in their possession. The thieves were committed by Alderman Carpenter.

DISORDERLY HOUSES.—The Third District Police made raids upon the houses of Lillie Johnson, in: Madison's Court, Jane Sheldon, No. 4 Gilles' Alley, and Cordelia Washington, Godshall sfreet, on Saturday night. Eleven women and three men were captured. The prisoners were all committed by Alderman Carpenter.

TILL TAPPING.—Chas. Walls has been committed by Alderman Heins to answer the charge of the larceny of $9 from the money drawer of a grocery store at Second and Dau-phin streets, on Saturday night.

FUGITIVE FROM JUSTICE.—Frank Worrell who is alleged to have escaped from the jail at Doylestown, was arrested yesterday at Fox Chase, by Policeman McFadden, of the Fifteenth District. He was sent back to Doyles ALLEGED WIFE BEATER.—Andrew Carney residing at No. 1809 Cabot street, Twentieth Ward, was before Alderman Hood this morn ing upon the charge of having beaten and abused his wife and a child six months old. He was held in $1,500 bail for trial. SENT TO PRISON .- John Curdy and Henry

Davis, the lads who were charged with having fired the workshop at the House of Refuge several weeks ago, were before Alderman Pancoast on Saturday, and were sent to prison to await trial on the charge of arson. BEATEN ON THE HIGHWAY .- John Boyle was attacked and badly beaten by a gang of ruffians at Seventh and Shippen streets, yesterday morning, at three o'clock. He was conveyed to the Pennsylvania Hospital. His assailants were not arrested. Ren Over.—A young girl, named Eliza Murphy, was knocked down and run over by a runaway horse attached to a wagon, at Front and South streets, yesterday. She was badly injured and was taken to her home, No. 617

South Front street. LARCENY.-Geo. H. Stocker was arrested on Saturday night and taken before Alderman Massey, upon the charge of having stolen about ix dollars from the money drawer of a store,

No. 457 Franklin street. He wassent to prison STEALING SKINS .- Wm. Myers was before Ald. Eggleton yesterday upon the charge of the larceny of skins from Hunel's morocco factory, on Canal street, below Beaver. He was held in $700 bail to answer at court.

VALUABLE CONTRIVANCE.—Dealers in spool cottons have long been at a loss for some means by which their goods can be more conveniently kept. The spools are now thrown together indiscriminately in boxes or drawers and when a customer calls for any particular number, a general search has to be made for it This causes trouble and consumes time. Mr. J. Patton Thompson, of the Wholesale Notion House of M. M. Marple & Co., 53 N. Thirdst. bas invented and patented an apparatus which will exactly meet the wants of the retail dealers, and entirely do away with the annoyances spoken of. One of these affairs, which was made for Messrs. A. T. Stewart & Co., of New York, for their Sterling Spool Cotton, is now on exhibition at 720 Chestnut street. It a series of vertical hoppers, each one of which is made to fit exactly a single number of the spools. The hoppers are filled from the top and numbered distinctly at the bottom. When a spool is taken out another immediately drops into its place. Below the hoppers is a case of drawers for needles and assorted cotton. When a spool of cotton of any number is called for, it can be reached at once. By opening a dear in front of the hoppers the stock raned for, it can be reached at once. By open-ing a door in front of the hoppers, the stock on hand can be seen at a glance. This door is glass, and upon it can be inscribed the name of the manufacturer of the cotton. To bring before the public any new or particular make of cotton, this movable cabinet affords great facilities. They are ornamental as well as useful, and if manufacturers will furnish them to the retailers, the latter will always be glad to put them in a conspicuous position.

Instalment upon Instalment.—Rockhill & Wilson do not pursue the plan of selling off all their clothes, and then, all of a sudden, getting a great new lot. On the contrary, they get a new instalment of clothes every day. Early in the morning, during the heat of the day, and until the shades of evening, bundles after bundes, piles after piles, loads after loads of Elegant Summer Raiment come hurrying into the sixth streat door. Crowds of intelligent men and boys come for these newly-arriving mountains of magnificent masculine apparel, and purchase them at our celebrated low prices. Thousands of hands, tens of thoulow prices. Thousands of hands, tens of thousands of fingers, and no end of needles, are busily preparing these vast quantities of splendid apparel, and all have to work to their utmost capacity in order to meet the wants of our great_army of customers

Come on, customers, in full force, for we are ready for you.

A Methopolatan Cemetery.—At last our citizens have discovered that security and repose for the dead, in perpetuity, must be provided beyond the city limits, and we note with satisfaction that a company of patriotic Philadelphians have purchased, in Montgomery county, a large and superb plot of ground for the purposes of interment where city interference is impossible. The railroad system, so successful in other large cities, will be adopted, by which the cost of carriages will be dispensed with. We are informed that the plan meets with the approbation of many of our forecasting and best informed citizens of various religious denominations, and we bid it all hail.
