CITY BULLETIN.

A NEW THEATRE.—Upon the site of the old Atlantic Garden, on Callowhill street, below Fifth, there has been erected a large hall, in-tended for balls, concerts, meetings, theatrical entertainments, &c., and named "Concordia tended for balls, concerts, meetings, theatrical entertainments, &c., and named "Concordia Hall." The new hall is 60 by 100 fect. In connection with it is a large dining-room, 40 by 60 feet, and dressing-rooms and other conveniences. The stage is large, being 26 feet in depth. The hall is so arranged that it can be converted from a theatre into a ball-room in a few hours. The proprietor is Mr. A. Scherzer, who was connected with the Corman Theatre when it was located on this in a few hours. The propretor is Mr. Scherzer, who was connected with the German Theatre when it was located on this site several years ago. He has effected an arrangement with the manager of the New York Stadt Theatre for the transfer of the company from that establishment to Concordia Hall on Friday and Saturday evenings. On Sunday evenings there are to be orchestral concerts under the direction of Carl Sentz. These entertainments are to be given in the These entertainments are to be given in the early part of November, and will, no doubt, be well patronized by our German citizens, who have not had theatrical performances in their native language for a considerable period.

TARGET PRACTICE.—Yesterday afternoon Company H, Grey Reserves, Captain F. A. Donaldson, paraded, and proceeded to the Fall's Lane, on the Philadelphia, Gorman Fall's Lane, on the Philadelphia, Germantown and Norristown Railroad, where they indulged in target practice. They number about forty men, every one of whom served during the entire war in the 118th (Corn Exchange) Regiment. The first prize, a hand some gold medal, was won by Sergeant Paulipiot, and the second one, a massive gold and some gold medal, was won by Sergeant Pauli Picot, and the second one, a massive gold and silver Maltese cross, by Joseph Reppert. Major-General Prevost, Major Lewis, and Lieutenant A. H. Walters were the judges, and the first-named gentleman presented the to whose gallantry the regiment owes much of its reputation, was also present.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—This morning the body of Thomas Heries was found lying on the Reading Railroad beneath the bridge on Reading Railroad beneath the bridge on which the Germantown Railroad crosses. The deceased was 40 years of age, was a music teacher, and resided on Tioga street. It is supposed that he was crossing the bridge during the night, when he fell through and was killed. The Coroner was sent for, to hold an increst an inquest.

an inquest.

Sons of Temperance.—The Twenty-sixth Annual Session of the Grand Division Sons of Temperance, of Pennsylvania, commenced this morning at the Hall, southwest corner of Ninth and Spring Garden streets. A large number of delegates was in attendance. The election of officers for the ensuing year will be held this afternoon and evening. The session will be continued to morrow, and at its close a grand temperance festival will be held. close a grand temperance festival will be held.

POLICEMEN REMOVED. Section 22 of the "Police Manual" gives a series of offences which will subject policemen to dismissal. The first is, "Visiting a public house or drinking-saloon, unless in the performance of duty." Three policemen of the Tenth District were reported for entering a tavern, and this morning were dismissed by the Mayor. Two patrolmen of the same district were discharged for sleeping on their beats.

AGAIN IN ORDER.—The trips of the cars of the Philadelphia and Darby Railway over the entire line were again resumed to-day. Owing to a change in the grade, it will be remembered, travel by rail was temporarily interrupted, but the Company made the connection between Woodlands and Market street by means of omnibuses.

by means of omnibuses.

Rewards Offered.—The Pennsylvania Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals has offered a reward of $100 for the arrest and conviction of the persons who burned to death dogs belonging to Mr. John Clapp and Dr. T. R. Davis, residing near Green Lane Station, on the North Pennsylvania Railroad. NARROW ESCAPE.-A horse and carriage be-NATION ESCAPE.—A noise state trage to be noising to Mr. John Lewis were struck by a locomotive while crossing the track at Grape and Cresson streets, Manayunk, about eight o'clock this morning. The wagon was greatly damaged and the horse was somewhat hurt. The occupants of the vehicle escaped injury.

Fire.—Last night, between ten and eleven o'clock, a fire occurred in the cloak and mantilla store of B. Schlesinger, No. 914 North Second street. The loss is estimated at $300.

To Housekerers.—Those in want of fine furniture will do well to call and examine the splendid stock of goodshow on exhibition at the large second-story warerooms of M. Thomas & Sons. Auctioneers, 139 and 141 South Fourth street. Geo. J. Henkels, of Thirteenth and Chestnut streets, has stocked these rooms with a splendid assortment of all kinds of goods of his superior manufacture, and in this case we think Mr. H. has offered a more superior lot than at any of his sales last spring. All tastes can be suited in style, and as the sale is peremptory the prices will no doubt suit and enable those who have limited means to purchase first-class goods at much means to purchase first-class goods at much below retail prices.

