CITY BULLETIN.

THE REPUBLICAN NOMINATING CONVENTIONS.

THE PROCEEDINGS THIS MORNING

The various conventions of the Republican party for the nomination of candidates for City and County Officers, for a Senator in the First District, and Representatives in the eighteen districts comprised within the city limits, were held this morning. The proceedings were as follows:

Coroner's Convention.

The delegates elected to the Convention to nominate a candidate for Coroner, met in the main hall of the Assembly buildings, Tenth and Chestnut streets, at quarter past 10 o'clock this morning.

A temporary organization was effected by the election of James I. Neall, of the Eleventh Ward, as President, and R. M. Popham, of the Fifteenth Ward, and Jessee Titterary, of the Second Ward, as Secretaries.

The credentials of the delegates from the various election districts were then received.

A committee, consisting of one delegate from each ward, on contested seats, and a like committee on permanent organization, were then appointed.

The roll was next called, and the delegates were supplied with admission tickets.

On motion of Mr. Andress, of the Fourteenth Ward, the Convention, at 20 minutes past 12 o'clock, took a recess until half-past one o'clock this afternoon.

The Convention re-assembled at quarter of 2 o'clock.

The Committee on Permanent Organization presented their report, as follows:

President—Wm. Campbell, of the Fifth Ward.
Vice Presidents—G. W. Hammersly and Major Pratt.
Secretaries—W. J. Roney, J. R. Cantrell.
Tellers—Richard Poppin and W. Charleton.
Doorkeepers—J. J. Clifton and C. Myers.

The report of the Committee was accepted, and the above declared permanent officers of the Convention.

The report of the Committee on Contested Seats stated that but one seat had been contested—that of the Fourteenth Division of the Second Ward. The Committee reported in favor of Richard Brown.

The Convention then proceeded to make general nominations for Coroner, as follows:

Robert C. Titterary, Wm. Taylor, Jacob R. Sachse, Harry M. Cluer, N. T. Barons, James R. Fletcher, E. C. Shapleigh, M. D., Jos. Heritage, M. D., Chas. Marbacker, Jacob T. Hess.

The Convention then proceeded to the first ballot.

Sachse	52	Marbacker	3
Barons	14	Shapleigh	3

The Convention proceeded to a second ballot.

City Treasurer's Convention.

The delegates to the Convention for the nomination of a City Treasurer assembled in Washington Hall, at the S. W. corner of Eighth and Spring Garden streets, at 10 o'clock. On motion of Mr. J. C. Martin, General Louis Wagner was selected to act as temporary Chairman. J. Alex. Simpson and J. P. Sipler were selected to act as temporary Secretaries. Doorkeepers—Messrs. Reilley, Rhoads, Zane, Patton and Lamb.

When the credentials of the delegates had been presented in numerical order committees were appointed on organization and credentials, composed respectively of one delegate from each ward.

During the interim caused by the deliberations of the committees, patriotic addresses were made by H. Hubn, J. Hanna, W. Haines, and others.

The Committee on Permanent Organization reported the following-named gentlemen as officers, viz.: President—H. Hubn; Vice-Presidents—Gen. H. G. Sickel, Wm. B. Hanna; Secretaries—J. Alex. Simpson, John Sipler; Treasurer—Joseph N. Hackney; Tellers—James Zimmerman, James W. Sayers; Doorkeepers—James Zane, John Williams, Joseph Patton, Philip Reilley.

The report was adopted unanimously, when the President-elect taking the chair, addressed the Convention saying:

Gentlemen—In assuming the duties of the Chair, I thank you for the honor you have been pleased to confer upon me, in calling me to preside over a convention composed of gentlemen of so much ability, intelligence and patriotism. In the performance of the duties you have assigned me, I promise you a strict impartiality in the enforcement of the rules governing this body. In the preservation of the order, dignity and decorum which should characterize the deliberations of the Convention. I ask your cordial aid and co-operation. As the representatives of the great Republican party of Philadelphia, to whom the important and delicate trust has been confided of selecting a proper person to control and manage the finance of the City during the ensuing term, let us each seek to discharge that trust in such a manner as will not only give satisfaction to the great masses of our party, but will merit the respect, confidence and support of every citizen who desires an honest, economical and faithful discharge of the duties imposed upon the Treasurer of this great metropolis.

