THE REAL PROPERTY AND AN INCOMENDARY NOVEMDED IN 1028
8 PHE DAILY BYENING BULLETIN-PHILADELPHIA, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 10, 1869.
CITY BULLETIN.	the hour agreed upon for the opening of the door, quite a crowd had collected on Unestnut street in front of the Hall. Mayor Fox had a large force of policemen on duty to prevent any disorder, and Independence: Square was	PAHI HOW DISCUSTING I is the exclama- tion of every lady who indiscreally ventures to apply the ordinary hair dress or "colorest" or "restorers" to her whitening ringiets. Mut and tar are scarcely more abhortent. Notec PHALON'S VITALIA OB SAL- YATION FOR THE HAIR. Bathing defles its freely flowing crystal. There is no scaliment. no gun, no foul res. It is hamless, and its operation perfect. What a	BARTHOLOMEW'S,	HOMER, COLLADAY & CO.,
The Obsequies of Admiral Stewart	any disorder, and Independence Square was kept clear of people. The door on Chestnut street was opened	VATION FOR THE HAIR. Nothing defles its freely flowing crystal. There is no sediment, no gum, no foul gas. It is harmless, and its operation perfect. What a discovery !		1412 AND 1414 CHESTNUT STREET.
The Services at Bordentown, N. J.	any disorder, and Independence: Square was kept clear of people. The door on Chestnut street was opened about half-past nine, o'clock in the morning. By that time the entire sidewalk in front of the hall was blocked up with people. The crowd after some difficulty was formed in line by the police, and then a steady stream poured into the hall. The visitors filed along between two rows of policemen, viewed the	WELDEN SPRING WATER St. Albans, Ver- mont, Alterstive and Chalpheate. A pily for descriptive pamphiet. FRANK BROWN, N. E. Sorner Fifth and Obestaut streets.	Dress Goods, Shawls, Black Silks, Vel- veteens, Best Lyons Cloaking Velvet, and Domestic Stock, AT GOLD COST IN OURBENOY,
The Remains Brought to Philadelphia	line by the police, and then a steady steam poured into the hall. The visitors filed along between two rows of policemen, viewed the face of the deceased through the glass cover-	FURS! FURS!! FURS !!! Best and largest stock in the city. at OAKFORDS', 834 and 835 Chestnut street.	to close out the ENTIRE STOOK in the Dress Goods, Shawl and Domestic Pepariments. In order to increase our Hesiory, Glove and Notion Depariments.	DRESS GOODS
Lying in State in Independence Hall	ing of the coffic passed his portrait, and then made their exit through a window on to the square. During the entire morning people flocked to the Hall, and at one time the	BUY A BOTTLE OF GLU-ENE, and mend your broken Furniture, Crockery, Glass Ware, &c. Sold everywhere.	IMMENSE BABGAINS will be given to close the stock during the present gensen. Silk and Wool Poplins, 80c.	n na sense na sense Na sense na sense na Na sense na
THE HONORS TO THE DECEASED HEBO	noured into the hall. The visitors filed along between two rows of policemen, viewed the face of the deceased through the glass cover- ing of the coffin, passed his portrait, and then made their exit through a window on to the square. During the entire morning people flocked to the Hall, and at one time the line waiting for admission extended as far as Sixth street. Many ladles were among the visitors, and occasionally an old man, evi- dently a sailor who had been in service at some time under the deceased, stepped up and lingered for a while gazing on the calm features of one with whom they had been so honorably associated in former years. Judges of the Courts, and other distinguished citizens, and military and naval officers of all grades were among those who passed through the Hall.	THE New Style Street Coat, London Coatee, and English Pantaloens, made only by	Bonsen.   Silk and Wool Poplins, 60c.   All-wool Poplins, 60c.   Obcent Plaid Poplins, 50c.   Storent Diagonal Poplins, 50c.   75-cent Obsgonal Poplins, 50c.   87%-cent Obsgonal Poplins, 50c.   81 00 Satins, 74 wide, 76c.   $1 00 Satins, 74 wide, 76c.   $1 20 Silk Poplins, $1 37%c.   $2 00 Silk Epinglines, $1 76.	Lower Prices than Before the War,
