THE CONTESTED ELECTION CASE

Common Pleas—Judges Allison, Ludlow Peirce and Brewster.—Mr. Mann resumed his argument this morning, addressing himself to the Eighth Division of the Fourth Ward. He went over the testimony in detail, showing the receipt at the polls of 175 votes of men not on the list of taxables, and who voted without any proof of qualification. Mike Fitzgerald also figured in this division, at the head of his any proof of qualification. Mike Fitzgerhit also figured in this division, at the head of his New York roughs. There was no answer to all this on the part of the respondents. The election officers wilfully disregarded the claw and took the vote of every man who came up. All that the respondents do is to call 27 of these 175, who testify that they did vote and they voted the Democratic ticket. But this is exactly what the contestants charge. The respondents did not produce the election officers in order to disprove our allegations. This is explained by a reference to the political history of the Division! In October they polled 531 Democratic votes, and then in November increased it to 1,261! The Democratic majority in the Seventh Division of the Third, and the Eighth of the Fourth, is about 900 thus manufactured.

Mr. Mann next took up the Seventh Division of the Fourth Ward. The list of taxables produced shows 252 names marked as voting. Ten names were added by the election officers, and 450 votes were polled. Mr. Mann then went over the list, giving the names of those whose names were marked as voting, when the fact was they had removed from the division, or never lived there, or were personated by others. Fifty-three persons voted without proof of qualification being required. Votes were received and deposited in the ballot-box so fast that, in many instances, the Republican Inspector had not time to search for the names on the list. There are sixty-five persons whose names are not on the list.

The Sixth Division of the Fourth Ward was next taken up. There are 405 voters in this division, but the list of voters shows only 399 names on the list of taxables; there are 165 names voting and 10 added, and the record of the election shows something about 175 of the voters. Forty-two persons were allowed to vote in this division whose names are not on the list, and of these the respondents have produced only three who testified that they voted. The list of taxables was not there until 11 o'clock, and of taxables was not there until 11 o'clock, and before that 249 votes were received. After the book came the Republican Inspector attempted to challenge, whereupon the crowd threatened to pull him from the window if he did not stop. "Doggy" Dougherty was outside vouching for men. Twenty-four names were personated, or the votes proven to be list of taxables voted without any proof of ouglification being required. al. These model election officers in October polled 403 votes, but in November they showed what they could do by giving 1,046 votes, whereas the Division is a small one, containing not more than 400 voters.

Mr. Mann next took up the Eighth Division of the Ninth Ward. The list of taxables shows names f parked as voting, with four names added. The list of voters shows 699 names of persons voting. The object was not of affect the whole division, but to show what occurred the last three hours. He read the testimony of a lady who saw a gang of about twenty men in an alley selecting names and occupations from an assessment list. The witness was up stairs, looking down upon the crowd, and heard the arrangement and gave the information. Another witness corroborated this by following the party to the polls and challenging them, but failed because he was threatened. They vouched for each other. Johnny Lazarus was in the crowd. The proof. Johnny Lazurus was in the crowd. The proof also showed 20 illegal votes polled during the last three hours, with unassessed votes to the number of 14. The list of illegal votes is as follows, and attention was called to the fact that on the list they follow in regular order:

389 James Boyle, assessed at 2109 Filbert street, and did not reside there at the time of 624 John Nash voted on paper issued fraudulently. 637 James Kelly moved to West Philadelphia about September 1, 1868.

639 Patrick McCloskey resided in Tenth tion.

645 Edward McLaughlin moved from division Sept. 11, 1868. 646 Abraham Stevenson, assessed from 2109

Filbert, did not reside there.
647 Thomas Long, in Colorado since May 18.
648 Thomas McCloskey, moved from division June 23. 651 Edward Clark, assessed 2109 Filbert, did not reside there at the time of election. 653 Patrick Gorman, moved to West Philadelphia before election.

655 Thomas McDermott left the city in March.
657 Michael Carlin assessed 2109 Filbert street, never resided there. 665 Richard Mansfield moved from division,

May 7th, 1868. 669 Michael O'Conner moved in July, 1868, to Eighth Ward.
686 Dennis Maguire resided in Fifteenth

Ward at time of election.

The lady's testimony was thus corroborated by showing the receipt of these illegal votes in regular order. They found out that her husband was on the police force, and within twenty-four hours after this testimony was given, her husband was discharged. That is the only answer given to this testimony by the respondents respondents.