THE MISSAL.—Perhaps no book has created such an interest amongst the Catholic community as has the Missal now being voted for at Concert Hall. It is conceded by all who have seen it to be the handsomest and most expensive Mass Rock in the United States and sive Mass Book in the United States, and sive Mass Book in the United States, and hence we are not surprised that it should cause so much excitement and speculation among the Catholics of the city. The vote last evening was: Cathedral, 1,202; St. Charles', 1,195; St. Patrick's, 1,147; St. Theresa's, 1,091; St. Mary's, 40; St. Joseph's, 74; St. Francis', 33; Annunciation, 29; Assumption, 52; St. Paul's, 26; St. John's, 53; Italian, 11; St. Angustine's, 48; St. Philip's, 21.

The singers at the Dresden Opera have The singers at the Dresden Opera have had their salaries continued, in spite of the burning of the theatre, and are granted two months leave of absence while a provisional theatre is fitting up.. The musical library was saved from the flames; but among the instru-ments destroyed was a very old and celebrated Italian double-bass.

A Texas paper prepared a notice of Admi-A Texas paper prepared a notice of Admiral Farragut on the recent announcement of his death. Not wishing to lose prepared "matter," a little sentence was inserted in the first paragraph rejoicing that the announcement of his death was premature. The necessary corrections were not made, however, in the rest of the article, and there is a delightful mixture of "was" and "is," ending with the statement that "his death was quite sudden."

—"Musical gymnastics" is a term not unfrequently used in a figurative sense, but it is an accomplished fact in a London music hall. One Mr. Forrest and his sons performed on a tight rope while playing on violins, and they wound up by a series of somersaults, each playing a fiddle, without missing a note, during his performance. The spectacle of an orchestra performing a symphony by Beethoven, keeping time with the conductor's baton, in a series of jumbs and somersaults, would be sure series of jumps and somersaults, would be sure to attract a great crowd.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

THE UNCLE SAM SERIES FOR AMERICAN CHILDREN.

This Series has been prepared with a view to furnishing American children books of a higher order than most of the current juvenile literature. Belloving that intelligent parents will regard with peculiar favor an attempt to secure for their children reading that shall at once be full of interest and marked by high literary merit, the publishers have taken special pains to make this series worthy of universal acceptance. In its production they have been so fortunate as to enlist the pens of four yery popular writers and the pencils of two of our most skil ful artists. The Pictures are entirely new, having been designed expressly for the illustration of THE UNCLE SAM SERIES, and reproduced with great care. The subjects are persons famous in American history or legend, and have a perpetual attraction for all American boys and girls. They are as follows:

1. Rip Van Winkle's Nap. By EDMUND CLARENCE STEDMAN. Author of "The Blameless Prince," etc. With Illustrations by S.

2. The Story of Columbus.

By J. T. TROWBUDGE (Father Brighthopes). With Illustrations by Alfred Fredericks. 3. Putnam the Brave.

By R. H. Stoddard, Author of "Adventures in Fair 4. The Ballad of Abraham Lincoln.

By BAYARD TAYLOR. With Illustrations by 8 Extinge, Jr.

They are Illustrated with Colored Pictures, and bound in Illuminated Paper Covers. Price, 60 cents each. They can be procured of booksellers, or will be sent post-paid on receipt of price by the Publishers, FIELDS, OSGOOD & CO., Boston.

Published This Day: I. BALLADS OF NEW ENGLAND By JOHN GREENLEAF WHITTIER.

vol. 8vo. With 69 Illustrations. Uniform with the richly bound in cloth, $5 00. Turkey morocco, $9 00. richly bound in cloth, $5 00. Turkey morocco, $900. This is one of the most exquisite holiday volumes ever issued in this country. The landscape illustrations have been drawn chiefly from sketches made by Mr. Henry Freen, who visited for the purpose the scenes of the various poems. The figure pieces and other designs are by Lytinge, Homer, Fredericks, Perkins, Darley, Colman, Hennessy and Ehninger. The ongraving is by Mr. Anthony, under whose supervision the book has been prepared. The publishers have much pleasure in presenting the following note from the author: "I have examined the sheets of the Ballads, and I find that in truthfulness of illustration, and in beauty and delicacy of execution, the pictures are all that could be desired.
