THIEVING OPERATIONS.—The annoyance which farmers and truck-growers in the vicinity of Camden are obliged to suffer from depredations on their melon fields committed by sneak thieves is very great.

THE PEACH BUSINESS.—The business of assorting and re-shipping peaches at the Camden and Ambler depots in Camden, for New York, was never more active than at the present time.

—Here is a reflection: M. Alex. Dumas, Jr., recently wrote on the album of a lady who asked him for his autograph: "Poverty de-stroys pride; his so hard for an empty sack to swell itself."

—The municipality of Trieste has voted a sum of 1,000,000 towards the erection of a monument to Rossini.

—There is much weeping and gnashing of teeth among housekeepers to-day, in consequence of the fact that there are women in Philadelphia who would rather sacrifice all their children, the last of their blood relations, and their hopes of happiness hereafter, than to be obliged to have their hired girls slush water around over the bricks on Saturday.

—The Augusta (Ga.) Constitutionalist thinks that if the Democratic party in this State will only stand up for the rights of those who are 'among them but not of them'—the Belmonts, the World, the Citizen—we can then act with it to some purpose. This purgation, which was made before success can crown any effort."

—The students of Leipzig are agitating the question of abolishing the academic practice of duelling. For some time past the number of duels has been very large in that city, and in one of which young M. von Goblentz, the only son of his parents, was killed.
