PROBABLE MURDER IN SUSSEX Desperate Assault by a Drunken Man on His Wife.—The Victim Reported Dead.

A man by the name of Joseph Hearn, a farmer, living near Whitesville, in Broad Creek Hundred, Delaware, committed a murderous and brutal assault upon his wife, on Thursday evening, the 21st ult. The followderous and brutal assault upon his wife, on Thursday evening, the 21st ult. The following appears to be the particulars of the case as far as can be ascertained:

Hearn having been at Salisbury through the day, came home in the evening considerably under the intinence of liquor. A little child, ten months old, being very fretful, Hearn proposed nursing it while his wife prepared supper. Becoming exasperated at the continued fretfulness of the child, he gave it a line and threw it into an adjoining room. sling and threw it into an adjoining room.

Mrs. Hearn, desirous of ascertaining whether the child was hurt, started to pick it up, but being prevented from doing so by her husband shutting the child in the room, she went around and entered by an outside door and got the child and was about returning to her

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—The decline in gold and Government bonds caused an uneasy feeling on the Stock Exchange, and started the share market on the downward tack.
The Lake Shore Raifroad Company notified the Stock Exchange to-day that the transfer books have been removed to the Farmers Loan and Trust Company. The rates paid for carrying gold to-day were from 4 to 2 per cent. Government Bonds have declined 3 to 3 per cent. Under a pressure of sales. The 1862's, 1864's and old 1865's are selling to-day ex-coupons. Southern State securities are dull but steady. The Stock Market to day was the scene of great depression on the first way shares, with a heavy decline in the least grocks, and at one time the market was on the verge of a panic.
The Vanderbilt shares had a downward movement, which was facilitated by some unfavorable reports about consolidation and injunctions.

New York Central fell to 1371; Hudson to 1621; Harlem to 1371; Michigan Southern to 901, and Northwestern to 682, At one o'clock there was a newfect rush to sell, and the market was unsettled and the lowest prices of the day were current.
