CARD OF THANKS. We desire to make grateful acknowledgment of many kind services rendered us at the recent fire. Our thanks are especially due to the admirable FIRE DEPARTMENT of this city, and to the Continental Hotel, to which, under the skillful direction of J. E. KINGSLEY, Esq., Proprietor of the Continental, we are undoubtedly indebted for the preservation of our buildings. We are also indebted to the Insurance Patrol and its President, ATTWOOD SMITH, Esq., who personally superintended its operations, for the efficient manner in which they guarded the heavy stock with which our house was stored.

TO THE PHILADELPHIA FIRE DEPARTMENT. For the prompt and copious manner in which its members conducted themselves; to the POLICE, for their close attention and protection, and to Mr. GEORGE W. HAYSTICK and others, who remained on duty from the commencement of the fire through the entire night, we gratefully return our thanks.