Gentlemen—Again thanking you for the honor conferred, I am ready to proceed with the business of the Convention.

There being but two contested seats the Committee on Credentials reported at an early hour.

On motion, nominations were gone into, when the names of the following gentlemen were presented, viz.: Joseph F. Marcer, Alexander M. Fox, D. P. Southworth.

The balloting then commenced and resulted: Marcer, 196; Fox, 98; Southworth, 1.

Mr. Marcer was thereupon declared to be the nominee of the Convention, and, on motion, it was made unanimous.

The nominee was then introduced to the Convention, and returned thanks for the honor conferred upon him.

Recorder of Deeds.

At 10 o'clock this morning the Convention to nominate a candidate for Recorder of Deeds met in Spring Garden Hall, corner of Thirteenth and Spring Garden streets.

Mr. John V. Creely, of the Seventh Ward, was called to the Chair, for the purpose of effecting a preliminary organization.

Afterwards, Mr. Robert H. Beatty, of the First Ward, was elected Temporary Secretary, and George Bowers and Jno. McBride temporary doorkeepers.

The Chairman appointed Mr. Walters, of the Fifteenth Ward, assistant secretary.

The delegates then all retired to the rear of the Hall, advancing again by Wards, presenting their certificates, and taking seats.

This plan was found to be impracticable, as amid the crowd in the room those not entitled to seats could not be detected.

In this emergency the Chairman directed that the Hall should be vacated, the delegates then again coming forward by Wards, with their credentials. This plan was readily acquiesced in by the Convention, and worked with success. It was not until noon, however, that all the certificates had been presented, inspected and the holders of them allowed seats. This was but the beginning of the permanent organization.

After ten minutes of one o'clock the Secretaries commenced calling the roll in alphabetical order.

It was then moved and carried, that a committee on permanent organization be appointed, consisting of one delegate from each ward, named by the body of delegates from that ward.

In pursuance of the motion the following were constituted the committee:

Wards.	Wards.
1. Henry M. Wisner,	15. Thos. B. Shirer,
2. Edw. Helfferty,	16. Thos. Wilson,
3. Kennedy McCaw,	17. Jas. McCain,
4. Wm. Matthews,	18. Jos. Dicerich,
5. Dr. M. Rizer,	19. Isaac Shaner,
6. Chas. Alexander,	20. B. Frank Major,
7. Jos. Glenn,	21. N. L. Jones,
8. Jno. W. Baker,	22. Chas. D. Thomas
9. Thos. Baxter,	23. Wm. Grew,
10. Robt. Thompson,	24. E. F. Stokes,
11. Chas. Haslam,	25. Saml. H. Irwin,
12. G. W. Green,	26. Geo. Roberts,
13. Chas. O'Neill,	27. Jno. Malone,
14. Isaac Townsend,	28. Reuben Wander.

After a long interval the committee returned to the room from which they had retired for consultation, and announced the following officers:

President—John V. Creely.

Vice-Presidents—G. B. Hancock, Samuel C. Perkins, John B. Hancock.

Secretaries—Frederick J. Walter, Robert H. Beatty.

Tellers—Nathan L. Jones, Samuel M. Fox.

Door-keepers—Geo. Bowers, John McBride.

A Committee on Contested Seats, composed of one delegate from each Ward, was then appointed. It retired to an ante-room, and had not yet returned when our report closed.

City Commissioner's Convention.

The Convention met this morning at Broadway Hall. The meeting was temporarily organized by calling Dr. J. H. Seltzer to the chair. Mr. S. W. Henderson and Mr. Cooper were chosen secretaries pro tem. After calling the meeting to order a motion was made and carried, for the delegates to present their credentials to the secretary, which was done by precincts.

The room was then cleared, and, the delegates only being admitted, the Convention went into permanent organization. There was considerable confusion during the calling of the precincts, the members being gathered in small knots all over the hall, and many calling out at the same time.

