CHARGED WITH OVERLOADING PASSENGER CARS.—James Lewis, conductor of Car No. 2, of the Union Passenger Railway Company, and John Slaven, driver of the same, were before Alderman Hibberd yesterday afternoon, to answer the charge of cruelty to animals, in overloading said car on Sunday last.
Mr. James Kilpatrick, agent of the Society made the complaint, testified that his attention was attracted to car No. 2, on Sunday last, at Ridge avenue and Spring Garden street, by noticing that the near horse appeared to be exhausted, and traveled with his head down. Finding that the car was crowded, he (Kilpatrick), with Mr. Williams, a friend, got upon the platform, and Williams went inside the car and counted sixty passengers, all grown. Witness, with his friend, remained upon the car, and noticed twenty-three assengers get off at Twenty-third and Brown ects, and forty-three when they reached the ark. Witness could swear positively to there sing sixty persons in the car; he also believed at the near horse was much exhausted when Mr. Ridgway, said that he did not see a third attached to the car at the grade at ty-third street, and that he (witness) got on the car, while it was overloaded, to asce in the number in it.

There being no other witnesses, the Alderman said that he did not feel disposed to decide the case, by imposing a fine as directed by the act of Assembly, but would rather have the but would rather have the matter settled by the Court, and therefore he would hold the parties charged to bail to ELECTION OF POLICE MAGISTRATES.—Coun-

During the past year the Board of Managers paid of $3,500 of the indebtedness of the institution, invested $1,325, supported the institution, and report a balance of $536 67. The institution is one well deserving of the truly charitable, who, by contributing to it, will be indirectly assisting many an aged person to live in respectability and contentment, who in days gone by was not obliged to depend upon the charity of the public. The many and constantly occurring vicissitudes and changes of life make such occurrences not unfrequent, and there is, therefore, in an establishment such as this a strong and urgent claim on the friends of the aged poor.
