To the Editor of the Reveil-My DEAR FRIEND: Yes, in point of law, I may return to France; but between law and fact there ex-ists the same gulf as ever. As regards facts, I can vouch for this one, that as soon as the amnesty was signed an order was sent to th ontposts to arrest me on my arrival. I was to be ained until my alleged accomplices could detained until my alleged accomplices could arrive from Cayenne for the purpose of identifying me. The whole of the press might have stormed at this, but there would have been no answering this strictly judicial remark, "Ledru Rollin denies—the others affirm—the truth can only be elicited by bringing them together." To submit to Im-nerial instice would have caused, mea paper but if the ordinary imprisonment had been all that I ran the risk of, I would not have the heitated. But you know, alast what time the voyage to Cayenne and back takes up, especi-ally when there is an animus in the matter. It is a cuestion, of many long months And I is a question of many long months. And is a dustion of many long months. And a confess that, in presence of an eventuality considered by all as certain, the quasi certainty of indefinite confinement within the four walls of a prison does not appear to me a tempting prospect. What, however, I wish to make plain is the difference between theory and practice, between right and might, so that the public should not run away with the idea that I am absolutely free to return, and that I do not choose to do so. Having always entertained the idea that my duty is to be in Paris among you. all who are fighting the good fight without a truce, should be sorry if my old comrades, and espe ially those honest workmen who have latterly given me so many proofs of their sympathy, should think that I delight in being a refugee. I respect the scruples of those who remain away from the sphere of action, but those scruples I have never been able to share Yours, cordially, London, August 31. he reception tendered him in Portland, Ore gon, on the evening of the 9th inst. It cannot be out of place for me to express my sympathy with you and all true citizens of the Republic in the loss it has sustained in the premature death of General Rawlins, Sec-retary of War. Distinguished by honorable and very efficient services in the recent civil war, he had only just entered upon what promised to be an equally brilliant and useful ivil careet. At the very usoment of entering the hall I have heard the sad news of the death of Wm. P. Fessenden. Long my compatriot in the Senate of the United States in a period of pubhe distraction, and in the Cabinet during the fiercest fires of civil war; distinguished in both capacifies by rare abilities and wisdom, he has died with the even nobler distinction of being unswervingly just. If there is one wish at this moment 1 cherish more than any other, it is that the intercourse between the States of this Union, so intimately connected with each other, may henceforth b conducted with the moderation, harmony and conducted with the indertation, harmony and mutual affection which is so important to the welfare and happiness of all; and the inter-course of the United States with foreign na-tions may continue to be conducted with that degree of dignity and justice which is required for the advancement of civilization through-out the world."

MONDAY, Sept, 29, 1869 .- The money market, which losed active and stringent on Saturday, opened this norning with less activity in the demand, but with ly feeling as to the rates. ... The, "bull" in Auences in New York have had a depressing effect on he stock market in most of the large Eastern cities, and have led to a disposition in holders of a speculative shares to let go their securities in fear of a still further lecline in prices. During the past few days there ha een a good volume of business done, with a correspond ng activity in "call loans" in behalf of speculators in OCKS. The rates on call are about 7 per cent. on prime col-Interals, and on the street first-class mercantile paper ranges from 9 to 12 per cent. for 60 to 90 day contracts. er of a longer date is very unpopular everywh and cannot be quoted under 14 per cent. The latter ransactions are unimportant and the result of necessity

Gold opened this morning very strong at 197%, and incluated considerably among the sevens, without how ver, falling below that figure. This is an advance of ? per cent. on closing quotations of Saturday. Governments are stronger, quotations showing an adance up to noon of 1/4 per cent The business at the Stock board to-day experienced a relance into its former state of apathy, but prices vere quite steady. The New York Money Market [From the New York Herald' of to-day.] AT, Sept. 19.—Despite the unfavorable bank stat ist week money was abundant at seven per cen end last week money was abundant at seven per cent., not it was not until the last day that any noteworthy tivity was manifested. Then it was due to a general hanging of loans arising out of the demands of stock outes upon their customers for new margins, propara-try to the emergencies of the ensuing week. The vast per ulations of the week also cutailed a general transfer

