record the course of human events.
On entering the lecture room, it was found to be occupied by thirty-nine ladies, seated together on the western curve of the amphitheatre, and about one hundred and thirty or forty gentlemen. The utmost quiet and decorum prevailed in the class, and the contrast with the noise and rowdyism of last Saturday was most refreshing.

Dr DaCosta entered precisely at 10 o'clock, and without preface, commenced his lecture, the case before the class being a boy with typhold fever, which the lecturer proceeded to explain with his usual clear, concise and the overside of equal inhappy style. The case was one of equal interest to the male and female students, and the only noticeable difference was that most of the only nonceable difference was that most of the latter followed the lecturer very closely, making numerous entries in their note-books, while the young men, probably more familiar with this class of demonstration entrusted the

with this class of demonstration, entrusted the lecturer's points to their memories.

This case was followed by cases of lead paley, male; hysteric palsy, female; bloody voniting, female; and heart disease, male.

At the close of Dr. DaCosta's hour, Dr. Hunt commenced his lecture, which included several interesting cases, concluding with the partial amputation of the foot of a man crushed by a car. Upon the conclusion of Dr. Hunt's by a car. Upon the conclusion of Dr. Hunt's lecture, the class, which had preserved the most perfect good order throughout, quietly left the lecture-room without demonstration

We observed one woman who came late, and did not appear to be a medical student. She was not a student of the Female Medical College, and contrived to make herself so continued to the female when the beautiful to the during and rege, and contrived to make nerself so conspicuous by her deportment both during and after the lecture as to excite suspicion that she was present from some other motive than a thirst for scientific knowledge.

A special meeting of the Board of Managers of the Hospital was held this morning, and the following preamble and resolutions.

agers of the Hospital was held this morning, and the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

"Whereas, At a meeting of the Board of Managers of the Pennsylvania Hospital, held loth month, 25th, 1869, a resolution was adopted authorizing the admission of students from the Female Medical College to attend the clinical lectures of the Hospital; and rehereas, Under this authority about thirty students belonging to this school, accompanied by one of their professors, attended the clinic held on the 6th inst., at which time a number of male students behaved in a very indecorous manner, by hissing before the lecturer had commenced the delivery of his lecture, and after it was over by other conduct unbecoming in any well-regulated institution, and especially in one which has long maintained the standing of one of the leading charities of our city, and as such has enjoyed the sympathy and respect of our fellow-cityons; therefore,

Resolved, That whilst a large majority of the students took no part in this disgraceful scene, the managers deem it their duty to censure such as did participate in it, and to adopt such measures use will secure good order on future occasions.

Resolved, That the managers would be unwilling to deprive any student of the imperiant benefits to be derived from attending the clinical lectures at the hospital, but that this privilege can only be accorded to such as are disposed to conduct themselves with propriety.

Resolved, That the above proceedings be published in the daily papers, signed by the President on our behalf.

M. I. DAWSON, President.

The Managers of the Hospital having thus recorded their disapprobation of the conduct of the disorderly students, last Saturday, and their determination to preserve order in future, it rests with the Faculties of the University of Pennsylvania and the Jefferson College, who have assumed the responsibility

RE-ARRESTED.—A man, who gave his name as John Hampton, was arrested, last night, in the yard of the dwelling at No. 415 South Ninth street. A policeman observed him jump over the fence, went after him, and captured him on suspicion of burglary. The fellow turned out to be John Sweeny, who escaped from the Central Station on Thursday afternoon last. He states that he was taken to the lock-up by an officer on Thursday, but that he lock-up by an officer on Thursday, but that he walked out of the Rogue's Gallery; went down walked out of the Rogue's Gallery; went down stairs; didn't see anybody about, and then passed out on to the street. In regard to his arrest last night, he says that he was passing along Ninth street and observed two flats (policemen). Supposing that they were "spotting" him, he ran and jumped over the fence. The officers followed him, arrested him and handed him over to Policeman Kelley, who holds him on the charge of attempted burglary at the place where he was found last night. The original charge pending against Sweeny, and upon which he was to found last night. The original charge pending against Sweeny, and upon which he was to have a hearing on the day he escaped, is the robbery of the house of Mr. Hulfish, No. 1135 Walnut street. He will be arraigned again at the Central Station this afternoon, and he will probably be better guarded than he was en Thursday.

