CAPE MAX. Preparations for a Gay Season-1560 vs. 1968. I Correspondence of the Philada. Evening Bulletin.1 CAPE MAY, June 25.—The sounds of the hammer and the synde have been resounding through the halls and streets of Cape May since the close of the successful season of 1868. The visitor of last season will scarcely record nize the Cape May of 1869. Streets have been widened; trees cut down; houses set back; new promeniades. and new drives laid out; new hotels aind new cottages; erected. The only wonder: new condition of things, like the butterfly which has just cast off the coat of the cater-pillar, the Cape Island of 1868 has taken wing, and is now putting on airs as the city of Cape May. It has a Board of gominissioners, a law gas company, a new fished ince for a coat of the cater-pillar, the Cape Island of 1868 has taken wing, and is now putting on airs as the city of Cape May.
