The Orinoco Exploring and Mining Com-pany is a Philadelphia concern. Its officers are as follows: President, B. Frank Folsom; Vice President, Joseph B. Austin; Treasurer, Thomas B. Wattson. These gentlemen, who are well-known Philadelphians, have been identified with the enterprise from its begin-ing. The grant of land was made by the The Orinoco Exploring and Mining Comning. The grant of land was made by the Stocks and Real Estate .-- Thomas State of Guayana to Mr. Austin, in 1867; it was surveyed and located by the Company in Real Estate. [By Hasson's News Agency.] FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 10.--It is likely, from present indications, that the Democrats will go into cancus about Monday night on the Senatorial question. The disposition to settle the election in that method is on the increase. The New Tork Money Market. Golladay's repudiation speech on Wednesday night has done him no good, but rather proved to weaken his influence. Members allude to it as a feeble effort, and the positions as-sumed as conflicting strongly with each other. The principle involved in his position is not so seriously objected to as the time of its assertion. The leaders of the Demo-cratic sentiment contend that he broaches the question of repudiation before the people are fully prepared to endorce it. Mr. Steven-son preserves a dignified reserve, making no special effort to electioneer except through the medium of his friends. He is rarely seen outside of the Executive office. McCreery's absence in Washington is fully supplanted by the activo presence and by the popular ef-fort of those devoted to his fortunes. Both

Ispecial Despatch to the Phila. Evening Bulletin.] NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—Judge Blatchford has ordered the release of the Spanish gunboats. The following is his decision: He said-----In view of the representation of the District Attorney that a state of war did not exist be tween the Governments of Spain and Peru which formed the grounds against the vessels and in view of the fact that the District-At torney did not oppose, but consented to the discharge of the vessels, he should, therefore, order them to be released from the custody of the Marshal of the District." Parties on both sides then left Court. The boats will be for-mally released by the Marshal this evening. They probably will leave at once for Cuban