It is due to C. Henry Major, the Turnkey at the Central Station, to say that during the investigation of the affair yesterday, he stated, on oath, that Sweeny had not been placed in on oath, that Sweeny had not been placed in his custody at the time of his escape. This statement is now confirmed by what Sweeny says in regard to the matter.

GOT AMONG THIEVES.-Last night a young man, residing on North Seventh street, was attacked at Ninth and Locust streets, was knocked down and was robbed of his pocketknocked down and was robbed of ins pocket-book and watch. He begged his assailants to give him sufficient money to take him home. They refused, and finally succeeded in per-suading him to go to a house on Locust street, above Ninth. There he was asked to treat. He said that he had no money, but if they would give him some he would treat. He was told that it made no difference, and then all hands were called up and had a drink. The young man again said that he had no money, whereupon his coat was taken from his back, and he was beaten and kicked out into the Street. Policemen McClure, McIlhenny and Kelly arrested Wm.T. Fitzgerald and L. I. Robinson upon the charge of having been con-cerned in the robbery, and they will have a hearing at the Central Station this afternoon.

CHARGED WITH ROBBERY.—Samuel Gaggers, Vincent Vanleer and Robert Flanigen were arrested in West Philadelphia yesterday, upon the charge of having broken into and robbed a butcher shop at Hestonville, last September. At the time of the robbery a warrant was issued for the arrest of Gaggers, but he could not be found. Yesterday Van-leer was arrested for throwing stones on the Almshouse grounds, and it was then ascertained that he and Flanigen were connected with Gaggers. Flanigen and Gaggers were then arrested and the two were committed for trial.

JUVENILE HORSE THIEVES.—This morning, about half-past three o'clock, Policeman Cochran, of West Philadelphia, observed five boys in a wagon which was drawn by a gray horse. Upon seeing the officer, the juveniles deserted the wagon. They ran, were pursued, and three were captured. Each told a different story as to how they got the horse and wagon. The prisoners gave their names as Latta Lamma, John Magee and James Walker, and their ages range from 9 to 13 years. They were committed for a further hearing by Alderman Randall.

PRESENTATION.—Col. D. W. C. Moore, late

PRESENTATION .- Col. D. W. C. Moore, late Superintendent of the Sunday Schools of the Second Reformed Church, Seventh street, Second Reformed Church, Seventh street, above Brown, has been presented with a beautiful gold-headed cane. The presentation was made by Mr. Nichols in behalf of the teachers and scholars, and acknowledged in a neat speech by Col. Moore. Addresses were also made by Rev. Mr. Levi and others. Col. Moore, the late superintendent, has accepted a call to superintend the singing in the church at Brooklyn, of which Rev. Dr. Talmage is the pastor.

Supposed Stolen Watch.—Edward Davis was arrested by Policeman Merklinger, yesterday afternoon, while attempting to pawn a gold watch at a shop at Fourth and Poplar treets. By his suspicious actions it was evident that he had not come by the time-keeper honestly. He will have a hearing at the Cen-tral Station this afternoon.

CRUELTY TO ANIMALS.—Francis Miller was arrested by Policeman Mackin, at America and Jefferson streets, yesterday afternoon, for cruelty to animals. He was holding a dog by the neck while a lot of boys stoned it. The animal was badly injured. Miller was taken before Alderman Riddell, and was held in Assaulting Women.—Anthony Gifford got on a spree yesterday. He went to a house in the neighborhood of Beach and Coates streets, the neighborhood of Beach and Coates streets, and abused several women who lived there. Finally he was arrested on complaint, of one of the women, and was held in $800 bail by Alderman Becker. He was then arrested again, and taken before Alderman Toland, when two additional charges of assault and when two additional charges of assault and battery were preferred against him, and he was held in $700 bail on each.

