

FROM ATLANTIC CITY VISIT OF THE KNIGHTS TEMPLAR

(Correspondence of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin.) SURF HOUSE, ATLANTIC CITY, August 29, 1869.—This is about the time fixed upon by the fashionable for the closing of the season at the watering-places, but many persons consider September the most delightful part of the year to visit the sea-shore, and although some of the leading hotels close early, most of the houses remain open until the latter part of the month, and all have a pretty fair number of guests. Anybody who would walk about Atlantic City to-day would think that the season was about at its height, instead of being on the eve of closing. To-day there are as many people here as there has been on any one day during the past three months, and the hotel proprietors all wear smiling countenances.

The "season" of the present year may be set down as a prosperous one for the hotel keepers and other parties chiefly interested, although the amount of cash raked in has not been as large as in former years. In the way of attractions and festivities, however, this season has far surpassed any of its predecessors. There has been no end to "hops" and amusements of various kinds. The ball masquerade which came off during the camp-meeting at the Philadelphia Zouaves was a novelty, and the brilliant masquerade hop given subsequently by Mr. Thomas Farley, proprietor of the Surf House, was an entertainment of a kind never given here before. As none of the hotels have ever been over-crowded at any time, visitors have no reason to complain on the score of comfort and amusement. The bathing throughout the entire season has been excellent, and the sailing has been delightful. Those who are fond of fishing have been greatly disappointed. For some time past, the fish have refused to "bite" as savagely as formerly, but they are apparently getting over their timidity, and every day the amateur fishermen are becoming more successful in their hauls.

Previous to the opening of the next season various improvements are contemplated here, and will add much to the attraction of the place. The Surf House is to undergo a complete renovation, and as the beach has been running away from it for several years, a railway is to be built so that guests will avoid a tramp through the hot sand. Of course the good-looking and liberal Farley will provide for the destinies of the house, as he has so well done during the present season. The express train yesterday afternoon brought down Cyrene Commanary, No. 7, Knights Templar, of Camden, accompanied by the National Cornet Band, of Camden, and nearly a hundred Philadelphia Knights, as invited guests. Upon their arrival the Sir Knights were assigned to quarters at different hotels, the Philadelphians generally being located at the Surf House. In the evening the Knights assembled at the Sea View Hotel, where there was a handsome display of fireworks under the direction of Prof. Jackson. The crowning piece represented the Knights Templar's cross, surmounted by the motto of the Order, "In hoc signo vinces." The exhibition passed off very successfully, and at its conclusion the ladies were escorted to the magnificent ball-room. There was a large assemblage of the fair sex, and all were elegantly attired. The "hop" was opened by a grand march by the Sir Knights, who were in full uniform, and presented a very fine appearance as they paraded the room. Several times the command "break ranks," the Sir Knights separated and the bugle sounded for a quadrille. The dancing then commenced, and was continued (with an intermission for refreshments) until midnight. The scene during the ball was grand. The very handsome uniforms of the Knights and the rich dresses of the ladies made a display of splendor rarely witnessed. The affair passed off in the most agreeable manner, and nothing whatever occurred to mar its pleasures. Sir Wm. Wallace Goodwin, H. H. Hutchison, Sir Jas. L. Hale, Sir John Thornley and Sir Harmanus Neff as Sir Floor Managers.

This morning at 10 o'clock Cyrene Commanery assembled at the Sea View House and marched to the Surf House, where they were joined by the Philadelphians. The Knights then proceeded to the Methodist Episcopal Church, where an excellent sermon was delivered by the Rev. Mr. J. J. Jones. Tomorrow morning at half-past nine o'clock the Sir Knights of Cyrene Commanery will assemble at the Sea View Hotel, preparatory to countermarching on Atlantic avenue, and pass in review of the Grand Officers of New Jersey, and the Sir Knights of other Commaneries, in front of the Surf-House. The reviewing officers will be Sir Thomas J. Corson, P. G. C. of New Jersey; Sir Geo. H. Bechtel, P. G. C. of New Jersey; Sir Jeremiah L. Hutchinson, P. G. C. of Pennsylvania; Sir James W. G. T. of New Jersey; Sir McDowell, P. G. C. of New Jersey, and Col. James Page, P. G. M. of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania.

The Knights will return to Philadelphia tomorrow afternoon. The closing hop of the season at Congress Hall was given last evening, and notwithstanding the K. T. ball at the other end of the city, was a brilliant affair. Col. James Page acted as Master of Ceremonies in his usual graceful style. Lady's Moonlight. Excursion arrived on time last night, and brought down about 900 persons. A. W. F.

