Royal Insurance Company. At end of current year, the Royal Insurance Company will complete its first quarter cen-nicy. The annual report for its twenty-fourth year, in connection with other public state-ments (the Royal believes in publicity), shows how the results and experience of the past. have worked to promote the growth and position of the company. As re-gularly as the years go on the Royal makes stronger its foundations. In the fire de-partment, the reserve fund was strengthened by the addition of $61,330 out of the net fire, earnings of 1868, after payment of dividend, Royal Insurance Company. by the addition of $61,330 out of the net fird, earnings of 1868, after payment of dividend, and $53,355 were added to the profit and loss account of this department. At the end of 1868 the total of reserve fund and profit and 1868 the total of reserve fund and profit and loss account was $942,745; of this sum, $142,-415 was the contribution of 1868, accumulation these a fraction less than 63 per cent. As com-pared with 1807, the annual fire premium was increased $75,145, while the increase of loss increased $75,145, while the increase of loss was bit $38,880. **Mr.J. H. McLaren, the present manager, walks ably in the path followed by the saga-clous Percy M.Dove. The new elements of fire hazard receive from the management that careful and searching investigation which the element in gunneting of the subject calls for hazard receive from the management which the careful and searching investigation which the alarming importance of the subject calls for. Throughout the civilized world the fire hazard is on the increase, under the operation for inevitable laws. This fact is appreciated by the Royal, which acts in the spirit of a just preparation for the emergency. Inquiry as to the face of the risks declined in 1868 showed that the loss on them alone, had they been ac-cepted, would have been equal to one-sixth of the aggregate loss sustained by the company. The Philadelphia branch of the Royal, under the management of George Wood, Esq., was never more conspicuous in American insu-rance affairs than at present. Its important relations to Philadelphia manufacturing inter-ists, as evinced in the great fire crisis through which the city is now passing, seems to us to Asis, as evinced in the great five crisis through which the tity is now passing, seems to us to call for special comment. This, great agency was organized in Philadelphia in April, 1852, and up to September 1, 1869, it paid losses to the aniount of $1,473,088, including claims, re-sulting from the destruction of the Patterson warchouse. This agency's expe-rience, in all its diversities, so intelligently re-corded, affords an excellent index to the in-surable character of Philadelphia specials. Its tests have suggested some modifications on the forc-cited grouping of risks for future practice. The Royal holds the key of the situa-tion of the strong in the knowledge under practice. The Royal notits the key of the situa-tion. It is as strong in the knowledge under which it acts as in its resources, and as a security is of great, we might almost say vital, moment to the industrial enterprises of the city.—From the October number of the American Exchange and Review.

CITY BULLETIN.

CITY COUNCILS.—A special meeting of both branches of City Councils was held at ten o'clock this morning "for general business." Select Branch.—A resolution from Common Council approving the sureties of Thomas J. Worrell, City Solicitor, was read. Mr. King moved that the resolution be re-ferred to the Finance Committee of Select Council He said that he did not make this in equity to test the constitutionality of the act creating the Board of Trusts, that the matter has to be argued in the Supreme Court, and that it will be impracticable to reach a decision before the January term of that Court. General Collis moved that the Committee be directed to request the counsel to use all proper efforts to get the case before the Su-preme Court at its present session in Pittsburgh. Agreed to. Adjourned to meet at the call of the Chair-

The carriage of the Friendship has been beauti-fully rebuilt for this occasion. It is painted a blue-black, striped with gold, carmine and white, the iron work is polished, and the side badges consist of gold shells, inside of which are two female figures, silver plated. On each side of the bell-gallows are two fire-gilt statues of firemen; between the bells their name is engraved on a silver plate. The cylinder is in-laid shell and pearl work, representing birds, flowers, etc. flowers, etc.

OVERLOADING PASSENGER RAILWAY CARS. —On complaint entered at the office of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Ani-mals, Patrick McGinn and Jesse Heon, con-ductor and driver of Car No. 32, Chestnut and Walnut Streets Passenger Railway Company ductor and driver of Car No. 32, Chestnut and Walnut Streets Passenger Railway Company, were arrested, this morning, on the charge of overloading the car. They were each held in $600, by Alderman John White, to answer at Court.

