The following is a summary of the resolu tions adopted by the Convention:

First—Reaffirming their devotion to the principles and policy of the Republican party. Second—Declaring that the Democratic party, by its alliance with the slave power and sympathy with the public enemies during the ate war, in its endeavors to perpetuate disor der in the rebellious States, and its enunciation of the doctrines of practical repudiation, ha forfeited forever all claims to the confidence the people, and cannot, without great peril to their liberties, be entrusted with the govern ment of the nation or the Commonwealth. Third—Asserting that the reconstructed States are not beyond the watchful care of the National Government; welcoming repentant rebels back to the privilege of citizenship. while insisting upon the complete protect of all loyal whites and blacks. Fourth-Expressing the utmost confidence the Administration of Grant. Fifth-Acknowledging the obligations du to the soldiers of the Republic, asserting that the commemoration of their deeds by litting rites and memorials, and the care of their di abled survivors and bereaved families, will remain a perpetual duty. topics; recognize the right to independence of Cuba, assert that the temperance question should be left to the Legislature, and express confidence in Governor Classin. Every county in the State was represented by a full delegation, and the utmost unanimity and, good feeling prevailed. Massachusett is as firmly Republican as ever, and will this fall maintain her proud rank as leader of the great Republican column, by giving Governor Claffin and his associates on the ticket an overwhelming majority. Senator Sunner was chosen President of the Convention, and opened its deliberations with a most powerful and eloquent speech.

The following resolutions were adopted: First—Maintaining unswerving tidelity the principles and pledges of the Democrat

Second—Demanding the restoration

States to their rights in the Union under the Freedmen's Bureau, the restoration of the subordination of military to civil power.

Thtrd—Arraigning the Administration a false to these principles and measures, and t trary penalties is endeavoring to coerce com-municies and States into assent to its mea-interests, and turning its back upon the people, has become in turn pensioner and patron of accumulated wealth; and that while thus abasing the standard of the Administration at home, it has lowered the tone of our diplomacy abroad by the character of its appointments, its vacillation and hesitation in regard to our rights as a nation, its want of sympathy with the people struggling for liberty, and its indif-ference to the fate of American citizens, victims of foreign despotism.

Fourth—That the protection of American citizens, whether naturalized or native-born, in Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted At 9.30 A.