About a mile below the depot of the Camden and Amboy Railroad, at Borden- town; on an eminence overlooking the Dela-	some time under the deceased, stepped up and lingered for a while gazing on the calm features of one with whom they had been so honorably associated in former years.	Continental Hotel, No. 824 Chestnut street. Continental Hotel, No. 824 Chestnut street. Corns, Bunions, Inverted Nails, skillfully treated by Dr. J. Davidson, No. 915 Chestnut street.	BLACK BILKS VERY OHEAP.	WE ARE NOW OFFERING ware river, stands alone, in the centre of a fine lot of ground, an unpretending, weather beaton structure two stories in height, ap- proached on the front by a narrow winding	Judges of the Courts, and other distinguished citizens, and military and naval officers of all grades were among those who passed through the Hall.	Charges moderate. SURGICAL INSTRUMENTS and druggists' sun- drics.	BLAOK BILKS VERY CHEAP $6.00 Stripe Shawls, 54.60. 55.00 Wool Shawls, 53.76. 57.60 Wool Double Shavle, 55.	10 CASES OF DRESS GOODS, for a number of years, surrounded by his family, has lived in plain retirement Rear Ad-	THE FUNERAL CEREMONIES. Brevet Brigadier-General Charles F. Ruff, the Chief Marshal of the Funeral Procession,	23 South Eighth street. MINE, SABLE, and all the best and most	$6.00 Stripe Shawls, $4.60. $6.00 Wool Bhawls, $3.76. $7.00 Wool Double Shawls, $5.6. $8.00 Double Shawls, $6.60. $8.60 Double Shawls, $6.50. $9.00 Double Shawls, $7.00. $6.00 Arab Shawls, $3.25. FLANNELS VERY. OHEAP.	IN GREAT VARIETY, Including most brilliant naval actions in modern history. He was known to and respected by many of the inhabitants of Bordentown, who well re- member the sight of his kindly old face. In	morning, and was engaged in receiving re- ports from different societies and organiza- tions which intend participating in the cere- monies this afternoon. The order of proces-	JUDICIOUS MOTHERS and nurses use for children a safe and pleasant medicine in Boyer's Infant Cordial.	WATERPROOFS VERY OHEAP. We yet have the largest assortment of KID ACLOVES in Philadelphia, and selling rapidly.	CLAN STEIPES, mest brilliant naval actions in modern history. He was known to and respected by many of the inhabitants of Bordentown, who well re- member the sight of his kindly old face. In this humble dwelling, surrounded by none of that elegance which characterizes the resi- dences of most modern heroes, passed quietly away before the breath of the Great Destroyer, any other the oth instant at the age of fil.	had his headquarters at the Mayor's office this morning, and was engaged in receiving re- ports from different societies and organiza- tions which intend participating in the cere- monies this afternoon. The order of proces- sion was published in a late edition of the BUL- LETIN of yesterday, and is republished on the sixth page of to-day's paper. The funeral procession will, no doubt, be very large and imposing. The regular. United States troops from New York Harbor; four companies of the Fourth Artillery, reached the ofty about	DEAFNESS, BLINDNESS AND CATARRH. J. Isancs, M. D., Professor of the Eye and Ear, treats all diseases appertaining to the above members with the utmost success. Testimonials from the most reliable sources in the city can be seen at his office, No. 805 Arch street. The medical faculty are invited to accompany their patients, as he has no secrets in his practice. Arti- ficial eyes inserted. No charge made for examination	in Philadelphia, and selling rapidly. Our "Joseph" Glove is the best $1 kid in America. Try our "Barley," best imported, $1 85 per pair. " Journ" $1 arley," best imported, $1 85 per pair. " Journin," $1 75 per pair. Gents' Kids; $1 25, $1 60 and $2 00.	