DOUBLE ASSAULT -- Philip Comfort was arrested yesterday, at New Market and Poplar streets, on the charge of assault and battery on the charge of assault and battery on streets, on the charge of assault and battery on a man named Armstrong. This morning he had a hearing before Ald Eggleton at the Tenth Police District Station House. Without the fear of the law he again attacked Arm-strong in the presence of the magistrate. The belligerent fellow was held in $1,000 bail to answer at Court.

A DANGEROUS FELLOW-John Nushman A DANGEROUS FELLOW—John Nushman was arrested yesterday, at Eleventh street and Girard avenue, and taken before Ald. Hood, upon the charge of flourishing a large dirk knife in a crowd which had been attracted by a fight in a lager beer saloon in that neighbor-heod. He was held in $600 bail for trial.

Their stock is one of the largest and most com-plete in the city, and those who would deal at a reliable establishment and make their selec-tions from an immense assortment of the tions from an immense assortment of the freshest and most durable goods, should not overlook their large and imposing store.

TO THE LIADIES .- Let it not be forgotten by nothers that Mr. Wanamaker has imported and manufactured for this season's trade an assortment of children's clothing such as is a novelty here for its beauty and excellence.

FATHEB HYACINTHE.

ne, and with what bitterness it filed my soul. I was far from expecting you to fall to such a depth. Therefore, my heart bleeds with grief, and is filed with an immense pity for you, and I raise my humble supplications to the God of all mercies that He may enlighten you, pardon you, and lead you back from that deplorable and fatal path on which you have entered. It is very true, my revorend father, that during the last five years, inspite of my personal opinions, which are in general contrary to yours on many religious questions-as I have more than once expressed to you-in spite of the counsels I have given to you in spite of the counsels I have given to you en several occasions relative to your preach-ing, and to which, excepting in the case of your Lent sermons at Rome, you paid but little attention, so long as you did not openly depart from the limits imposed by Christian prudence on a priest, and especially on a monk, I always manifested toward you sentiments of esteem and friendship, and en-couraged you in your preachings. But if that is true, so also is it that, from the moment in which I perceived that you were beginning to go beyond these limits, I was forced to begin on my side to express to you my fears, and to mark to you my dissatisfaction. You must reon my side to express to you my fears, and to mark to you my dissatisfaction. You must re-member, my reverend Father, that I did so especially last year, about the month of Oc-tober, when passing through France, relative to a letter addressed by you to a club in Paris. I then expressed to you what annoyance that writing had caused me-Your letters published in Italy we're also very painful to me, and also drew on you from me observations and reproaches when you last visited Rome. Lastly, your presence and visited Rome. Lastly, your presence and your speech at the Peace League filled up' the measure of my apprehension and my grief, and forced me to write you the letter on the 22d of July last, by which I formally ordered you in future not to print any letter or speech, you in future not to print any fetter of speech, to speak in public elsewhere than in the churches, to be present in the Chambers, or to take part in the Peace League, or anyother meeting, the object of which was not exclu-sively Catholic and religious. My prohibition, as you see, did not in the least refer to as you see, did not in the least refer to your sermons in the pulpit. On the contrary, I desired you in future tollovote solely and en-tirely your talents and your eloquence to teachings in the Church. Consequently, it was with painful surprise that I read in your letter that "you could not re-ascend the pul-pit at Notre Dame, with language perverted by discorrection or untilleted by refigence". You pit at Notre Dame, with language perverted by dictation or mutilated by reticence." You must be aware, reverend father, that I have never forbidden you to preach; that I have never given you any order or imposed any restrictions on your teachings. I only took the liberty of giving to you some counsels, and on addressing to you some counsels, and on addressing to you some observations, especially on the subject of your last lectures, as in my quality of Superior it was my right and my duty to do. You were, con-sequently, as free to continue your preachings at Paris, or elsewhere, as in preceding years, before my letter of the 22d July last; and if you have resolved not to reappear in the pul-pit of Notre Dame de Paris, it is volunlarily and of, your own free will, and not by virtue pit of Notre Dame de Paris, it is volunlarily and of your own free will, and not by virtue of measures adopted by me toward you. Your letter of the 20th announces to me that you are about to leave your monastery in Paris. I learn, indeed, by the journals and by private letters, that you have already left it, and have cast off your gown, without any ecclesiastical authoriz-ation. If the fact is unfortunately true, I would remark to you, my reverend father, that you must be aware that the monk who quits his monastery and the dress of his order, without the regular permission from the com-petent anthority, is considered as a real apos-fate, and consequently incurs the canonical your conscience; may you promptly and seti-ously descend within yourself, see the depth of your fall, and by an heroic resolution manfully recover yourself, repair the great scandal you have caused, and by that means console the Church, your mother, you have so much afflicted. That is the most sincere and ardent desire of my heart; it is also that which your afflicted friends, and myself, your father, ask with all the fervor of our souls of God Almighty, of God, so full of mercy and goed-ness. Reply of His Superlor. The following letter is from the Superior of the Order of which Father Hyacinthe is a member: ROME, Sept. 26. – Reverend Father: Your let-ter of the 20th only reached me yesterday. You will easily imagine how deeply it afflicted me, and with what bitterness it filled my soul.

