[Special Despatch to the Phila, Evening Bulletin.] THE VACANT SUPREME JUDGESHIP.
WASHINGTON, Oct., 8.—Attorney-Gen Hoar is very prominently mentioned in con-nection with the vacant-Judgeship on the Su-preme Bench, and his friends say that he will not be averse to leaving the Cabinet to accept the position. A good deal of influence is being brought to bear in a private manner to have Judge Hoar appointed, although it is likely that there will be strong opposition, if there are indications of his suc-cess. The Southern politicians especially will oppose him, and endeavor to secure the apvintment of some person from one of the uthern States.

THE HORNET'S OFFICERS INDICTED. There is nothing new in regard to the case of the Cuban privateer Hornet, except that warrants have been issued for the arrest of her officers, in order that they may be brought to trial for violating the laws of 1818.