On motion, one delegate from each Ward was chosen as a Committee on Organization.

The seat of the delegate from the Third Division of the Twenty-fourth Ward was contested; it being alleged that elections in said precinct were held at two different places, in violation of the rules of the party.

The following gentlemen were appointed as the committee on organization:

First Ward, J. L. Graham; Second Ward, Samuel Ward; Third Ward, J. G. Lammey; Fourth Ward, H. P. Gillingham; Fifth Ward, H. M. Holmes; Sixth Ward, W. H. Miller; Seventh Ward, J. M. Leeds; Eighth Ward, R. Penn; Ninth Ward, J. Sweeney; Tenth Ward, G. W. Siner; Eleventh Ward, D. Walters; Twelfth Ward, T. K. Finletter; Thirteenth Ward, S. W. Laird; Fourteenth Ward, E. W. Leigh ton; Fifteenth Ward, J. W. Brown; Sixteenth Ward, E. Hubn; Seventeenth Ward, T. J. Chandler; Eighteenth Ward, C. Bunn; Nineteenth Ward, H. Crouch; Twentieth Ward, J. L. Bowers; Twenty-first Ward, W. King; Twenty-second Ward, J. Graham; Twenty-third Ward, R. H. Mackie; Twenty-fourth Ward, E. M. Crowell; Twenty-fifth Ward, E. C. Walton; Twenty-sixth Ward, D. B. Baker; Twenty-seventh Ward, A. D. W. Caldwell; Twenty-eighth Ward, W. Cookes.

After the organization of the committee it retired to decide on the contested election of delegate from the Third division of the Twenty-fourth Ward.

The meeting was then adjourned for half an hour to await the report of the committee on organization. During the recess there was quite an exciting scene in the corner, a kind of mass meeting being held to discuss the merits of the various candidates who were to be before the Convention. On reassembling the Committee made their report as follows:

For President—Dr. J. H. Seltzer.

Vice Presidents—W. S. Kochersperger, Twentieth Ward; T. Chandler, Seventeenth Ward.

Secretaries—W. P. Cooper, Fifteenth Ward; S. W. Henderson, Tenth Ward.

Treasurer—James Boyd, Ninth Ward.

Doorkeepers—Messrs. Noble and Albright.

The Committee on Contested Seats reported as follows: That the two contested seats be declared vacant, owing to irregularity in election.

The report was adopted.

A motion was made and seconded that the Convention proceed to nomination. Carried; but amid much confusion repeated calls were made to put out men who were not members of the Convention. It was moved that the room be cleared to allow none but members of the Convention to be in the room. Carried.

On reassembling the President read a communication from the delegates of the Eighth Ward, protesting against the admission of one of the delegates, as he is not a resident. A motion was made and seconded to exclude him from the Convention. On the question being put, a division was called and motion carried.

The nomination for City Commissioner was then proceeded with.

The following names were then presented:

Captain H. Conner, Twenty-fourth Ward; Serg. Miller, Seventh Ward; William D. Watson, First; John Kurtz, Sixteenth; H. McGinley, Twenty-fourth; Thomas Dickson, Twenty-fifth; John M. Lock, Twelfth; H. Poulterer, Twenty-third; James Shaw, Twenty-first; James H. Lambert, Seventh.

It was then moved that the nominations be closed. Carried.

On motion three tellers were appointed to conduct the election. The President then read the rules, and, on motion the delegates were forbidden to leave the room while the voting was going on. The following was the result of the

FIRST BALLOT:

John Kurtz	31	Stephen Miller	31

Thos. H. Dickson	31	Jos. H. Lambert	3
Capt. Henry Conner	53	James Shaw	1
Hemill Bastian	1	D. Matthew	4
Total			286

No choice having been made by the Convention, the names of the candidates having less than 10 votes were dropped, according to rules, and the Convention proceeded to the second ballot.

The result of the second ballot was as follows:

SECOND BALLOT.

Kurtz	19	Matthew	1

Necessary to a choice, 136.

