WEST POINT.

Synopsis of Examinations.—Visit of President Grant and General Sherman.—Henry Ward Beecher to Preach the Graduating Sermon.—The Coming Hop and Boat Race.

WEST POINT, Thursday, June 3, 1869.—The examination of the first class in civil and military engineering was resumed by Professor Mahan this morning. It was very severe and exhaustive, eliciting a large amount of general and technical information on the science of...

THE HOP. The first class will get out of the monotony of examination about the middle of next week, and during their leisure will be making arrangements for the farewell hop, for that day it has not yet been definitely determined.

THE COMING BOAT RACE. The cadets of the first, second and third classes are now busily practicing for the aquatic contest which is to come off on the river next Saturday afternoon. It is anticipated that all the competitors will believe that it will be a short and exciting struggle.

BATTALION DRILL.—THE BOARD OF VISITORS. After the termination of the class-room exercises to-day, the cadets were exercised in battalion maneuvers, for the occasion of the Board of Visitors. The latter have the pleasure of enjoying a serenade every evening from the Post band, who assemble on the piazza in front of the hotel, and perform a variety of beautiful airs.

THE INDIANS. Western Opinion of the War. The Denver (Colorado) Tribune says: The savans of the East are beginning to fear that there will be another Indian war this summer. The savans are becoming very uneasy. Bless their honest hearts, these wise men of the East don't know that the Indian war will not be a bloody one.

TERRIBLE TORNADO IN THE WEST. Great Loss of Property.—Estimated at $500,000.

PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH. Annual Convention of the Diocese of Delaware. [From the Wilmington Commercial.] DELAWARE CITY, June 2.—The Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church, of the Diocese of Delaware, assembled in Christ Church, this morning.

The expenses of the police in Russia are higher than those of any other country in Europe. Texas complains that the military interferes to prevent whippings there, while in Delaware white as well as black men are laid in the stocks.

An article says of a certain singer "that she sings a few airs and puts on a great many more." At the Conservatory of Music in Leipzig two young colored men from the Island of Cuba are studying music.

A writer in the Revolution says: "Whenever a woman feels like going to a theatre, and no one offers to go with her, let her don her hat and go on her own."

John S. Clarke has performed Major De Boots for one hundred and fifty nights at the Royal Strand Theatre, and for the two hundred and twenty-third time in London. A St. Louis court has fined a man $100 for shooting dead a boy who was playing croquet on his orchard.

Boys are very plenty and peaches very scarce about St. Louis. An opera company that has been travelling in the South broke down so dreadfully in Augusta, Georgia, that a local quack had to give a concert to raise funds to enable the company to leave the city.

The boy who, when asked to what trade he would wish to go, replied: "I would like to be a Trustee, because ever since I had been a Trustee we have had pudding for dinner," was a wise child in his generation. One of the telegraphic despatches sent to the Pope on the occasion of his jubilee came from the farthest regions of the globe. The bearer of it had to travel six hundred miles before he reached the nearest telegraph office.