FOR SALE,

1922 ARCH STREET.

One of those splendid new Brown-Stone HOUSES three stories and Mansard roof, 25 feet front, 150 feet deep to Cuthbert street, on which there is a very fine

Stable. The House is very large and commodious, hav-ing all the modern improvements, and built by the preinquire at 1924 ABCH Street.

Council. He said that he did not make this motion to take up the time of the chamber, but he desired time to properly examine the mat-ter. As a member of the Finance Committee he wanted time to investigate the sub-ject. 'He had no knowledge that the surcties are sufficient.' The course adopted to-day is unprecedented. It is in indecent haste, and he hoped that the Select Council would not approve of the political trickery which has been resorted to to accomplish the end. It is done to avoid an action of Court. There is still a power behind Councils to de-feat actions of that kind. That power is vested in the Mayor and has been available and here in the Mayor and has been exercised once by a Mayor.

Mayor. Mr. Smith replied to the remarks of Mr. King. He said that there had been a contest, King. He said that there had been a contest, and the Court on Saturday had decreed that the contestants were entitled to their seats. It is necessary now to approve their securities. The gentleman (Mr. King) is a member of the Finance Committee, and if he did not see proper to attend the meeting of that Com-mittee, where he had the power and oppor-tunity to make all the necessary investigation, he has no standing here. Mr. King said that he had not been notified of a meeting of the committee, as is the usual custom. A sort of a meeting had been held in the auto-room, and the matter was rushed through.

Mr. Franciscus said that a very-full meeting of the Fmance Committee had been held. Every member of the committee except two was present. All of the documents required by law were there and were examined. The gentleman (Mr. King) was present, and when asked to examine the papers, he declined and walked out of the room.

walked out of the room. Mr. Duffy would vote in favor of the reso-intion. He didn't believe that Mr. Worrell had been honestly elected City Solicitor, but the decree of the Court was that he had been legally elected. The only duty City Councils has is to approve of the securities and to see legally elected. This only dudy only obtained has is to approve of the securities, and to see that the gentlemen offered are the proper per-sons. That duty had been performed by the Finance Committee, and as the usual course has been to sustain committees, he should vote in favor of the report. The motion to refer to the Committee on Finance was disagreed to.

Finance was disagreed to. The resolution to approve the sureties of City Solicitor Worrell was then adopted. The resolution approving the sureties of the other officials was then read:

An other officials was then read: Mr. King moved to refer to the Committee on Finance. Not agreed to. The resolution was then adopted.

Adjourned, mmon Branch.-The President presented soveral communications, as follows: From S. P. Hancock, City Controller, of-fering as suretics E. J. Kenney and David

Jones. From Richard Peltz, Receiver of Taxes, offering John H. Jones, Hugh Gamble and Samuel Miller as sureties. From Thomas J. Worrall, City Solicitor, presenting Benjamin Fletcher, Wu. B. Mann, Joseph Ferguson and Thomas K. Finletter as

Joseph Ferguson and Thomas K. Finletter as

From Alexander McCuen, City Commis-sioner, presenting John C. Tittermary and Robert C. Tittermary as sureties. Resolutions approving the sureties submitted were offered and were referred to the Com-Mittee on Finance. A recess until 11.30 o'clock A. M. was then taken.

The Chamber reassembled at the appointed time

Mr. Shoemaker, of the Finance Committee, Mr. Shoemaker, of the Finance Construction reported resolutions approving the securities of Thos. J. Worrell, City Solicitor; S. P. Han-cock, City Controller; Richard Peltz, Re-ceiver of Taxes, and Alex. McCuen, City Commissioner.

The Chamber then adjourned.