Now is the time to subscribe to Harper's Weekly. In the current number is commenced Wilkie Collins's new story, "Man and Wife," which starts with all that air of mystery and sinussity of design which distinguish the only living master of plot. The action so far appears to hinge on an "Irish Wedding,"—one of those no-marriages of protestants under a Popish priest which a statute so late as George the Second makes illegal. The story is embellished with original designs. As for the Weekly in general, the present number, with Curtis's generous editorials, a fine drawing by Nast, and other excellent contents, is a show-specimen. show-specimen.

LADIES' FAIR, now held at the Horti-cultural Hall, is, according to report, thus far a success. The hall is visited nightly by a large and fashionable audience, which is loud in its praises of and thanks to the ladies for their promptness and alacrity in the perform-ance of their tedious duties. CITY NOTICES.

WOMRATH'S FURS. — Messrs. Womrath's great Fur establishment. No. 1212 Chestnut street, is in the heyday of its glory. The bracing temperature of the past week has brought the name of this popular house to the lips of thousands of our citizens—the ladies especially—very much as iced creams and lemonades are brought to our lips when the thermometer is at 90 deg. To a mercantile house of more than fifty years' standing in this community, it is hardly necessary to seek newspaper comment, especially as its eareer throughout this period has been at the lead of its department in Philadelphia, if not in America. But the present stock of Messrs. A. K. & F. K. Womrath is so magnificent this season that a brief reference thereto is a simple duty to the ladies. From a "glance through" we discover that a popular "raid" is being made upon their Astrachan and Sealskin Sacques. Anything more rich, graceful, or seasonable than these could hardly be imagined. Being encased in one of these superb, velvety furs invests the fair wearer with new charms that we are free to acknowledge, and that throw around our prospective sleigh-fides a hitherto undreamed-of halo. They have fair wearer with new charms that we are the total knowledge, and that throw around our prospective sleigh-rides a hitherto undreamed of halo. They have also this season introduced a pretty style of Collars and Polonaise, also of Astrachan Beal-skin, which are exceedingly beautiful and impressive, and which are having a very large sale. Their stock in the celebrated Russian Sable goods is incomparably rich. While there we saw an original package of these expensive furs just as it came to the Messrs. Womrath from St. Petersburg—a curiosity in itself—but the exquisite little skins themselves, which a lady may luxuriate in to the tune of some thousands per set, give one an idea of the aristocracy that pertains to the quadruped kingdom near the North pole. tocracy that pertains to the quadruped kingdom near the North pole.
In addition to these their stock in the Mudson Bay Sable, Royal Ermine. Chinchilla, Grobe, Mink Sable, Squirrel, etc., in sets for Indica and children, are more extensive than ever; and that their prices cover the wants of everybody is apparent from the fact that they range from five dollars each to a thousand dollars. The Polonaise, or small fur collars, with tabs falling over the breast, is a little gen, and is deservedly popular; so are their skating muffs; while in gentlemen's muffiers, riding gloves, buffalo and carriage robes, foot-muffs, lap blankets, lafghans, and that class of goods, their assortment presents unusual attractions. Being their own importers and manufacturers, their prices are exceedingly moderate. No better proof of the capacity of this irm could be had than the fact that they are large manufacturers of goods in their line for the New York market.

MOUTH WASH AND GARGLE.

DB. J. DE HAVEN WHITE'S

MEDICATED DENTIFRICE.

This entirely new (sray) Tooth Powder, the result of many years' experience, surpasses far, in the Doctor's judgment, his former (pink colord) Powder, so extensively known to the public under the name of "Dr. White's Dontine." He advises his customers to discontinue the use of the Dentine altogether, and repudiate all Tooth Powders and Mouth Washes sold under his name as spurious, except the above, with his signature on the label, and prepared only by
