Colored Children Recognized as Heirs of a White Man $100,000 Involved.

[From the Richmond Dispatch, Saturday I]

Before Judge, Bramhall, of the Hustings Court, yesterday, Samuel Shippen, Esq., of the Philadelphia ber, moved that Lee George, of Philadelphia, be allowed to qualify as administrator of the estate of the late Wm. O. George, of Richmond, who died in September last. Lee George, who was present when the motion was made, is an intelligent and well-educated colored man, apparently about twenty-three years of age and claims to be the son of the deceased by Caroline Jackson, a colored woman, born out of wedlock, but subsequently legitimatized according to the laws of Pennsylvania, and recognized as a child.

Mr. George was a well-known citizen of Richmond, who died inestate, owning at the time real estate in the city valued at about $100,000. The petitioner claimed that the deceased had two children by his connection with Caroline Jackson—himself and a sister named Adelaide George. Wishing her to be better provided for than she could be at the South, and desiring to give his children a complete education, he took them to Philadelphia several years before the war. There they have since resided, and been well cared for at an expense of about one thousand two hundred dollars per annum to Mr. George, and receiving constant proofs of his affection, not only on the occasions when he went North to visit them, but also by a correspondence almost uninterrupted. It is also claimed that in April last the deceased put into execution a long-cherished plan of marrying the mother of his children, and claiming them publicly as his own, and that since that time he on various occasions acknowledged the near relationship. In support of these claims and the motion referred to above, Mr. Shippen and his legal associates, Messrs. Holladay and White, presented a certificate in the form prescribed by the laws of Pennsylvania, and signed by a Philadelphia alderman doly authorized to perform the ceremony, setting forth that on the 21st of April, 1869, William Orville George was legally married to Caroline Jackson, a woman of color, particularly described as being very dark.

William Johnson, who had known Mr. George in Richmond and Philadelphia, was then called, and testified that he was present at the marriage on the 21st of April of Adelaide, and Mr. Willemer on the 22d. He also identified a portrait exhibited in Court as a likeness of Mr. George.

Lee George was also sworn, and testified that he was present at the marriage. Mr. George lived with his mother at various times before and after the marriage, and always re-

At this point the counsel were about to introduce other letters, but the Court said further evidence was unnecessary, and ordered

It is understood that the title to the real estate of the deceased will be made a subject estate of the of suit at law.

CUBA.

The French Empress on the Cuban Ques-tion. It is well known that the Empress Eugenie has very decided, if not always very intelligent, opinions on all the public issues of the day. The idea she entertains, or at least entertains, or at least entertains. tertained some years ago, on one of the dis-turbing questions of the present hour, is in-dicated by an incident which we believe was never published before, though Senator Douglas told it to several of his friends in this

Douglas told it to several of his friends in this city.

During the last visit to Europe of the late Stephen A. Douglas, of Illinois (in 1860, if we remember correctly), he was introduced, when in Paris, to the French Court, after the usual forms. Presently the Empress Eugenie fellinto conversation with him, and the first remark she made, after the salutation, was: "Senator Douglas, I understand that you are in favor of the sale of Cuba by Spain to the United States." The Senator attempted to avoid a direct answer by making a pleasant and complimentary remark, to the effect that as France had been fortunate enough to secure a Spanish high for the throne in the person of Her Majesty (alluding to Eugenie's Spanish birth), so the young American Republic was anxious to win a prize from Spain by securing an alliance with the Queen of the Antilles. To this lively sally the Empress made no reply, but instantly remarked in the was account and ance with the Queen of the Antilles. To this lively sally the Empress made no reply, but instantly remarked, in the most earnest and emphatic way: "If I had the power, I would sacrifice every cent (sou) of the Spanish revenue, and every soldier in the Spanish army, before Cuba should be surrendered by Spain."

CITY BULLETIN.

THE ELECTION.—The general election for State, county and municipal officers is in progress to-day. This year the campaign has been conducted in a comparatively quiet manner. There have been years for wars. manner. There have been very few mass-manner. There have been very few mass-meetings, and, with the exception of the attacks on the Republican Invincibles by the Democratic roughs, there has been little or no excitement. To-day thus far, everything has passed off quietly, except in one or two divisions. In some of the Wards there has been dissatisfaction with some of the nominees on both sides, and independent candidates have been placed in the field. Of course there is ill feeling between the friends of the regular nominee and the champions of the "independent" man, and this feeling has resulted in nominee and the champions of the "Independent" man, and this feeling has resulted in occasional hard words between the electioneers. Beyond words, nothing has occurred to mar the peace of the election.

