Recent efforts have been made to unite the Methodist and Protestant Methodist churches, but as yet without success. An attempt is now being made to unite the Methodist Protestant Church and the Methodist Episcopal Church South. The prospect is not great, but some of the Methodist journals are discussing the mat-

THE next meeting of the World's Evangelical Alliance, the Protestant Œcumenical Council, will be held in New York city next Council, will be held in New York city next year. On Thursday of last week a meeting of the New York Branch of the Alliance was held, when Dr. Schaff, who was sent to Europe to accomplish the result, made a very interesting report of his labors. Many distinguished Protestants in Europe have promised to attend the meeting, including many of the most eminent divines of Holland, France and Germany; and the King of Wurtemberg and the Prussian Minister of Instruction gave permission to all professors in the national institutions of those countries who wished to attend the conference to be absent three months. Speeches were made by Dr. John Hall, Dr. McCosh, and others. It being necessary to raise $10,000 towards the expenses of the Alliance, piedges and collections to the amount of $9,000 and over were made.