DOUBLE WIDTH PURE CHENE MOHAIRS, on Saturday, the often and that at the age of 91, that grand old hero, who, while in the flower of youth, performed some of the most bril- liant deeds in modern times; a man who in his courage has never been surpassed; not	imposing. The regular United States troops from New York Harbor, four companies of the Fourth Artillery, reached the city about noon to-day.	sources in the city can be seen at his office, No. 805 Arch street. The medical faculty are invited to accompany their patients, as he has no secrets in his practice. Arti- ficial eyes inserted. No charge made for examination CLOTHING.	A, & J. B. BARTHOLOMEW, Importers of Kid Gloves, No. 23 North EIGHTH Street.	DOUBLE WIDTH HEAVY CHENE POPLINS, his courage has never been surpassed; not that impetuous courage of most commanders, but the calm courage of one whose purposes, when once formed, are, as a consequence, in- flexible; and it was this remarkable, tireless energy that gained for him the soubrique of "Old Ironsides" It might have been expected the such an event as this where such a great	noon to-day. The Mayor received a telegram this morn- ing announcing that the Mayor and City Councils of Bordentown, N. J., will be here to participate in the funeral ceremonies. The flags all over the city and upon the ship- ping in port have been displayed at half-mast during the day, and this afternoon there will be a pretty general supponsion of business. as	JONES'	FASHIONABLE DRESS GOODS	FANCY FRENCH POPLINS, &c., &c., At 37 1-2c., worth from 75c. to $1 00.
the transmission has been here ded	be a pretty general suspense	ONE-PRICE	EDWIN HALL & CO.'S,	208 e m w 3t
man (whose reputation has been horated world-wide) has lived among a people so long, there would have been the occasion of a de- monstration of respect to his memory,—some popular recognition of services in the past; but such was not the case, and there were pro-	a mark of respect to the memory of the de- ceased Admiral. While the procession is moving minute guns will be fired by a section of the Keystone Bat-	CLOTHING HOUSE, 604	No. 28 S. SECOND STREET. GREEN AND BLUE PLAIDS. GAY PLAID SERGES.
bably not mity people in Dolaca-	Yard and U.S. Arsenal, and the bells on the	MARKET STREET,	BRIGHT PLAID POPLINS. IRISH POPLINS, CHOICE SHADES. FRENOH POPLINS, SELECT COLORS. SALK CORDED POPLINS.	A LARGE INVOICE OF war, had won for himself a high place in the scroll of American history, and done much to	[Special Despatch to the Philada. Evening Bulletin.]		DOUBLE CORDED SILK POPLINS HEAVY WOOL CORDED POPLINS. SILK AND WOOL SERGES WOOL SERGES.	French Mantel Clocks, Real and Imitation Bronzes, scron of American interview interview from the decline into which it had fallen. There was but one flag at half-mast, near the Railroad Company's shops. The remains of the late Admiral, attired in	the Capitel. Buildings and State Arsenal are displayed at half mast, by order of Governor Geary, in view of the death and burial of	for all Seasons, constantly on hand. Also, a Handsome Line of Piece Goods for Cus-	EMPRESS CLOTHS, &c., With a great variety of DRESS GOODS for sale at the LOWEST PRICES.	Ivory, Pearl and Lace Fans,
			FASHIONABLE PLUSHES For Ladies' and Children's Wear.	Fancy Goods, &c.,
the old-fashioned till till till of a common dore, lay in one of the rooms of the Stewart mansion, inclosed in a very handsome me- tallic casket, with rosewood fiuish, which was ornamented with six silver handles, and lined with white satin. The coffin was arranged so that the face of the deceased was visible through the glass covering. The features	WHOLESALE ARREST OF DISORDERLIES.— Last night a ball was given at the American Mechanics' Hall at Fourth and George streets. This morning, about half-past one o'clock, two wagons containing forty-two young men, resi- dents of Manayunk, stopped at the place, and the fellows commenced hooting and yelling. Sergeant Heiss, of the Tenth District Police, who was present, attempted to quell the dis- turbance. In the meantime, one of the Manayunk party had sneaked into the hall and helped himself to a coat. This man was arrested, whereupon his companions made ar- rangements to rescue him. Sergeant Heiss called for assistance. The two wagons with their living freight were then captured, and were taken to the Tenth District Police Station. This morning the prisoners were taken before	MILLINERY GOODS.	BLUE AND BROWN PLUSH. GREEN AND CHEBRY PLUSH. MODE AND SOARLET FLUSH. WHITE AND BLACK. GREEN AND LIGHT BLUE.	Jast received per Steamships Periore and Holsatia.
