The place was promptly surveyed, streets named, sites set apart for public edifices, a number of lots donated to influential companies and individuals, and the city duly christened 'Francisca.' This movement alarmed Folsom and hi friends, who immediately adopted a more liberal policy, with a view to keeping trade at Yerba Buena. They offered him (Sherman) lots for merely the legal expenses of transfer, which to day are worth hundreds of thousands of dollars, and which he refused a worthless and hills, regarding their offers as an insult to his intelligence. The enterprising Folsom perceived the advantages of a name. The Bay of San Francisco was marked on every sailor's chart, and vessels were up for the Bay,'i.e., San Francisco, in all parts of the world. Calling his friends together, they in mass meeting instructed the Avunta-

[From the New York Herald of to-day.]

Friday, July 2.—The important announcement of the Secretary of the Treasury that he will to-morrow purchase three millions of Government bonds, in addition to the usual one per cent. for the sinking fund; indicates a desire on the part of that official to, make amends for the contractionery policy by which he has enabled the Wall street speculators to inaugurate a period of stringency unparalleled in our local finances, at this season certainly. Sub-Treasure: Butterfield states in the advertisement that the purchase will; be for the Treasury Department, the same to be held subject to the future action of Congress. It does not interfere with or change the existing orders for the purchase of bonds on alternate Thursdays. The yolce of the people will endorse what Mr. Houtwell intende doing. The Sinking Fund act was allowed to remain inoperative during the career of his predecessors; and while there can be little doubt that he has the right to cancel bonds to the extent of one per cent. Per annum for the time which has elapsed since the enactment of the law, he is, perhaps, prudent in awaiting the full confirmation of his acts by Congress. The effect of the news was to produce great cheerfulness and a feeling that the money market must relax, especially as the purchase of bonds and the usual disbursements of the government between the 1st and 3d inst. will liberate about six millions of the kavy currency balance in the Treasury. The opening rate for money was about an eighth. Later in the day the appreliension returned, when attention was more generally directed to over $57,000,000 on the 1st inst. The usual amount kept in the Treasury has been eight or ten millions, so that Mr. Boutwell has suffered nearly thirty millions to occumulate dily in the government vaults. This is virtual contraction, for it lessens the circulating medium and leaves a smaller volume of currency with which to do bussiness. It is to be hoped that Mr. Boutwell is not a contr

Commercial paper was offered at ten to twelve per cent, for prime names, but no business was done except at the higher figure.

The speculation in the Gold Room was a repetition of that of the past few days except that toward the close the strength of our bonds in the foreign market added a new depressing influence. At the opening the price was highest, in sympathy with the finer feeling in foreign exchange; but when the latter market became irregular and declined, under the better supply of bills drawn against shipments of produce and government bonds, there was a yielding to 13%, a reaction to 13%; and thence, under the influence of the further rise of five-twenties in London, a decline to 138% at four o clock. The flattering features of the debt statement, the proposed additional purchases of bonds, and the deferment of specie shipments, broke the market, which was already prepared the breaking of glass; occasioned by the com-A veteran San Franciscan now in Washington, who frequently visits my rooms to read up the files of the Alta, called on General Sherman at his residence lately, in company with Senator Cole, to consult with him in regard to the location of the Soldiers' Home on the Pacific. THE SOUTHERN ELECTIONS.

The excitement over the political canvass in Virginia is represented by members of both parties to be steadily on the increase. Thus far the Republicans appear confident of carrying the State by a very decisive majority. As soon as complete returns are received a proclamation will be issued by the President ordering an election in Mississippi and Texas. The exact time, however, has not as yet been determined. THE PRESIDENT'S MOVEMENTS.

President Grant will leave here about the 15th of July, to be absent several weeks. He expects to go to Long Branch and the White Mountains, and it is very probable that he Mountains, and it is very probable that he will attend the Commencement at Dartmouth College, N. H. Secretary Fish is expected to return here on the 10th instant, and remain until the 20th, when he will again leave, to spend some time at his country place on the Hudson. Until the President and Secretary Fish return from their summer trips, it is more than probable that nothing will be done in regard to the Cuban question. The present policy will be adhered to of enforcing, in as quiet but energetic a way as possible, the neutrality laws. according to the official accounts received, there appears to be no reason for our Govern-ment to depart from its present attitude.

A Government contractor, just from Fort Sully, makes the following report: There was no rain of any account north or west of Sloux City, and but little beyond Omaha, below Council Bluffs. The damage was very great from Phelps's to Craig's Station or Council Bluffs. The St. Joseph Railroad tract is under water, and no trains have passed for four days. Captain Bartle, of the steamer Mountaineer reports that up a creek, below Council Bluffs, he saw twenty-seven dead bodies taken out The bodies were mostly those of women an children, who were drowned by the sudder rise of the rivers and the overflow of the prairie lands. From every quarter below Kansas City reports come of loss of life and property.

The Indians are dissatisfied. They say they do not understand or like the Quakers, preferring General Harney—knowing just what they can do with him, and what to depend on. there will be trouble.

The project of this monument originated about ten years ago, in the public schools.
For the purpose of raising funds a grand fair was given at National Hall, some years since, this manner without any definite result. Lec-tures and floral fairs were then given to raise money, but the Committee succeeded in losing by them about $400. The money on hand was then invested in United States securities, and, after a lapse of time, a movement was made during the present year to raise additional funds to obtain a statue of Washington. The statue was ordered and has been completed was ordered and has been completed for several months. The base, which was put up vesterday, is constructed of Richmond granite, and is ten feet in height. In the corner-stone was placed a box containing the newspapers of the day and reports of the Washington Monument Association, and of the Board of Controllers of the Public Schools. The figure was placed in position this morning, and attracted considerable attention.

The statue is the work of Mr. J. A. Bailly, and was modeled and carved by him at his atelier in the marble-yard of Mr. John Struthand tasteful work of art. It is carved out of a single block of Italian marble eight feet six inches in height, and represents Washington standing by the side of a pedestal, on which a book is placed, with Washington's right hand resting on it. The left hand rests on the hilt of a sword. The face is modeled after Houder who was walon bettly the most accom-