BLUE NOSE WRATH.

The Canadians Excited by an American Flag—A Terrible Outpouring of Wrath. From the Hamilton (Ontario) Times of Aug. 27. On the night preceding Dominion Day some graceless wags climbed to the top of a lofty flag-pole at Woodstock, near the railway station, which was erected at the time of the visit of the Prince of Wales, and nailed thereon an American flag, bearing the inscription "No Union with America." No person could be found possessed of sufficient temerity to climb the pole and tear down the rag, particularly as not a few persons were posted to the top of the pole, and that the life of any party making the attempt would certainly be forfeited. There the obnoxious motto fluttered for nearly two months, in full view of the crowds of travelers passing daily on the railway, and the reputation of Woodstock was not likely to benefit by such a display. One of the telegraph wires was procured to descend from the top of the pole, and the flag was taken up to Woodstock to perform the job, but after climbing about two-thirds of the height, he declined to ascend further, and declared he would sooner resign his situation. Shooting was next resorted to, and a considerable amount of powder was employed in the effort to destroy the hateful emblem. The flag and also the top of the pole were pretty well shattered by this means, and "Annexation" was obliterated from the rag at least. On Monday last, however, the employment of a patent stone-drum manufacturer happened in the town, and hearing of the matter he very readily tendered his services to "go for" the thing. The gallant lad performed the act handsomely, ascending to the top of the pole without difficulty, and tearing off the last spread of the hated rag. The question is, who was the intrepid individual that "put up the job?"

THE CHINESE.

Report of the Agent Appointed by the Government to Study the Chinese. (From the New Orleans Times, Aug. 28.) We had the pleasure, yesterday, of meeting and conversing with General W. R. Miles, who has just returned from his tour of duty in the State he was sent by the Immigrant and Labor Convention held at Memphis last July, for the purpose of investigating and reporting upon Chinese labor. His ability for the wants of the South and the practicability of its cheap introduction. General Miles devoted one month to traveling, examining the country and observing and studying the people and their institutions. In advance of his report we can state that the General confirmed the opinions of all intelligent and impartial persons who have visited California as to the great value, superiority and cheapness of Chinese labor. An active, sagacious and inquisitive gentleman, he made a thorough and minute examination into the manners, habits and customs of the Chinese. He visited the various establishments in which they are employed, the wooden factories, the mines and on railroads; in fine, in every department of industry and manufactures; and he found in every relation and position they were regarded as the cheapest and most valuable laborers in the State. As house-servants they are esteemed as incomparably superior to all others in their cleanliness, docility and industry. The laborer he obtained at about one-third the rate paid for other labor. It is for this reason they are persecuted and oppressed by certain classes in California. These classes, comprising a large number of voters, political aspirants and party leaders, find it to their interest to sanction the denunciation of the Chinese, but even these admitted General Miles that for the Southern plantation there could be no better laborers. General Miles assures us that the Chinese are more than ordinarily shrewd in making a bargain and taking care of themselves. As they seek protection when they come into our country, and the enjoyment of the rights which have been promised to them under the Burlingame treaty. Through the mission and purposes of Gen. Miles were seriously interfered with and discouraged by Boutwell's letter to the Collector of New Orleans, he had every assurance that if proper security be afforded against any attempt on the part of the Government to prevent the introduction of these laborers, the full demand of the South could be met in a few years satisfied, at rates which would render it the cheapest and best labor in the world, and thus add enormously to the productive wealth and improvement of our section.

MORMONISM.

The Organ of Brigham Young on the Schismatics. (From the Salt Lake Telegraph.) Of the Smith brothers we have little to say. They are doubtless sincere in themselves; but to what else we have failed to discover, they have brought anything to interest any one we have not heard. Of all the movements that ever claimed attention, this, to us, seems to have the least to say for itself. We have diligently sought to comprehend the brothers Smith; but beyond a snarl at Brigham Young and polygamy, we have reached nothing. They may say of the former that they view that establishing nothing in favor of Joseph Smith, at Plano, Illinois; and they may contend with unmeasured zeal the latter institution; but that will change in nothing the happy marital relations of their father, so well known to everybody who intimately knew him. Had these young men come among us claiming to have a revelation, we should, respectfully listened to them, as we did to their father, and we would have judged of its divinity by its light; but no revelation is presented to us, and it is too late in the day to speak to us of mere imitations, &c. Too many have claimed ordinations already. We hear plenty of these things, but we have learned to ask for more. It was not Brigham Young's ordination that led the persecuted Saints across the dreary plains—God was with the man, and His providence was visible in the drama enacted. High priest or apostle makes his ordination a subject of parade in the pulpit, he is of mighty little service to the human family; but when he speaks and we listen to his ordination, and his right power is shown, we have no need to ask for evidence of the ordination. It is not ordination, but revelation, that proves the revealer. Ours, journal-edited articles, and the other matters, are welcome to the whole of this. We will not tamper with the future, and predict, but for the present we can safely say that we do not justly regard our preacher, but this is our Sunday sermon to our hearers. Amen.