that the face of the deceased was vision through the glass covering. The features were very natural looking, and retained that sharpness of lineament which they had borne through life. On the lid of the coffin was a silver plate	who was present, attempted to quell the dis- turbance. In the meantime, one of the Manayunk party had sneaked into the hall	729 CHESTNUT STREET. THOS. KENNEDY & BROS.	EDWIN HALL & CO., 28 South Second Street.	CLARK & BIDDLE,
On the lid of the cofin was a silver plate containing the inscription : "Rear-Admiral Charles Stewart, U.S.N. Born July 28, 1778. Died Nov. 6, 1869." Early in the morning the remains were opened to the inspection of the citizens of	arrested, whereupon his companions made ar- rangements to rescue him. Sergeant Heiss called for assistance. The two wagons with their living freight ware then cantured, and	Open To-Day A LARGE INVOICE	EYRE & LANDELL,	JEWELERS, their late fellow-townsman.	Alderman Eggleton, who imposed a fine, and	RICH FEATHERS	FOURTH AND ARCH STS.,	ocid dåw tdezi
THE FUNERAL SERVICES AT BORDENTOWN. At four o'clock yesterday afternoon, the funeral services were held at the house in the presonce of the family and a number of citi-	OUTRAGEOUS CONDUCT This morning, be-	ERENCH NOVEL TIES.	OPEN TO-DAY	DRY GOODS.DRY GOODS.105. Our New Price List.105. DRESS GOODS AT LOW PRICES.
zens of Bordentown. They were confined to the ritual of the Episcopal Church, and there was no sermon preached. Revs. S. Coxe and W. Petiti officiated in reading the service for	tween twelve and one o'clock, three individ uals seized a colored woman at Fifth and Shippen streets, and commenced dragging her away. They claimed to have a warrant for her arrest, but refused to show it or give any satisfaction for their conduct. The woman resisted and made the street resound with her calls, of "murder," "police," &c. She was finally dragged to Alderman Devitts' office, but as a few citizens had gathered around to hear	SPECIAL	SECOND INVOICE	H.A. FLEISHER & CO., COOPER & CONARD
the dead, and prayers. It was expected that at the close of the service the guard of marines and sailors would be in readiness 'to convey the remains to the boat, for transportation to	satisfaction for their conduct. The woman resisted and made the street resound with her calls, of "murder," "police," &c. She was finally dragged to Alderman Devitts' office, but as a few citizens had gathered around to hear further developments, she was permitted to go home again, after being dragged four or five squares from her home without authority.	OPENING		No. 105 N. Eighth Street, east side.
Philadelphia, and a neat walk had been constructed from the railroad to the steamboat wharf over which to carry the body to avoid jolting;	go home again, after being dragged four or	Trimmed Rannots & Hate	LYONS	MEBINO GOODS. Ladies' Merino Vests, high neck, long sleeves, at 80c., 61, 61 10, 61 15 and 91 25, splendid quality. Ladies' Merino Vests, high neck, long sleeves, regular regular's Merino Vests, high neck, long sleeves, regular fresh assortment commends itself to all visitors. The to carry the body to avoid joiting; but the tug Eutaw, on which was the guard of sailors and marines, grounded several times on the way up, and the guard did not arrive at the house until 5.45 P. M. The marines and sailors were drawn up in the rear of the house, and were allowed to enter the house in detach-ments and take a last look of the remains of the deceased Admiral. carry the body to avoid jolting

