GOLD DOWN. Inder the steady influence of Mr. Bout well's policy, and the increasing confidence of the people in President Grant's honest and economical administration of the Government. gold has reached a point below any decline that has occurred since the beginning of the Hebellion. Yesterday, it touched 1212, and we expect to see it still-lower to-day. Long and desperate as has been the fight of the Wall street gamblers to maintain gold at a fictitions value, it has gravitated irresistably toward par, as the country has taken in more toward par, as the country has taken in more fully the idea that there is, at last, an Admin-istration whose grand central purpose is to restore public confidence and credit, and to clinical lectures for their female medical stubring us back with safety and speed to specie dents. If the decline came from fictitious and foolish conduct, and the Emperor has causes, then it might be right to oppose Governmental obstacles to it. But gold is falling from a proper and healthy cause. It is falling because it has been unduly inflated, and because President Grant has already established and assured the national credit. A QUEER CASE. Singular Mania of an Army Surgeon

[From the Washington Republican, Nov. 27.] A singular case of aberration of mind h A singular case of aberration of mind has been brought to the attention of the Board of Surgeons of the United States Army. One of the profession, who for many years has been on active duty, and distinguished for his ability and fidelity, has of late accused officers of high rank with attempting to poison him. At first he mistrusted these poisons were mixed with his food, and hese poisons were mixed with his food, and thereupon commenced to cook his own vic-tuals. He next suspected the deadly ingre-dients were mixed with his bread, and finally suspected poisonous exhalations were in his pillow or on his clothes. The officer had been retired and placed under proper treatmen but has in his own defence forwarded to the War Department a report of forty pages, carefully written, and thoroughly reviewing his pastservices. The document is one evincing rat ability, but betrays the unfortunate con tion of the writer in his accusations agains