No candidate having received a majority of all votes cast, the Convention proceeded to a third ballot.

Clerk of Quarter Sessions' Convention.

The Republican delegates to the Clerk of Quarter Sessions' Convention met at ten o'clock this morning in the American Mechanics' Hall, Fourth and George streets.

Hon. Wm. B. Mann called the Convention to order. He hoped that the proceedings would be marked with decorum, and that the sense of the Convention shall be final, and such a candidate nominated as will secure the entire vote of the Republican party. He nominated Christian Kneass, Esq., as Chairman. Mr. Kneass was unanimously elected.

On taking the Chair he said it would be his endeavor to be impartial, to be just, and to be fair to all. In a convention of this kind and in all Republican Conventions there should be harmony, concord and good-will; all indications of success. When we make our selection of Clerk of the Quarter Sessions, let it be a candidate with whom we can go to the community and ask and feel confident of securing the full vote of the Republican party. When we do so we do our duty to the party and the country.

On motion of James H. Thompson, Alderman David Beitler and H. L. Smith were elected Secretaries.

Two door-keepers were then appointed, and the credentials of the delegates received by the Secretaries. This occupied about an hour and a half.

Contested seats were reported in the First division of the Eighth Ward, First of the Second Ward, Fourteenth of the Tenth Ward, Twenty-fourth of the Third Ward, Twenty-fourth of the Sixth Ward, Twenty-sixth of the Ninth Ward, Twenty-sixth of the Eleventh Ward and Second of the Ninth Ward.

On motion of Mr. Fletcher the present temporary officers were declared the permanent officers of the Convention.

A motion that a delegate from each Ward be appointed a Committee on Organization, and one from each Ward as a Committee on Contested Seats, was adopted.

The Committees were then appointed and the Convention adjourned for half an hour.

The Convention re-assembled at twenty-five minutes past one o'clock.

The Committee on Organization reported the following officers:

President—Christian Kneass. Vice Presidents—John S. Butler and H. R. Wagner. Secretaries—David Beitler and Henry L. Smith. Tellers—Thomas B. Reeves and John H. Parker. Doorkeepers—Nicholas English, John Land and Chas. Hardnock.

The report was accepted.

After receiving the report of the Committee on Contested Seats, nominations for Clerk of Quarter Sessions were made, as follows:

The Convention then proceeded to ballot, as follows:

Wm. Brearly was then elected temporary Vice-President.

Wm. J. P. White and Robert T. James were then selected as temporary Secretaries.

Messrs. Roberts and Smith were then appointed temporary doorkeepers.

A Committee on Permanent Regulations and Credentials was then appointed, consisting of one delegate from each Ward.

This committee then retired to examine the credentials, to make arrangements for a permanent organization.

The Convention then took a recess until 1 o'clock.

FOUND AT LAST!
A BURGLAR-PROOF SAFE.

[York Democratic Press, June 4th.]
The First National Bank, on Tuesday, placed in their vault one of which was purchased from their agent, Mr. Hervy Herman, formerly of this place.

MARVIN & CO.'S
Chrome-Iron Spherical Burglar-Proof Safes,

The safe was sold to the bank subject to such test as the Directors saw fit to put it to. They invited machinists and others to try their hands at safe-breaking and boring. The Bank employed MAJOR EPLEY, one of the best machinists in this section of the country, to

"DRILL THE SAFE, IF POSSIBLE."

The Major, with the assistance of his son, spent several hours in preparing his drills and tools, and having secured a strong leverage, went to work and after entirely using up his drills, and hardly making an impression on the safe, gave his opinion that drilling through inside of two weeks was out of the question.

The safe was then attacked with heavy sledges. Messrs. SMALL, BILLMEYER & CO., were called upon for three of their best who were furnished with heavy sledges. After placing the safe in the middle of the sidewalk, they commenced whacking away in regular forge style, dealing blows that were heard for squares, but with no effect on the safe. It may be imagined with what strength they dealt their blows, when they were sufficient to crack the sledges and render them useless. The trial created quite an excitement and all were satisfied that a
