A Terrible Tragedy.

A Double Murder in New Jersey

A Wife and Her Paramour Shot by the Husband.

The New York Tribune has the following:
Bombay Hook (a small village near Hackensack, Bergen county, N. J.), was in a state of great excitement yesterday, a man named Cahoon and the wife of the marderer having then shot by a revolver in the haids of John Dickey, an employe in a factory near by. It appears that Dickey has had as boarders in house for some time two fellow-workmen and has frequently quarreled with them and his wife when under the influence of liquor—his wife when under the influence of liquornever, however, coming to blows until Monday night last, when he got up out of bed late at night, and, in a fit of jealousy, shot his wife and one of the boarders, Collins Cahoon.

After the commission of the crime, he visited several of the neighbors, told them what he had done, and left with a friend to find a doctor, as he said. One of those whom he had informed, crossed the river to Yonkers, and informed Sergeant Flandreau, of the Metropolitan Police, who detailed squads of men to formed Sergenit Financia, stan Police, who detailed squads of men to search for the murderer. A party who went down the river in a boat, finally overtook him as he was crossing. Roundsmen Austin and Walters, his captors, took him before the Sergeant, at the Yonkers Police Station, where he made a statement, of which the following is geant, at the Yonkers Fonce Station, where he made a statement, of which the following is an abstract:

"My wife went to bed about 9 on Monday night, and I followed about 10; shortly after I was awakened by hearing a noise down stairs, and I missed my wife from my side; on reaching the foot of the stairs, I saw my wife and Collins Cahoon together; I rushed in, crying, I have caught you at last, and fired at Cahoon; the ball took effect, and he rolled over, dead: I then shot at my wife, and the shot lodged in her thigh, but she was alive when I left home to go for the doctor; Wm. J. Mooney, the other boarder, attempted to prevent my escape, but I ran past him, told several of the neighbors, and got. Wm. Kelly to go with me to Yonkers for a doctor; not finding one, I left for New York, and told my employer what I had done; he advised me to go back and deliver myself up to the authorities; after going back to Yonkers and getting Dr. Pooley I was crossing the river to give myself up, when I was arrested; I make this statement with the knowledge that it may be used against me." Mrs. Dickey denied positively that there was any improper intimacy between herself and Cahoon. and says that used against me." Mrs. Dickey denied positively that there was any improper intimacy between herself and Cahoon, and says that she got up to give Cahoon and Mooney some food, and at the time they were fired upon they were sitting on a bench before the fire. Mr. McNeil, with whom Dickey has worked for the past six years, speaks in the highest terms of him. Dickey himself does not appear to realize his position, and seems to be unconcerned, and expresses a willingness to go back to New Jersey without waiting for a requisition from the Governor of that State.

Homicide Case—Coroner's Inquest.—
This afternoon Coroner Taylor commenced an inquest upon the body of Peter Vierheller, aged 41 years, who died yesterday at the Pennsylvania Hospital from compression of the brain, caused by injuries received at a tayern near Front and Pine streets, on the 26th ult. Since the alleged beating of Vierheller Detectives Lukens and Miller have been investigating the circumstances, and the facts elicited led to the arrest of Charles Smith and George Cox upon the charge of having been concerned in the assault. These men were captured at Washington, on board of a boat, where they were employed as sailors, and were brought to this city last night.

The evidence developed at the inquest today was as follows: HOMICIDE CASE-CORONER'S INQUEST .-

day was as follows:

John J. Linirs, 300 South Front street, testified—Am employed at James McCluskey's tavern there; was there on the night of the 25th; Chas. Smith and Win. Oox, Mike 25th; Chas, Sintia and with 50%, Island Garvey and others, were in the bar-room on that night; a German came down the street singing; he had two demijohns; he stopped in our place; Smith picked up one of the demijohns and put it in a partition at the top of the stairs; it fell down the steps; I went top of the stairs; it fell down the steps; I went down and picked it up; the sailors (Smith and Cox) were cutting up with the German; I told them that I was going to shut up; I went to put up the shutter on Spruce street, and it fell and broke; while I was fixing the shutter the party, the sailors and Germans, went out; can't say which way they went; afterwards I heard cries of distress, but as cries were numerous there I did not mind them; I did not go to see about it.

merous there I did not mind them; I did not go to see about it.