The most bitter contest is in the Seventeenth Ward, and this is purely a Democratic static Theory two Democratic candidates are fight. There two Democratic candidates are in the field for Representative—Mullen and Forsythe The Executive Committee de-clared Mullen the "regular" nominee, but the Forsythe men refused to listen to any such arrangement, and are earnestly electioneering for their man. With the class of people composing the Democratic party in that section of the city, quarreling must be expected when they cannot have every thing their own way, and during this morning several individuals had bloody noses, but no disturbances threatening any serious consequences occurred. This afternoon, when the Mullenites and the Forsythe fellows get pretty full of whisky, there is no telling what may happen. An ample police force is about, to quell any row which may occur. In the Sixth Ward there are two Democratic tickets for Ward officers in the field, headed respectively by Patrick Duffy and John C. Bickel, for Select Council. The Duffy ticket, Bickel, for Select Council. The Duffy ticket, it is claimed, was nominated by the roughs; but it has received the support of the City Executive Committee, notwithstanding the same body nominated a "respectable" ticket for city and county officers. The friends of the Bickel ticket are out in full force to-day and are electionsering, their ticket with creek the Bickel ticket are out in full force to-day and are electioneering their ticket with great earnestness. No trouble has occurred in the Ward thus far.

In the lower part of the city things appear to be going on in a harmonious manner. In consequence of the threats made by Alderman McMullin at the meeting of the Board of Aldermen, trouble was anticipated in the Fourth Ward, but the Democratic managers there appear to have become satisfied with the officers appointed, and up to the present writing no appointed, and up to the present writing no election has ever been so quietly conducted in election has ever been so quietly conducted in that Ward.

At the eighth precinct of the Ninth Ward, Twenty-second and Filbert streets, there was some fighting early this morning, but there were no serious results.

In the fourth division of the Sixteenth Ward, Fourth and George streets, there was trouble at the opening of the polls. The Court, upon application, had appointed watchers. This morning, when the watchers appeared, they were refused admittance to the rooms by the election officers. The matter was brought to the attention of the Court, and the Sheriff was directed to place the watchers on duty. The Sheriff went to the precinct house, but the election officers still refused to admit the watchers, and he applied refused to admit the watchers, and he applied to the Mayor for assistance. A force of officers under High Constable Clark was then sent up to enforce the orders of the Court.
The voting does not appear to be as lively as it was at the last election, and it is the impression of politicians of both parties, that a comparatively light vote will be polled. Voters are being drummed up, and the State House bell rings as usual to remind citizens of their duty. As the tickets are all printed on one slip this year there is not that delay in taking in votes which has been annoying to so many citizens at previous elections. The Registry act does away with many of the causes of challenges, and therefore citizens have not been so much interfered with. The election officers have also been enabled to take in votes much more rapidly of the causes of characteristics have not been so much interfered with. The election officers have also been enabled to take in votes much more rapidly than they have heretofore done.

Policemen are stationed in the immediate vicinity of every election poll, and, so far, have behaved very well. They would, no doubt, like to electioneer for their favorite candidates, but the details made by order of the Mayor have changed the men about so much that they have little or no interest in the election in the precincts where they are on duty to-day. One officer in the Fifth Ward was observed this morning, by the Chief of Police, wearing a Democratic placard and dealing out tickets. The police cap was removed from his head, and the officer was promptly suspended.

On election nights there is always much excitement, and more or less fighting. To-night squads of policemen are to be stationed in the immediate vicinity of places where disturbances might occur, to be ready in case of emer-

A HANDSOME PRESENT.—Several pictures, comprising the recent encampment of the Philadelphia City Guards! near Bethlehem, the officers of the regiment, &c., have been inclosed in a handsome album, by direction of Col. Mulholland, and will be presented to Major-General Winfield S. Hancock, after whom gency. the camp was named.

