FAULT-FINDING. BY HENRY WARD BEECHER.

If there is a luxury in this world, it is fault-should make allowance for, human limitatio and weakness, it would make fault-finding well-nigh impossible. And it is, I suppose, for his reason that fault-finding people do not allow themselves such liberties. While fault-finding is a generic trait, so tha man might be defined as a fault-finding animal, and woman as a fault-finding angel, yet it i not left in its naturally diffused condition. is organized, and becomes official. In its offiial sphere, fault-finding becomes a duty as well as a pleasure. The wife finds fault with the husband.

spouse walks up and down therein, for her own exercise and for his, sowing the seeds of good advice, pruning, tying up, hoeing and aking with the utmost diligence. But he is not the subject of compassion. Hath he not reprisals? Are there not on his part times and seasons? Doth he not set the woman's sins in order before her face? Sometimes it is regular discourse, sometimes impetuous outburst, sometimes quiet but sharp criticism, but always in the genuine spirit of criticism, that is, fault-finding. But behold the royal quality in its glory? A fidgetty nother with romping, headlong, healthy chil dien, that don't care a fly for anything short of a general whipping! From the time of rising o the time of sleep, something is always the matter. The pockets, the sleeves, the ruffles, the hair, the shoes, the boisterous laugh, the rude shove, the loud step, the sly pinch, the spite, the rognery, the selfishness, the giggle, he suppressed laughter exploding like a bomb or rather like the bursting of a water-pipe, the too quick and the too slow, the awkwardness. the clumsy grinding against polished furniture. he endless questions, the wantings to go some where, or to have somebody come here-oh what a God-send children are to people wh have a genius for fault-finding-that is, for all mortal creatures! They are so many maternal safety-valves. If now one considers the duty which neighbors owe to each other, the fact that every man is bishop over his neighbor's affairs; if we consider further, what a friend owes to friendship -(oh the blessedness of friendship, that gives one leave to deal faithfully with you ! to open the north door of January on you with the wholesome assurance, "Now you know that I am your friend")-what a pungent dig a man conscientiously impelled to give you when he has been admitted to the secrets of you life; if one considers all these things-and how can he help it if he lives in mortal society?-• he will be duly impressed with the wonderful provision which Providence (with some human aid) has provided for the exercise of this innate, universal tendency to fault-finding. But are there no exceptions? 1 am sorry to say that there are a few. There are persons who weakly judge that good-nature is more re-fining than fault-finding. Spiritless creatures there are who prefer to wait on provocation, rather than to let fly the suitable answer which folly deserves. I have known persons so lost to self that they really took other people's parts; they even let boys and girls romp around them all day without a single snarl. We have seen weak and sunshiny nature so nearly demented as to excuse and palliate their neighbor's imperfections. They do seem to promote for the moment a degree of happiness. But what becomes of the art, the duty the felicity of fault-finding?-N. Y. Ledger. -----POLITICAL.

Charles O'Neill addressed the meeting, He said it was clear to all that the national debi has been decreased to an amount of over $50. 000,000, and that the mission of the Republican party was to pay off that entire debt, which has been incurred in the effort to save the country in the late rebellion. Before the war a great debt had been created in this State. it it was created by statesmen for the derelonment of the resources of the State, but they lost control of the government and it fell into the hands of those who plunged the State still further into debt, so that they could get their hands into the public treasury. It was left for a Republican Legislature to repeal the three-mill tax; a tax that was bearing | drive. hardly upon every citizen in the Commonwealth. Then came the time when we could scent a rebellion afar off, and we succeeded by a mighty effort in electing Governor Curtin. and alterwards Governor Geary, and on Tuesday next we will reelect him. He was not disposed to trust the Democratic party with