Michael Garvey, 604 Penn street, testified—Was in McCluskey's place on the night of the 25th; I saw the sailors with the demijohn belonging to the German; the barkeeper came out, took the demijohn from the sailors, and gave it to the German; he then said that it was time to shut up; it was between 11k and was time to shut up; it was between 11½ and 12 o'clock; the German went out and the sailors followed him; I went after them; they went south; I remained at the door about a half minute and heard a cry of murder; in about a minute the sailors walked up Union street; I went down and found the demijohn broken and the German's hat on the pave-ment: saw the German get tip and go up Union street, too; only saw the three parties there: don't think that the German was intoxicated. Wm. J. Timmins, 504 Penn street, was with Garvey and corroborated his evidence; was at the door when he heard the cry of murder; saw one man stagger, and two others run away; those who ran were dressed as sailors the German was known as a man who sold Garvey and Lewis were recalled, and said that they went to Washington and recognized the prisoners there at the Navy Yard. John S. Connell testified—Keep hotel south-east corner of Second and Lombard; saw the prisoners on the night of the 25th ult.; about ten minutes of twelve o'clock I went out to ten minutes of twelve o'clock I went out to close the shutters, and the prisoners came along and stepped up on the steps; they went into the bar-room, and I followed after them; they wanted drinks, and I told them that I was not in the habit of giving my drinks away; Smith said "I've got something which will be responsible for those drinks," and handed me an envelope, which contained a pawn ticket and some pieces of cards; I gave them the two drinks; they seemed to be a little excited: Cox had blood on his wrist and on his face, and seemed as if he had had a scuille; they got to battling about New wrist and on his face, and seemed as if he had had a scuille; they got to battling about New York; Smith told me that he belonged to the President's boat; the pawn ticket which he gave me called for a coat and vest; I kept it two or three days and sent it to the pawn-broker's and he gotthe coat and vest by paying $3.43; Smith called on Monday and asked if I had the ticket, and I told him that it was all right; he came hack again excited and said. all right: he came back again excited, and said: You've got those things;" I said "yes, and will hand them over to you when you pay me;" he threatened to prosecute me, and that was the last I saw of him.

was the last I saw of him.

John E. Riley, Policeman, testified—My beat is on Front from Washington to Mifflin; was on duty on the 25th from 7 to 12 P. M.; saw Smith about one o'clock that night standing at the Navy-Yardgate; Cox was with him; Smith was making a noise; I told him to go info the yard; he couldn't get in and I took him to the Station-House; Cox was sitting down and I did not disturb him; I searched Smith; he had nothing but a few scraps of paper.

Dr. E. B. Shapleigh testified—Made a post morten examination of the body of Peter Veirhiller, aged 40 years; I discovered a lacerated wound beneath the left eye half an inch long and a quarter of an inch deep, a slight scratch on the nose and a bruise behind the right ear, not very extensive a mere discovered. scratch on the nose and a bruise behind the right ear, not very extensive, a mere discoloration of skin; there was no fracture of the skull; the suture at the anterior inferior angle of the parietal bone on the right side was slightly separated; there was a large clot of blood between the bone and dura mater pressing upon the right hemisphere of the brain; death was caused by compression of the brain—a result of violence.

compression of the brain-a result of violence, fall or a blow. Mrs. Catharine Veirheller, back of No. 309 Mrs. Uatharine Veirheller, back of No. 309 Griscom street, testified—My husband sold German Bitters; on the night of the 25th he came home between 11 and 12 o'clock; he cried to me to come down and help him, that he was murdered; I went for a light and he scrawhled un stairs and fell on the floor. was muraered; I went for a light and he scrambled up stairs and fell on the floor; I asked him what was the matter he said, "Kate, I'm murdered;" I got a lampand he was lying on the floor bleeding from his mouth and nose and the cut under his eye;

I asked him where it happened; he said it was on the corner of Front and Pine streets; he tried to get up, and he told me to go for the doctor; I asked him who done it, and he said a sailor had robbed him and murkered him; I went for the doctor; when I got back my husband was being helped down sthirs; I asked him again who done it, and he again said it was a sailor; he was taken to the Hospital on Tuesday afternoon; he was then unconscious; he did not mention the name of any person; he had a medallion and chain on Monday morning when he went out, but they were not there when he came home; the but tonhole where the hook had been was torn; when he got home his pocket-book looked as if it had been doubled up and jammed into his pocket; I never saw it that way before; there was nothing in it.

The verdice of the jury was:

"That the said Peter Veirheller came to his death from violence (blows on the head) at the hands of Charles Smith and William Cox, October. 25th, 1869, on Front street, below Pine."

Smith and Cox were then committed by the WORTHY OF CHARITY—Mrs. Peter Vierheller, whose husband died yesterday from the effects of a beating received in a tavern at Front and Pine streets last week, has been left in destitute circumstances. If any of our benevolent citizens feel disposed to contribute to the relief of a worthy woman, they can send the money to the Chief of Police, at the Mayor's office.

CRUELTY TO ANIMALS.—Moses Schloss was CRUELTY TO ANIMALS.—Moses Schloss was arrested at Fifth street and Germantown road by Policeman Labold, and was taken before Alderman Heins, Jupon the charge of cruelty to animals. He had a cow, which, it is alleged, had been driven for two days, and then fell in the street from exhaustion. In order to make the animal proceed he used order to make the animal proceed, he used two sticks until the blood flowed from wounds made by them. Schloss was held to answer at