CRUELTY TO ANIMALS.—Alfred Laws was arrested this morning, by the agent of the Pennsylvania Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, for working a mule with its haunches raw from the action of the spreader-stick. He was fined $10 and costs by Ald. Wm. Ogle. Ald. Wm. Ogle.

SERIOUS BURNING.—This morning, about six o'clock, Mrs. Dawson and child, residing at Hepburn and Shippen streets, were seriously burned by the explosion of a coal-oil lamp. No REPORTS.—The Lieutenants of Police, as usual on election days, made no reports to the Mayor this morning.

EXCELLENT FAMILY FLOUR.—Housekeepers and others who intend laying in a supply of flour, meal, &c., for winter consumption, are reminded that these articles can be found in a reminded that these articles can be found in a state of purity and freshness at Mr. George F. Zehnder's Family Flour Depot, Fourth and Vine streets. Mr. Zehnder has on hand choice brands of Pennsylvania, Ohio, Missouri, Indiana and Illinois flours, and James S. Welch's first premium flour, which has obtained a wide reputation for its purity and nutritious qualities. The sale of this brand is made a specialty.

FAIR.-A Fair in aid of the Pennsylvania FAIR.—A Fair in aid of the Pennsylvania Home for Blind Women is now in progress at the Philadelphia City Institute, at the north-east corner of Eighteenth and Chestnut streets. The tables are laden with useful and ornamental articles, and, in view of the worthy object of the fair, it should be liberally patronized.

THE BYRON BUSINESS.

Pall Mall Gazette of the 28th ult. refers o the Byron case thus: We are authorized to state that Earl Russell We are authorized to state that Earl Russell in no way counselled the destruction of Lord Byron's memoir, which step was decided on at a meeting held at Mr. Murray's house, and carried out by Mr. Wilmot Horton and Col. Doyle under the circumstances setforth in the Diary of Moore, edited by Earl Russell (vol. iv., page 191), from which it will be seen that Mr. Moore repaid to Mr. Murray the sum of 2,000 guineas he had received from that gentleman on account of the memoir; and also paid the interest which had accrued in the meantime on the sum thus advanced.

POLITICAL NOTICES.

ATTENTION! REPUBLICANS.

Who circulated the tickets for the Temperance Reform ticket? Answer-Mayor Fox's police, under the direction and supervision of the Democratic City Executive Committee.

Who is William C. Claghorn, who professes to be a Republican, and is one of the nominees of the Temperance Reform ticket?

Answer-He was, in October, 1868, one of the Return Judges, from the Fourteenth Ward, who betrayed his political friends, and was elected by the Democrats President of that body over the regular Republican nominee; and yet this man now professes to be a Republican and asks the votes of members of the Republican party.

Be not deceived by "last cards" issued only to mislead and deceive.

PHILAD ELPHIA, OCTOBER 4, 1869.

Dear Sir: A large number of the Republican citizens of the Fifteenth Ward, satisfied that Dr. W. W. Burnell Ward in Select Council, and that he could not possibly be elected, took the liberty, at a Public Meeting held on the 29th ult., to nominate you as an independent candidate for that position. It was done under the belief that the interests of the Republican party, the interests of the Ward, and the widespread dissatisfaction with Dr. Burnell, would induce you to accept the nomination.

The undersigned, who participated in that meeting, would be glad to hear from you, in order that, in case you accept, the proper measures may be adopted to place your name properly before the people of the Ward, and thus, we hope and believe, secure your election.

Yours, very respectfully, John R. Senior, U. Tilgo. George Burnham,

Messrs. James M. Harris and others, of the Fifteenth Ward:

GENTLEMEN: Your communication of this date, apprising me of my nomination for the position of Select Council, is received, and I thank you for the compliment and implied connidence.

Although I have always felt a deep interest in the civil and political affairs of the city, as well as of our common government. I have refrained from seeking public position, or accepting office, notwithstanding I have frequently been urged to do so; nor would I be willing at the present time to accept the nomination voluntarily tendered by you, if it were not for the peculiar circumstances of the case, circumstances which seem to demand, for the furtherance of the Republican principles by which we are guided, and which I fully and heartily endorse, that I should acquiesce in your request. I therefore accept the nomination tendered, and in the event of my election I can only promise to fulfil the duties of the position to the best of my ability.
