Peter McCall, Esq., said that the Directors have had the subject of receiving the provisions of the will of the late Dr. Rush under consideration, but they deemed it best to call a meeting of the shareholders, that decided action should be taken. He then quoted from the will, which provides that Henry J. Williams, the executor, shall erect a fire-proof building on a lot of ground between Fourth and Fifteenth, and Christian and Race streets. He therefore offered a resolution referring the subject to the Board of Directors, to accept or reject the provisions of the will, as they may reject the provisions of the will, as they me t the position seems to be that the stockholders should decide by a vote what course they should take. I, therefore, offer an amendment that the Board of Directors shall be empowered to accept the provisions of the will, and

Murtrie, Esqrs., was then read, in which they recommend a postponement for the purpose of settling all questions in dispute.

Judge Hare resumed his remarks by saying that he did not think that by a postponement the provisions of the Will would be rejected. He did not think that the Library Company need accept the trust until the building was erected and tendered to the Company. He opposed undue haste in the matter until they received some plan of the building before binding themselves to the terms of such a contion from the fleet or fort.
