The judges and lawyers each took up his parable in turn, and contradicted the views of his "learned brother." Very disjointed, indeed, were the thoughts of the assembled wisdom of Philadelphia. Some, with anti-Christian bitthe Library, as utterly out of the world. Others considered the location of no sort of Others considered the location of no sort of embarrass, if they cannot absolutely prevent, the Lehigh so easy, comfortable, and rapid that the region can be traversed in twentytheir way to their favorite food, no matter where it might be placed. Some, with easy arithmetical glibness, whittled down the bequest, by deductions of taxes, and annuities, and lots, and buildings, and other small items, until it was an outrage upon their rights, and that it was demonstrated that it would be a positive drain improperly obtained. Learned counsel argued that the stockholders must-accept or reject upon the spot. Other learned counsel put in their opinion that the time for, action had not vet come. The longer the subject was discussed, the more muddled it became. One lawyer after another took his innings, and came out in fresh clouds of dust: and after two hours and a-half of eloquent, and-for such an assemblage-excited debate, the meeting adjourned to think over it for another three months. The few "teachers of disjointed thinking" looked on with keen and grim enjoyment, and felt that they were

While the bequest of Dr. Rush is undoubtedly so constructed as to present a perfect wilderness of tangled legal difficulties, it is evident that the one central difficulty is that of location. The neighborhood of Broad and Christian streets is, and will be, for a long time to come, a remote one, in reference to the centres of business science and residence. Capture of Cuban Filibusters. [Special Despatch to the Philada. Evening Bulletin.] NHW YORK, June 30.-A Deputy United States Marshal informs your correspondent that the entire filibustering expedition which recently sailed from Jersey City has been captured, with the exception of a few straggling parties. They were caught about forty miles down the Sound. All their provisions had given out, and all, including the special correspondents of the Herald, Tribune and San, who accompanied them, were at the point of starva-tion, and gladly welcomed the timely food given them by the U.S. authorities. The Catherine Whiting was the only yessel engaged to take them to sea, and her seizure, of course, defeated all their plans. The most of them will be brought up to the Brooklyn Navy Yard about noon to-day.

From Harrisburg. [Special Despatch to the Phila. Evening Bulletin.] DEATH WARRANT ISSUED. HARRISBURG, June 30.—The Governor re Ceived a letter from the District-Attorney of Monroe county, to the effect that Charles Orme, one of the Brodhead murderers, had nearly killed another man in an attempt to escape. The Governor immediately ordered his death warrant to be issued, and he will accordingly be executed on Wednesday, August 11, in the jail-yard at Stroudsburg. HISTORY OF THE PENNSYLVANIA VOLUNTEERS. Mr. Bates, the State bistorian volunteers. Philadelphia Money Market. VEDNESDAY, June 30, 1859.—We have a very active m ney market to day, and all classes of borrowers are wel represented, both at the banks and on the streets. Th banks are quite liberal to applicants, but with their re sources reduced to a very narrow point, it is impossible to respond to every call made upon them even by regular customers of undoubted credit. The street operators are ry busy, and as there is considerable pressure for dis units, the rates have advanced to Sall per cent, for first-lass commercial paper only. Other grades are very difficult of sule, except at heavy shaves. Call loans are unusually active at 6a7 per cent. on gov rument bonds, and at 7a8 per cent. on miscellancous curities. The Treasury will commence to-morrow aying out gold interest to a large amount, and this, with dividends disbursed by the countless corporations all over the country, will no doubt restore the money market to comminy, with no only restore the money market to a normal state of case. The gold market is very quiet, and the price tends downward. Opening sales at 137%; quotations at 12 M., 7 Government loans are dull and heavy. Business at the Stock Board was active and prices unsettled. In State and City Loans there was no noticeable change. Beading Railroad was considerably active, without much change in price, closing active at 49%. unsylvania Railroad advanced, selling at 56%; Lehig Valley Railroad at 57, and under a pressure to sell Phila-delphia and Erie declined to 30%-31% b.o. Catawissa Preferred sold at 35%, and Camden and Amboy at 131. In Bank, Canal and Passenger Railway shares the ere no transactions worthy of notice, and prices under