Mr. Mann next took up the Sixth Division of the Seventeenth Ward, but before entering of the Seventeenth Ward, but before entering into details the Court ordered a recess. "Upon the reassembling of the Court, Mr. Mann resumed, showing the manner in which the election was conducted in the Division. The testimony was read in support of the allegation of the reception of the fraudulent votes. James McGuckin was the Democratic Inspector at this poll, and for his conduct on this occasion he has received his reward in the shape of an appointment as a special officer under the Mayor. Votes were received the first hour in the absence of the Republican officers, and the list 10f voters shows that the alphabetical list was so closely followed that every man is marked as voting.

The Seventh Division of the Seventeenth Ward next claimed attention. There are 337

Ward next claimed attention. There are 337 names on the list of taxables marked as voting and two added, while on the list of voters there are 438 names, making 100 votes not marked or not on the book. There are 44 votes whose names are not on the book or not added, leaving 56 votes whose names are there, but who have not been marked, showing that the book was not generally used. But one challenge was regarded through the day.

In the Fourth Division of the Twenty-fifth Ward the allegation is that the officers opened the polls and made no examination of the voters and took no proofs. There were but three challenges during the day, and no naturalization papers were required, although fourfifths of the voters were foreigners. There were 51 votes received of unassessed persons, as well as the false personations. In the Sixteenth Division of the Twentieth Ward there teenth Division of the Twentieth Ward there was a gross fraud, the election officers taking whole bundles of tickets intended for the Republicans and counting them for the Democrats. A count of the tickets in the box showed this fact, making a difference of 64 votes in favor of General Tyndale. The Seventh and Twelfth Divisions of the Fifteenth Ward, the First Division of the Fifth Ward, and Eighth Division of the Twenty-third Ward, were referred to and the frauds referred to at length. In the Twelfth Division, of the Fifteenth Ward, there is a mistake of 100 votes against Gen Tyndale. To all of the concestants case the respondents only answer is a whine that a large number of persons who had naturalization papers were not allowed to vote. They have selected a few divisions where this was done. They produced 30 persons who said their votes were rejected because they had what were called "Snowden papers." We have no evidence how these people would have voted if their votes had been received. The evidence in regard to the Supreme Court naturalizations shows that there was a doubt in regard to the legality, and this relieves the election officers of the charge of acting corruptly.

It was shown by J. Ross Snowden that 6,800 persons were naturalized immediately before the October election—in the space of one month. That irresponsible persons had charge of the papers and the seal of the Court. That false certificates had been issued with the seal of the Court, or one so like it that the Prothonotary could not distinguish it from the genuine, to which the name of the Prothonotary had been appended without his knowledge or authority. It was also shown by undisputed evidence that such certificates had been left at the houses of persons, and delivered to them, when such persons had never been to Court to obtain them, or to make any proof. That hundreds of persons were granted certificates of naturalization, issued out of the Supreme Court, none of whom had been seen by any Judge of said Court, or been examined in the presence of any by any Judge of said Court, or been examined in the presence of any Judge in open Court, and whose cases had never been passed upon by the Court; the whole business of naturalization of allens having been performed by the tipstaffs and having been performed by the the staffs and the Prothonotary and his assistants, nothing in such cases whatever having been proved to the satisfaction of the Court, or the facts even brought to the knowledge or attention of the Judge when present. That the judicial powers had been in such cases delegated to the Prothonotary and tipstaffs, and that in consequence of this, the grossest imposition and frauds were practiced, and to such an extent as to cause the election officers to look with suspicion on such certificates so granted with suspicion on such certificates so granted and obtained, and in some instances to reject

With all these facts known, commented upon by the public press, the community excited over them, it surely cannot be seriously con-tended that the election officers, in rejecting certificates issued by the Supreine Court in September and October, acted from corrupt motives. The few who did reject them have all been examined—thirteen of them, and by all been examined—thirteen of them, and by their honest and consistent evidence, completely destroy any such inference. As the officers in rejecting these certificates acted in good faith—their conduct if wrong cannot affect the election held in those divisions—and the individual cases proved really become insignificant.

Those who were produced and who proved that they offered to vote the Democratic ticket, amount in number to 30. The others, of whom evidence is given, have not appeared to prove their right to vote, or for whom they desired to cast their ballots.

