PHILADELPHIA, August 27, 1869.

Messes. Farrel, Herring & Co.

Gentlemen: In the year 1856 I unfortunately was in business in the Artisan Building, which was destroyed by fire on the 10th of April. I had then in use what I supposed was a Fire-proof Safe, but upon opening it I found everything was destroyed, and fire burning therein. You will recollect, gentlemen, there was several of your safes in that fire, also several in the fire at Sixth and Commerce streets, the next May, five weeks afterwards, all of which upon being opened proved they were fire-proof indeed, for I witnessed the opening of the most of them, and in every case the contents were the most of them, and in every case the contents were the contents and contents were the contents and the contents the contents and contents the contents and content PHILADELPHIA, August 27, 1869. ne most of them, and in every case the contents were reserved, while safes of other makers were partially or nirely destroyed 1 at once concluded to have somening that I could depend upon, and purchased one of our safes.

The château which gives its name to the wine most renowned in the world—a wine which Mdme. de Pompadour, at the reconmendation of the wicked old Marshal de Richelleu, was the first to appreciate, and brought into fashion—is seen on a hill slope rising against a background of fine trees in the midst of vast undulations of vines. SARATOGA WATER.

FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY Office--435 and 437 Chestnut Street.

SARATOGA. NEW YORK.

The analysis proves that the waters of the Saratoga Star Springs have a much larger amount of solid substance, richer in medical ingredients than any other spring in Saratoga, and shows what the taste indicates—namely, that it is the

It also demonstrates that the STAR WATER contains m a gallon than any other spring. It is this extra amount of gas that imparts to this water its peculiarly parkling appearance, and renders it so very agreeable to the taste. It also tends to preserve the deficious flavor of the water when bottled, and causes it to uncork with an efferveseence almost equal to Champagne. Sold by the leading Druggists and Hotels through JOHN WYETH & BRO.. 1412 Walnut Street, Philada,
