On American subjects, as far as Mr. Forster has thought fit to introduce them in his book, Landor was, in his middle life, very far astray. Southey had written to him, expressing the opinion that because the United States went to war with Great Britain in 1812, Mr. Madihis reply to this letter, he expressed detestation there is reason to believe, Landor had overcome in later years. In his earlier years, Landor had DERFUMERY AND TOILET SOAPS. conceived the idea that the South American Republics, then newly freed from Spain and setting up for themselves, were to become the fulfilment of all that was noble in the commonly received ideas of popular governments. Here is a part of a letter written to Southey in March, 1812 :
