The Alabama Claims Discussion. Lonbon, July 9.—The Times regards th istponement of the debate on the Alabam with satisfaction. Their introduction at the present moment would serve no good purpose. There is a general sense of weari-ness with respect to the subject, on both sides, ness with respect to the interval of a consider-able period before it is resumed. Debate would only be useful if. Parliament disap-proved of the conduct of the Ministry, or wished to instruct it in regard to future negotiations, but there is no dissatisfaction, and the only charge against Lords Stanley and Clarendon is, that they were too yielding; but he: Commons, were not likely to advise the ithdrawal of the convertient withdrawal of the concessions made, nor whe they prepared to lay down a plan for future negotiations, and anticipations of such results egotiations, and anticipations of such results rom discussion were most imprudent. Another reason for declining discussion is a Another reason for declining discussion is a due regard for the national dignity, which forbids our approaching the American Gov-ernment on these questions. Public opinion is unanimous on this point. The late treaty was virtually American, for it was made, al-tered and realtered by Seward and Johnson.

negotiate, which seems to forebode weakness when negotiation comes. The prevalence of more moderate views in America is gratify It is to be hoped that the question of th ing. It is to be hoped that the question of the Queen's neutrality proclamation, which has dropped ont of sight, will be tacitly abandoned. This favorite change is owing to the discovery that England will not concede beyond a cerain point, and this resolution is not likely to The Star is glad the Alabama discussion has een postponed. American resentment agains ngland is likely to be weaker, and her desire to reduce the burden of the public debt stronger. The best thing for both countries is to hold their peace for awhile. No general discussion can simplify matters. The new House of Commons evidently preferred to ave the responsibility of postponement one government, and the Star thinks the cou liement or will approve its prudent self-restraint. The Irish Church Bill.

LONDON, JUly 9, Midnight.—In the House of Lords, to-night, the Irish Church bill came up for a report from the Committee. On motion of Lord Cairns, the date of the 1st of May, 1871, was substituted for the 1st of Jan-uary, 1872, throughout the bill. Lord Redesdale moved an amendment, that pepresentatives of the Irish Church and Catho-lic Synod, in cases of vacant bishoprics, nomiin cases of vacant bishoprics, nom e persons for the Crown to select from, and that the Crown be empowered to summon one Archbishop, or two Bishops from each Church, to sit in Parliament. The Earl of Granard protested on the part the Catholics against the amendment, which declared was utterly inadmissible, and it was withdrawn. The Marquis Clanricarde moved that clause 28, giving power to convey additional land to the Church body be restored to its original form. He said the clause as now amended hord, the salu the clause day in the most hateful form, giving glebe lands to the Church body, but refusing them to Catholics and Presbyterians. It was certain the government and Commons would never sanction the amended clause. The Marquis of Salisbury replied that in Thes, Marquis, or Sansbury replied that in moving the amendment he contemplated simi-lar grants to Catholics and Presbyterians, ac-cording to Mr. Bright's proposal, which Mr. Gladstone had endorsed, but he thought that the retention of their own glebes by the Irish the retention of their own gleoes by the trist. Claurch was not unfair. After further discussion, Earl Denbigh an-nounced that the Catholics had decided not to accept State lands or residences. The motion to restore clause 28 was lost by a vote of fl to 40. The amendment embracing the proposal of The amendment embra money, instead of handing over private en-dowments created before 1660, was agreed to. The report of the bill was then received. Farl Clancarty gave notice that when the bill comes up for a third reading he will move