Mr. Mann next addressed himself to the prayer of the respondents to have certain Divisions stricken out, and at some length re-ferred to the evidence upon this subject, commencing with the Second Division of the First Ward,

VIRGINIA AND THE TEST OATH, How the Attorney-General's Opinion is Received in Virginia.

From the papers reaching us yesterday we gather some items about the reception of the Attorney-General's opinion on the test oath.

The Richmond State Journal (Wells-Radical)

says:
"The opinion holds somewhat differently from what we had thought to be the law in a single respect; but, in the main, it accords with the views which we have over and over again expressed in these columns. [The opinion is here summaried.] In holding that this preliminary session of the Legislature will be constitutional, and not provisional, the Attorney-General expresses an opinion different from the one which we have maintained in these columns. While indisposed to accede to the soundness of this view, we willingly accord to it the merit of honesty and sinerity, and are glad that the ingenuity of the Attorney-General has discovered an escape from the test oath which had not disclosed itself to our own invention and perception.

In another column the Journal says:

"As all these things seem to be legal and regular, there will be no complaint on the part of any Republican in Virginia. We bow to the law, not only with reverence but with alacrity. We shall not follow the example of and executors of the law, or in cursing the stars that shine with sinister or benignant light upon the Commonwealth and the fortunes of its political parties. We sustain the law. We sus tain the Administration. We bow cheerfully and reverently to the behests of both. Let the Legislature assemble. Let it elect its officers. Let it ratify the Fifteenth Amendment. Let it adjourn or not adjourn as the authorities may see-fit to order. And let its action and may see nt to order. And let its action and its temper be the standard by which Congress shall judge whether it may be trusted with power over the Republican Constitution which the people of Virginia have ratified, and with the political destinies of Virginia."

The Norfolk Herald (Dem.) has this to make the political destines of Virginia.

the people of Virginia nave rathied, and with the political destinies of Virginia."

The Norfolk Herald (Dom.) has this to say, prefacing the significant title "Saved."

"We look upon the action of the government in not requiring the test oath of the members of the Legislature elect. as the very salvation of Virginia. Those who now constitute a majority of that body are identified with her interests, and are alive to them. They know her wants, and they will secure them for her. They will be judicious in taxing her people, in expending her finances, and in enacting laws to carry out the provisions of the new constitution. To carry out many of those provisions, such as entirely alter the time-honored institutions of their tathers, the Legislature will 'make haste slowly." Virginia's noble institutions of learning will be saved from the manipulations of radicalism, which have destroyed the University of the State of North Carolina her internal improvements will not be sacrificed to reward hungry political cormorants, and a thousand other blessings will flow from the performance of a plain duty, and the rejection of an odious, damnable requirement which could subserve no purpose but to destroy the vital interests of one million of people, to fill the rapacious jaws of a few hungry politicians."

The Burning of Earles' Art Gallery.

PHILADELPHIA, September 1, 1869. Messis. FARREL, HERHING & CO., 629 CHESTNUT Street. GENTLEMEN: We have just examined, with the very greatest satisfaction, our safe, purchased of you some years ago, and which passed through our destructive fire of last night. We find the contents, without exception, entirely unharmed, merely slightly damp, and we feel now in a condition to commence our business again, having every Book perfectly safe.

We shall in a few days require a larger one, and will very Respectfully,

JAMES S. EARLE & SONS.

PHILADELPHIA, August 27, 1859. MESSES. FARREL, HERRING & Co. GENTLEMEN: In the year 1856 I unfortunately was in business in the Artisan Building, which was destroyed by fire on the 10th of April. I had then in use what I supposed was a Fire-proof Safe, but upon opening 1 I found everything was destroyed, and fire burning thereb. You will recollect, gentlemen, there was several of your eafes in that fire, also several in the fire at Sixth ind Commerce streets, the next May, five weeks afterwards, all of which upon being opened proved they were fire-proof indeed, for I witnessed the opening of the most of them, and in every case the contents were preserved, while safes of other makers were partially or thing that I could depend upon, and purchased one of your safes. The safe I purchased of you at that time was subjected to a white heat (which was witnessed by several gentle-men that reside in the neighborhood) at the destruction of my Marble Paper factory, 921 Wallace street, on the atternoon and evening of the 24th inst. After digging the rafe from the ruins, and opening it this morning. I was much pleased to find everything, consisting of books, papers, money and silverware, all right. I shall want another of your safes as soon as I can get a place ontinue my business in. I could not rest contented entirely destroyed. I at once concluded to have son with any other make of safes.
