

CITY BULLETIN.

A MEMORIAL SKETCH.—The list of the deceased members of the newspaper press of Philadelphia as published in the Evening Bulletin a few days since, has been the subject of a memorial to the Board of Health...

A DESERVING CASE.—Mrs. Peter Verholter, whose husband was assaulted and killed at Front and Pine streets, three or four weeks ago, is in a poor state of health and has two small children to support. She resides in Grison street. Her case deserves the attention of all charitably disposed persons. Any contribution to the relief of the poor will be properly applied to the purpose intended.

DISTURBING A CHURCH CONGREGATION.—The Rev. Mr. Wilson was arrested last evening in the church at Eighteenth and Spring Garden streets, upon the charge of disturbing the congregation. It is alleged that he interrupted the minister while engaged in delivering a sermon, and to be taken in charge by two of the trustees of the church. He was taken before Ald. Hancock, and was held in $400 bail.

LAURENCE—ELLEN ROEVS was committed this morning by Ald. Heins to answer the charge of larceny of a sack of wool, the contents of which were found in her possession. Some of the articles were identified as having been stolen from the yard of a house in Charter street, in Nineteenth ward.

SHOP-LIFTING.—Anna Hunter and Catharine Dimer, colored, were arrested yesterday afternoon for the larceny of a shawl from Pharoce's store, at George and South streets. They went into the store upon pretense of buying, and one of them concealed the shawl under her cloak. The accused were committed by Alderman Lutz.

ROBBERY.—The lager beer saloon of Peter Deimler, No. 400 New Market street, was robbed last evening, about six o'clock, while the family was at home. A silver watch, a gold ring, a gold pencil and $10 in currency were stolen from one of the upper rooms.

HOUSE ROBBERY.—The dwelling of Mrs. Keating, No. 2662 Federal street, was entered by two burglars, on the morning of the 25th inst. The burglars were seen by the family, and they fled with two cages containing birds.

FOUND OPEN.—Among the reports of houses found open, last night, were seven in the First District and seven in the Sixteenth District.

SOME MEN are controlled by circumstances; other men, with a mastery hand, control circumstances themselves. The one class are ever at the mercy of the other, and the latter are ever at the mercy of the former. It is the duty of the former to be ever at the mercy of the latter, and the latter to be ever at the mercy of the former.

WORTHY OF NOTE.—A pair of Boots comes in case, elegant and well made, at all times a desideratum. Having the artistic workmanship of an Arch Street shoemaker, they are well adapted for the use of all who wish to purchase a pair of boots. The type being made of rubber, it will print on any level surface. It is simple, durable, and always ready for use.

THE STAR COURSE OF LECTURES.

On Monday night next, the Academy of Music, the Star Course of Lectures will be resumed. Hon. S. S. Cox will lecture upon "Progress in Spain," a subject for the proper consideration of which he is well fitted, having spent a large portion of his time while in that country. He will, in close contact with the people and with the leaders in the recent revolution. After Mr. Cox will come Senator Sumner, who on Wednesday night will deliver his great discourse on "Canada and the West." We are glad to learn that the sale of tickets for these entertainments has already been very large. They are of the highest and best kind, and they deserve the hearty support of our people.

THE HOMOEPATHIC FAIR.—The fair now in progress at Horticultural Hall for the purpose of securing money to erect a hospital in every way a great success. The valuable goods are selling rapidly, and the reserve stock is being brought forward in such a lively manner that there is a probability of its being closed out entirely by the appointed time. Among the most prominent objects of the fair is a physician's chair, which is being voted for. Last night the highest number of votes was recorded in favor of a medical gentleman in Chicago. The ladies are extremely anxious that the friends of the cause should be present in large numbers, every man and woman who feels an interest in the matter attend and cast a vote. This is one of the occasions when women can vote, and can carry the day if they choose to make an effort.
