The Irish Church Bill. ONDON, July 16 .- The protest against th rish Church bill by Earl Derby is signed by forty-seven Peers. It was entered against bill on the ground that it looked to a severance of Church and State, a project unrecognized in any country in Europe. The adoption of the bill would encourage the designs of those who want such severance extended thoughout the United Kingdom, together with the resump-tion of grants and confiscation of property.

The protest further states that the pas bill was a violent stretch of the power Parliament, which shakes the confidence in all property, and especially that resting on parlia-mentary title. The protest sets forth the impossibility of putting a disestablished and di ndowed church on a footing, and that this grievance caused the Irish Protestants' alienan from the loval supporters of the throne and stimulated the demands of Catholics.

LONDON, July 16, Midnight .- In the Hou mmons, to-night, the consideration of the rish Church bill was continued. Mr. Gladstone approved of the amendment granting half a million pounds for private endowments made prior to 1816, but moved to disagree to he provision continuing the Ulster grants. israeli thought that a clear understandin pught to be arrived at if the policy of the ernment had for its object religious equality, hich could not be obtained by humiliating the rish Church, and leaving it to compete with the most ancient hierarchy in Christendom. He thought the proposal of the Lords was easonable. Sir Stafford Northcote thought Mr. Gladtone's proposal would convert the Established Church into a voluntary missionary church, intributions for the support of which could only be obtained by stirring up a hard feeling gainst Catholic neighbors. It would be to the ivantage of Protestants to enjoy free and proper endowments, and he asked, as an act of ice and expediency, that glebes be left to Sir Roundell Palmer supported the Lords' mendment. The amendment granting half a million ounds for private endowments was agreed to. The amendment continuing the Ulster grant was rejected, by 345 to 240.

The amendment of the Lords was then rejected by a vote of 290 against 218.

Great cheers greeted the result. LONDON, July 16.—The Times, in an editorial on the action of the flouse of UC last night, says the bill will go back to the e of Lords almost in its original shape The Commons have decided that the amendments adopted by the Lords are inconsistent with the bill, and there is no reason to believe that the Commons will surrender. If the Lords persist a collision must ensue, which will result in popular agitation and a renewal of the measure with a fierce determination to carry it through. The Times trusts that the conservative Peers will be content with the presentation Earl Derby's protest, which usage allows

THE UNITED STATES MINT .- The coinage

at the United States Mint has temporarily ceased. The work was stopped to-day for the purpose of making improvements in the estab-lishment. An entire new set of boilers wil succeed the old ones, which have done good service. The new boilers have been in process of construction for some months, the greatest possible care and skill being bestowed on them. Every separate piece of material was tested be-fore being used, and all the bolt-holes have been bored instead of drilled, so as to produce no fracture upon the iron. When completed, there can be no doubt that these boilers will be second to none in the country, in every essential. During the last fortnight the Mint has been running to its fullest capacity, so as to have a sufficient supply of coin on hand to have a supply of coin on have a sup has been running to its fullest capacity, so as to pletcly overhauled. healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color and the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts longer on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.