CITY BULLETIN.

THE HUMBOLDT FESTIVAL.—The delegates from the different societies, lodges, &c., which intend participating in the festival on the 13th of September, in honor of the centennial anniversary of the birth of Alexander von Humboldt, held a meeting at Red Men's Hall yesterday morning. Representatives from about twenty societies, lodges, &c., were present. These societies comprise the Union Sangerbund, the Grand Lodge of the Order of Hargraves, Germania Singsbund, several of the Red Men, U. O. S. W. M., and O. C. H. S. The tickets for the festival were distributed to the associations. The societies which have not reported their names, and application to the Financial Secretary, Mr. R. Koradi, at Fourth and Wood streets. The marshals for the different societies will be chosen this week, and on Saturday next they will meet at the Red Men's Hall for the election of Division Marshals.

ATTEMPTED HIGHWAY ROBBERY.—Wm. H. Massey and Joseph Connelly were before Ald. Massey yesterday upon the charge of attempted highway robbery. It is alleged that at Thirteenth and Wood streets, yesterday morning, at half-past two o'clock, they attacked a man with a club, knocked him down, and beat him badly, destroying three or four of his teeth, and then attempted to rob him. The cries of the man attracted the attention of Policemen McGarry and Atterbury, who came up and captured the assailants. Connelly broke away from Armstrong and ran. He was pursued and the policeman fired two shots at him without effect. At Thirteenth and Spring Garden streets the fugitive was captured by another officer. The accused were committed for trial.

ASSAULT WITH A BUNG DRIVER.—Jacob Fisher, proprietor of a beer saloon at Third and Townsend streets, was before Alderman Smith this morning upon the charge of assault and battery. A man who entered the saloon last evening to get a drink, quarreled with Fisher. The latter is alleged to have struck the man on the head with a bung driver, injuring him pretty badly. The accused was held for trial.

DISORDERLY HOUSE.—Lieutenant Haggerty, of the Third District Police, made a descent upon an alleged disorderly house, No. 623 Barclay street, on Saturday night. Charles Martin, the proprietor, and seven men and seven women were arrested. The prisoners were taken before Alderman Carpenter. Martin was held in $400 bail for trial, and the others in $400 bail to keep the peace.

ASSAULTING A POLICEMAN.—Michael Gorman was arrested at Seventeenth and North streets, for assaulting Policeman Shilling. It is alleged that he drew a knife, and attempted to stab the officer. Gorman was taken before Alderman Pancoast, and was held in $1,000 bail.

FELL FROM A SCAFFOLD.—Jacob Loudenslager, twenty years of age, fell from a scaffold this morning, in Ninth street, above Race, and dislocated his right arm. He was taken to the Pennsylvania Hospital, where he had his arm set, and was then taken to his home.

TILL TAPPING.—James Ewing, aged twelve years, has been committed by Alderman Egleston to answer the charge of the larceny of $4 from the money-drawer of a store at Beach and Manders streets.

CHAMPION SAFES! PHILADELPHIA, August 27, 1869. Messrs. FARRELL, HERRING & CO. GENTLEMEN: In the year 1856 I unfortunately was in business in the Arden Building, which was destroyed by fire on the 10th of April. I had then in use what I supposed was a fire-proof safe, but upon opening it found everything destroyed, and fire burning therein. You will recollect, gentlemen, there was several of your safes in that fire, also several in the fire at Sixth and Commerce streets, the next May, five weeks afterwards, all of which upon being opened proved they were fire-proof indeed, for I witnessed the opening of most of them, and in every case the contents were preserved, while safes of other makers were partially or entirely destroyed. I at once concluded to have something that I could depend upon, and purchased one of your safes. The safe I purchased of you at that time was subjected to a white heat (which was witnessed by several gentlemen that reside in the neighborhood) at the destruction of my Marble Paper Factory, 221 Wallace street, on the afternoon and evening of the 24th inst. After digging the safe from the ruins, and opening it this morning, I was much pleased to find everything, consisting of books, papers, money and silverware, all right. I shall want another of your safes as soon as I can get a place to continue my business in. I could not rest contented with any other make of safe.
