The Salt Lake Reporter of June 1st has the nowing intersting news:
Since the commencement of the work of uilding the great Pacific railway high hopes ave been entertained and cherished by a large number of men and women in Utah, known as dissenters and apostates from Mormonism as inculcated by Brigham Young, that on its completion an avenue of escape would open for them and they could make their way, undisturbed by the hirelings and ent-throats of Brigham Young, from Utah to the States. They have waited submissively, enmietly watched the progress of the road, and their hearts throbbed with joy upon the com-pletion of every section. They have been de-1074; 5046, 13854. nounced from the Brighamite pulpit as Capostate dogs," and the Danite assessins sent on their frack, but still they persevered, and zealously, though quietly, adhered to their be-lief in Mormonism as taught by the martyr, Joseph Smith, although their lives were in copardy for so believing. The dissenters and postates, we are assured, are by no means few, and it is openly stated that all, who can rid themselves of what little property they still possess will flee the Territory and return to e States. Yesterday a party of dissenters and apostates, numbering about 40 souls, all families, under the leadership of M. Warren Walling, te President of the Josephite wing of the formon Church in Salt Lake City, arrived at the depot, opposite the city, the greater por-tion of them coming from Malad Valley and the balance from Salt Lake City and vicinity. They chartered a car from the company, for which they paid $1,400, and have provided themselves with all the necessaries required on the trip. They purpose settling in Nebraska, on the Missouri river, near Omaha. From personal acquaintance with Mr. Walling and several others of the party, we can safely say that they will make good, honest, and indu ons of Nebraska, albeit they strongly adhere to their peculiar religion.

This, we believe, is the first party of "discontented Mormons" taking their departure from Utah who go all the way by rail. "Straws show which way the wind blows," and before the season is over the number of "discontented" that will be beyond the reach
