Assistant Clerk of Common Council WM. S. STOKLEY,

Their fancy is facetted, like the cyes of a fly, and they worry themselves and every one clse by exaggerating every chance of danger into a certainty of destruction. If an epidemic is abroad, they are sure all the children will take it; and if they have taken it, they are sure they will never get over it. In illness, indeed, those people who have allowed themselves to fall into the habit of fear are especially for ecould, be under no misapprehension as ly full of forebodings; not because they are more loving, more sympathetic than others. ly full of forebodings; not because they are to the real authorship. It is said that the Government has directed United States District Attorney Pierrepont, at New York, to file the libel against the Spanish gunboats built in New York, so that they may be seized and detained by the United States Marshal. They will probably be seized to-day.

The abstract of the condition of the National Banks of the United States on October 9 shows resources and liabilities amounting to $1.497.226,604. The specie held amounted to $23,002,402; three per cents, $45,845,000, and legal tenders, $83,719,295. Reports were received from 1,618 banks.

A long-standing difference between our Diplomatic and Naval Corps abroad, as to ultimate authority, has been developed by the Paraguayan investigation before the Sub-Committee on Foreign Affairs, and Vice-Admiral Porter and Second Assistant Secretary of State, Mr. Hunter, are to be examined on the points of theory and practice involved.

Section 1. The Select and Common Countit was a moment of Dante-ish revelation when I stood in the shop and through the smoky at mosphere saw those half-naked and begrimed workmen surrounded by their bright fires. When we reached the shaft Pierce said that I could do as I pleased about going down—many immediately, and the materials sold to the the more valuable members of society, while the exorcism of their dismal demon would be so much better for themselves. It is the come of follows in past Appealment in the exorcism of their dismal demon would be follows in past Appealment interpretations will be the come of the control of th the exorcism of their dismal demon would be so much better for themselves. It is the same in everything. If they are living in the country, and go up to London lodgings, they take the ground floor for fear of fire and being burnt alive in their beds; and if they go from London to the country they see an escaped convict or a murderer in every ragged reaper convict or a murderer in every trained to do so, but he did it two or three times a week. Of course I went down. The bucket was about half as large as a cider barrel, he got in first, on one side of the bail, and then I got in on the other side. Down into the pitchy-black, warmly-moist atmosphere, with the water dripping on and about us, his candle burning faint in the bottom of the bucket, the DANIEL M. FOX asking for work, or every tramp that begs for broken victuals at the door. The country to them is full of dangers. In the shooting season they are sure they will be shot if they go near the wood or a turnip-field; they think they will be gored to death if they meet a meke-eyed cow going placidly through the lane to her milking, and you might as well try to march them up to the cannon's mouth as induce them to cross a field where cattle are grazing; if they are driving, and the horses are go. duce them to cross a field where cattle are grazing; if they are driving, and the horses are going at full trot, they say they are running away and clutch the driver's arm nervously. As travelers they are in a state of not wholly unreasonable apprehension the whole time the railway journey lasts; they wait at Folkstone for days for a smooth crossing, and when they are on board they call a breeze a story to the pages of a magazine published by Folkstone for days for a smooth crossing, and when they are on board they call a breeze a gale, and make sure they are bound for the bottom if the sea chops enough to rock the boat as to be the firm; that he particularly disapproved of this daughter "scribbling" at all, but that as she to might be a scentained by fair appraise to might be a scentained by fair appraise to might be a scentained by fair appraise to the mountain and then down the snall—once down we wandered about there for two once down we wandered about there for two ordinances to the contraction, the price as may be ascertained by fair appraisement.