The speculations of the week also entailed a general transfer of securities and of their money equivalent. On Saturday aftermoon gold interest was freely paid. The bank statement is favorable, but the improvement is just beyond the dividing line. The deposits have fallen off about three and a half millions, and the banks could therefore afford to lose about eight hundred therefore. The gain in surplus reserve is conse-quently about two hundred thousand dollars. This is a comparatively small figure, but it is encouraging that at this season the banks gain any thing in their surplus. It for tiffes them for the ensuing week, especially as they have also contracted their losus over two and a quarter millions. There is again a discrepancy in the specie item, which is sought to be accounted for by the locking up of gold. The small decrease will be found to be due to the large importation of gold last week, which came this way in the double transaction of selling bonds in Lon-don and the gold for them is market here two weeks ago, when gold was in the vicinity of 137½. The small decrease in legal tenders is attributed to the re-lease of greenbacks originally withdrawn to aid the speculative stock movements of the week. a Government market was heavy and lower, the a cliques having gone out of their usual course and red a "bear" movement contemporaneously with

City re-tailers have paid 1 per cent. for fractional There were rumared changes in Pacifi mail management on the street this morning; that the President was to resign the Presi-dency and C. K. Garrison elected to that posi-tion, all of which rumors were officially de-uied. The money market was active at 7 per cent. on call. Foreign exchange is dull and heavy. The leading prime bankers asked 1074a107; for bills at 60 days, and 1084a108; for sight. The gold market was active and higher, ad-vancing from 136; to 1373. The rise was based upon the Washington talograms in procession upon the Washington telegrams in reference to Cuba. The rates for carrying were 7 and -32 per cent. The Government bond market was steady at the opening, but afterwards became weak, with a slight decline. Southern State securities were firmer on the New Tennessee's and special tax North Carolina's, and quiet on the balance of the list. The railway stock market opened firm and advanced, with considerable transactions in the leading shares. New York Central rose to 2031; Lake Shore to 971; Rock Island to 100); Pacific Mail to 73; Erie to 40, and Hud son River to 184. After the meridian the whole course of speculation was changed, and there was a great decline from the highest point of the morning. This change in the situation was due to the report freely circulated in the Long Room, to the effect that the Vanderbilt consolidation scheme would be further post consolidation scheme would be further post-poned. Prices fell on these reports from one to four per cent. The Pacific Railway mort-gages continued to attract much attention. Unions advanced to 861a87, with only small amounts offering. Covery has caused a full in the fury of the us-bate which was begun by the party of the Empress and the friends of Prince Napoleon. The rivalry already displayed by each faction gives an idea of what is in store for France when the death of the Emperor lets his family loose, and gives up the state to their unscemiy discords. LONDON, Sept. 20.—The Post of this morning

LONDON, Sept. 20.—The Post of this morning says:—" It now appears that America only made friendly representations to the Madrid Government in favor of the reasonable de-mands of the Cubans. It is probable Napoleon suggested to the Regency that Spain should act considerately toward Cuba, and so disarm American influence. The French Govern-ment favors a reconciliatory policy at Madrid, and non-intervention at Washington." The Standard says Prim's attempt to induce England and France to join in a Protectorate for Cuba has totally failed. LISBON, Sept. 20.—The mail steamer from Rio Janeiro has arrived with important intelligence. Despatches received at Rio from Asuncion, dated Aug. 15, report that the Allies have captured Ascurra and Pierribebin. President Lopez has fled, and the Paraguay ans can no longer continue the struggle. The Provisional Government had been in stalled at Asuncion. The above news caused great rejoicings in Brazil, and the Argentine Confederation. The war was considered a an end, and the cities of Buenos Ayres, Mo tevido and Rio Janeiro were illuminated. Hon. Henry T. Blow, Minister of the United States to Brazil, arrived at Rio Janeiro. From Virginia