..... V, 1,43

1

THE REMOVAL OF THE REMAINS. The face-plate of the cofin was then screwed on, the colors were draped upon it, and shortly after six o'clock the procession started. Six sailors carried the cofin, and a guard of marines was placed around it. It had been arranged to take the remains to the boat, but owing to the delay, it was decided to take the owing to the delay, it was decided to take the cars instead of the boat. The escort was under the guide of persons acquainted with the tor-tuous path leading from the house to the railtuous path leading from the house to the fail-road, and who were provided with lanterns and a huge locomotive light. The guard con-sisted of twenty marines, under command of Lieutenant R. L. Meade, and eight sailors, commanded by Lieutenant-Commander John H. Rowland, the whole escort being com-manded by Captain Thomas G. Corbin. The scane of this time was wigrd and impressive. scene at this time was wierd and impressive.

scene at this time was wierd and impressive, as the procession wound its slow length along the road descending to the railroad. "Darkness had fallen long before; and the moon was just beginning to rise in the heavens. The glare of the lamps was reflected from the bright barrels of the "muskets in lines of fire. There was no muste, no sound lines of fire. There was no music, no sound of noisy drum, no shrick of fife; but quietly, and without any of the ordinary pomp and ceremony of a military display, the body was conveyed to the platform, the quiet being broken only by the rustling of the leaves along the road, and the moan of the wind through the trees. The whole effect was akin to the scene at the burial of Sir John Moore. DECARTURE FROM BONDENTOWN.

DEPARTURE FROM BORDENTOWN. The train arrived at 6.40, having a specia ane train arrived at 0.30, having a special car attached for the use of the escort. The body was placed on the train and a guard of houor appointed. Mr. Charles Stewart, son of the deceased, and a few personal friends, also accompanied the remains.

1.10

also accompanied the remains. AIRIVAL IN PHILADELPHIA. On arriving at Walnut street wharf, the body was placed in the hearse of the under-taker, Mr. William H. Moore, and under charge of the escort, and accompanied by a guard of sailors, was conveyed to Independence Hall, arriving there at 9 o'clock. A guard of reliver any sported to keen off any crowd which might assemble, and the coffin was taken into the Hall and placed upon a pedestal erected for it, and draped with the American colors. The coffin was so arranged that the countenance of the deceased was visible countenance of the deceased was visible through the glass plate over the face. The chapeau of the deceased, and the sword pre-sented to him by the State of Pennsylvania, were placed on the coffin. This sword was voted to him by the Legislature of this State, at its session in Philadelphia, in 1816. It has a heaviful gold bilt, and the blade, of finest beautiful gold hilt, and the blade, of finest steel, contains the inscription: "Presented by the Commonwealth of Penn. sylvania to Captain Charles Stewart, March 6, 1816."

A guard of marines, consisting of a sergeant and six men, was posted, to take charge of the body.

LYING IN STATE IN INDEPENDENCE HALL. LYING IN STATE IN INDEPENDENCE HALL. During last evening Independence Hall was clothed in mourning under the direction of Mr. J. H. Pugh, the Commissioner of City Property. The walls were festooned with black alpaca, and all the prominent objects in the room, including the chandelier and the old Independence bell, were simi-larly draped. The arrangement of the Hall in its habiliments of mourning was done in the most tasteful manner, by Mr. I. E. Walrayen, of No. 719 Chestnut street. The done in the most tastetul manner, oy Mr. 1. E. Walraven, of No. 719 Chestnut street. The large, full length portrait of Commodore Stewart, painted by Sully soon after the cap-ture of the Cyane and Levant, and now owned by Mr. Charles Macalester, was placed on the eastern side of the wall, beside the statue of Washington Washington. The coffin containing the remains of the de-

The coffin containing the remains of the de-ceased Admiral was placed in the centre of the hall, immediately in front of the statue of Washington, and, as before stated, was cor-ered with the American flag, and had the chapeau and sword of the old hero on the top of it. A United States marine stood at each of the four corners of the coffin as the guard the four corners of the coflin, as the guard of honor.

It had been arranged that the public should be admitted to the hall between the hours of 9 A. M. and 2 P. M. to-day, and long before and Chestnut streets.

THE LADY STUDENTS AT THE PENNSYL THE LADY STUDENTS AT THE PENNSYL-VANIA HOSPITAL.—The clinical lecture at the Pennsylvania Hospital, this morning, passed off quietly without any demonstration by the students in attendance. The lady students, whose presence on Saturday appeared to have hurt the feelings of several high-minded youths, were not in attendance, and it is understood that they will be present only at alternate lectures.

ROBBERY.—The dwelling of Daniel Mc-Glaughlin, No. 3447 Ludlow street, was en-tered through a back window, while the fam-ily was in a front room, at an early hour last evening. The thieves made their way to one of the upper rooms, where they helped them of the upper rooms, where they helped them-selves to $379, ten yards of blue poplin and two silver watches.