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE. The vote of the Presbyterics upon the Basis of Union, as far as heard from, stands: Yeas 50, nays 3. THE Rev. Charles Wadsworth, D. D., has been elected pastor of the Alexander Presby-terian Church, this city. THE Eastburn Mariners' Betzel was 'he first Mariners' Church in Philadelphia. The first sermon was preached in it fifty years Ago, by Father Eastburn. As FAR as heard from, three-fourths of the Conferences of the Methodist Church have voted in favor of Lay Representation. The total vote exceeds 200,000. The debt of $35,000 against the German Re-formed Church, on Green street, near Six-teenth, ls to be paid off. $25,000 was paid by one member of the church. The Rev. John Ewing has accepted the call to the Presbyterian Church, Chuton, New Jersey, and the relation between Mr. Ewing and Trinity Presbyterian Church, of this city has been dissolved. THE Jubilee granted by the Pope is now being celebrated at the Cathedral. The exer-cises, consisting of confessions, masses, in-structions, &c., commenced last Sunday, and vill end to-morrow. THE new Catholic Chapel of the Immaculat

Case, pastor of the Second Baptist Church, New London, has tendered Haptist United, New London, has tendered his resignation, to take effect on the last Sun-day of October. He has received a call to Chestnut Hill, this city. The Sunday School gathering of the Be-thune Memorial Church, will be held to-mor-row evening, in Bethune Hall, Twelfth street and Montgoiner chemic Saveral interesting and Montgomery avenue. The Catholic Bishop of Rochester, New York, has written a letter stating that the Catholics do not wish theirs to be the estab-lished church of the United States, nor does he believe that any other church will ever as sume that position. THE rector of St. Alban's Episcopal Church New York, recently preached a sermon in which he openly affirmed that the Catholic which he openly animed that the outload and Episcopal churches were actually one, and he hoped to see the day when they would be and partake of the same communion. SUNDAY, September 26th, completed the thirtieth year of the pastorate of Rev. Dr. J. T. Cooper in the Third United Presbyterian Church in this city. He was the first pastor of the church, and under his ministry it has become the mother of three other churches, and now retains about 330 communicants. THE Pencador Church, Glasgow, Delaware, The Pencador Church, Gissgow, Delaware, claims to be among the oldest in the State. It was organized in 1709 as a Welsh church, by the settlers of that section of country, which is still known as the "Welsh Tract." The preaching was in Welsh for the, first forty years. Gravestones, with dates as far back as 1720, are found in the adjoining burial-ground.

THE sixteenth annual report of the Ameri-The sixteenth annual report of the Ameri-can Congregational Union states that during the past year grants have been made to 67 churches in aid of the erection of houses of worship. The total amount paid them was $28,690. The total expenses of these buildings was over $240,000. The union gives but small immounts to each church, averaging $412 to THE Moravian statistics, just published show 14,871 communicants, of whom 4,859 are n Germany, 3,208 in Great Britain, and 6,768

The communicants in mission fields are rot counted in, but there are 19,133 persons in their foreign mission congre-mions ministered to by 305 mission interwhich gives them an average of one foreign missionary to every 49 members at home. THE death of the Rev. John Coleman, D.D., which we noticed recently, occurred at St. Louis. Dr. Coleman was for a period of over twenty years rector of Trinity Protestant Episcopal Church of this city. He was for many years associated with Rev. Dr. Frederick Ogilby, now of New York, in the editor-ship of the Bamer of the Cross, a religious pe-riodical of a high character. Dr. Coleman was eminent as a theologian and a scholar. It is probable that united prayer meeting will be held by Protestants in all Christian lands, beginning December 5, the time of the meeting of the council in Rome, for the pur-pose of praying for the spread of the gospel and to pray for the progress of the work o and to pray for the progress of the work of reformation now going on in France, Spain, Belgi m, Austria, Italy and other centres of Roman influence. The proposition comes from D'Auligne, the historian of the Reformation of the sixteenth century. ST. ANDREW'S LUTHERAN CHURCH of this tity (Rev. Dr. Stork, pastor), which has hitherto occupied a hall for meeting purposes, has secured a fine lot worth $60,000. Of this secured a since for worth 500,000. Of this amount, $35,000 was presented by Rev. J. E. Graeff. A contiguous lot will bring from ten to fifteen thousand and $15,000 has been sub-scribed. The crisis in the history of a strug-gling Church has arrived, and they appeal for
