CITY BULLETIN.

-In the case of Dr. Schoeppe, under sentence of death for the alleged murder of Miss Steinecke, a writ of error has been granted by the Supreme Court, as will be seen by the fol-To the Hon. Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania: The petition of Dr. Paul Schoeppe respectfully represents: That an indictment for murder and manslaughter was found against your petitioner by the Grand Jury of Cumberland county, at April term, 1869; that at a special Court of Oyer and Terminer, convened on the 24th day of May, 1869, your petitioner was put upon his trial; that he pleaded not guilty, and that the jury returned a verdict on the 3d day of June, 1869, "Guilty of murder in the first degree;" that on the — day of —, 1869, your petitioner was sentenced to suffer death.

Your petitioner most earnestly asserts that he is innocent of the crime of which he stands convicted; that within thirty days after sentence he applied to be allowed a writ of error to the Supreme Court, so that he might have reviewed by that honorable Court manifold errors which he alleges exist in the record of the Court below; that said application was refused, but in making said application he had no hearing by his counsel, either written, printed, or

In assigning the errors he had not the means to print the record, and by a rule of court enforced in Cumberland county his counsel could not take the record out for any purpose. He was therefore obliged to resort to a printed pamphlet which had been printed for general circulation, and which did not contain the evidence as fully as it should have done. Through this he could not explain the errors he specially complains of, and which he is satisfied were not and could not be understood by the Supreme Court without an oral or printed explanation.

As your petitioner's life is involved, he prays that he shall not die without at least a hearing. He therefore petitions for a review of his application, and for a hearing in regard to the errors assigned.

Of this intended application your petitioner has given written notice to the Honorable Attorney-General of the State, with a copy of PAUL SCHOEPPE.

Cumberland County ss.:
Paul Schoeppe, being duly sworn, depose:
that the facts set forth in the foregoing petition are true. Sworn and subscribed this 8th day of December, 1869. I certify that the foregoing is a full and true opy of the original.

One of the counsel for the prisoner.

DECEMCER 8, 1869. GIRARD HOUSE, PHILADELPHIA, December 9, 1869.—Hon. F. Carroll Brewster, Attorney-General: I intend to present the original petition and specifications of error (of which the foregoing are copies) to his Honor the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, at his house, No. 1630 Spruce street, at 12 o'clock M., at which time and place I hope you will be present.

W. H. MILLER, Attorney. Commonwealth vs. Schoeppe. I have not had an opp ortunity of examining the assignments of errors this day served on me. At former stage of this case I read the printed pamphlet referred to, and was unable to satisfy myself that any error had been committed by the Court. I am still of that opinion. Looking, however, to the importance of this case to the defendant, I think the cause of justice requires that he should have an opportunity of being heard, and I therefore consent to the issuing of the writ of error, returnable on the first Monday of January, 1870.

F. CARROLL BREWSTER, Attorney-General:

-Before Alderman Kerr, yesterday after-noon, four bootblacks, named Michael Bird, Philip Griffin, Francis Bradley and Lazarus Leary, charged with being concerned in rob-bing the hardware store of Buchler, Howard & Co., Market street. The accused were committed for trial.

Low Prices Are Doing It!

The people are now convinced that we actually are UNDERSELLING EVERYBODY, and that, too, by slarge a margin as to defy COMPARISON, to say nothing about competition t THIS GRAND CLOTHING SALE is in every respect a duplicate of the GREAT EXECUTORS' SALE held on year ago, at which the people well remember they secured the best BARGAINS in Clothing that they have eve made in their lives.

THIS IS THE STATEMENT OF OUR CASE:

Anticipating, as did all Merchants, an unusually brisk trade, we invested EIGHT HUNDRED THOUSAND DOL LARS ($800,000) in the purchase and manufacture of Clothing. Our Sales have exceeded last year's, but have fallen short of our calculations, amounting to the present time for Fall Trade to about $450,000, leaving us THREE HUNDRED AND FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLARS' WORTH OF GARMENTS of every description, suitable the all classes, made up with the utmost care, of the very finest materials, not one dollar's worth of which are willing to carry over into next year; hence we are determined, AT ALL HAZARDS, to make

A CLEAN SWEEP.

We, then, offer Our Entire Stock at prices as low as those prevailing at the Great Sale of last Fall, bringing some of our prices far below the cost of manufacturing.