ALLEGED WIFE BEATER.—Alex. Adams, residing on Whitehall street, above Twelfth, was arrested last night upon the charge of assault and battery on his wife, and threaten-ing to kill her. He was taken before Ald. Massey and was held in $1,000 bail for trial.

MORE CARELESSNESS .- The Lieutenants of the First, Fifth and Seventh Police Districts each reported eight houses found un-tastened in their respective districts during last night.

SLIGHT FIRE.—Hayes's mill, on Cresheim creek, at the lower part of Chestnut Hill, in the Twenty-second Ward, was slightly damaged by fire about half-past five o'clock yesterday afternoon.

STOLE A COAT.-John Anderson was ar-rested, at Fourth and Coates streets, last evening, for the larceny of a coat. He was committed by Ald. Toland.

ENGINEER'S CHART. - The "Engineer's Chart," containing tables of safe, internal and external pressures on flues and boilers of various lengths; diameters and thicknesses, said tables being furnished by Mr. T. J. Lovegrove, the very efficient Chief of the Department of Steam Engine and Boiler Inspection of Phila-delphia, has been published, and distributed deiphia, has been published, and distributed by Messrs. Huey & Co. It is a valuable con-tribution to public safety. By a strict adhe-rence to these tables, boiler-makers and users will avoid many disastrous explosions. There are still a-few copies of this obart remaining at the office of the Inspector, and engineers who have received none are requested to call-and obtain a copy. WHARTON'S SAFETY RAILROAD SWITCH .-There will be a public exhibition of this safety switch to-morrow afternoon, at 3 o'clock, on the track of the West Chester Railroad Comthe track of the west Chester Kaliroad Com-pany, near their depot, at Thirty-first and Market streets. All interested in the practical working of this life-saving invention will then have an opportunity of seeing it tested by a locomotive and cars.

RETURNED FROM EUROPE.—The many friends of Dr. C. Neidhard, the well-known homeopathic physician, will be glad to learn that he has returned from Europe, and has resumed his practice.

CITY NOTICES.

MEDICINE is rendered enticing in Dr. Winslow's Liver and Stomach Lozenges. Children are eager for them. and they cure dyspepsia, costiveness, billous complaints, heartburg, &c., that none of the nameous purgatives will relieve. Sold by all Druggists.

An admirable remedy for burns is presented in Burnett's Kalliston.

NOTICE.—Crippen & Maddock, dealers and importers in fine groceries, No. 115 South Third street, respectfully call the attention of families to the follow-ing attractions, which they have just received, viz.: Ex-tra fine Goster Extiter, in small tubs, put np for family use; new Bethlehem Buckwheat; extra Family Flour, made from the finest quality of white wheat; new crop Oolong Teas, extra fine, at reduced prices; Enclish Brackfast Tea, rich and delicate flavor; Maryland Hams, of superior quality; sugar-cured Driel Beet; Winslow's Oreen Corn; Buck's celebrated Tomatores; Robbin's extra large white frosh Peaches; Mercier's French Green Peas and Mushrooms; Lemarchand & Guilloux Sardines; Queen Ofices, large and solid, very choice; Olive Oils, of all the favorite brands known in the United States; a fine variety of Cheese; Pickles, English and French Sauce's; Mustards; White Almeria Grapps, &c., &c., all of which will be sold at the lowest rates, and warranted in quality as represented, by Crippen & Mad-dock, dealers and importers in fine Groceries, No. 115 South Third street, below Chestout, Philadelphia. GENTS, DEPEDETE for colder waather: GENTS, prepare for colder weather

by purchasing one of those Fine Mufflors ! Fine Mufflers ! Sold at OAKFORDS', under the Continental

FRENCH AND AMERICAN confectionery and

REAL ESTATE BROKER.

208 SOUTH FOURTH STREET.

oc14 2mrys

Dark Black Waterproof Cloaking, 80c., $1 00 to $1 75. Gold Mixed Water-proof for suits, $1 25, $1 37%. Canton Flannels, 12%c. up; English, 48c. up. Ballardvale Flannels, 375c.; 4-4 Shaker, 50c. One Invoice 10-4 White Spreads, $1 75 each. no6 s&w 2trp

1

